VAIL.

FOUR GENERATIONS IN NEW JERSEY.

The name of the immigrant forefather of the Quaker Vails of the vicinity of Plainfield, N. J., has not been ascertained; but the family was planted in Westchester Co., N. Y., at a very early date, certainly before 1678.—Vail (the name was often anciently written Veal) married Elizabeth ________, who (b. 1657±), d. in Woodbridge, N. J., 3 Nov., 1747, having m. (2) ________ Gach, and m. (3) John Griffith. _______ and Elizabeth (_______) Vail, of Westchester Co., N. Y., had: (1.) Samuel^1 Vail, a synopsis of whose children, grand-children and great-grand-children is here presented. (2.) Martha. (3.) John, Sr., the Quaker preacher. (4.) Daniel. (5.) Arthur. (6.) Thomas.

Samuel^1 Vail, b. 21 of 10 mo. (Dec.), 1678, in West Chester, N. Y., d. Woodbridge, N. J., 26 of 4 mo. (June), 1733; m. (1) Abigail ________, b. 1685±, d. West Chester, N. Y., 14 of 8 mo. (Oct.), 1724, and had:

1. John^2 Vail Jr., (so-called to distinguish him from his uncle, John Vail, the Quaker preacher), b. 21 of 2 mo. (April), 1708, West Chester, N. Y., d. at Plainfield, N. J., 17 of 5 mo. (May), 1751; m. (1) ________, 1731, (between 18 of 9 mo. and 16 of 10 mo.), Margaret^1 Laing, b. 9 of 9 mo., 1710, at old

* The 100 acres bought later is now owned by a granddaughter, Edith V. (Willson) Rarck.

Plainfield, Piscataway Tp., Middlesex Co., N. J., d. before 1751, dau. of John^{2} & Elizabeth (Shotwell) Laing, and granddaughter (1.) of John^{1} & Margaret (--------) Laing, and (2.) of John^{2} & Elizabeth (Burton) Shotwell, [of Abraham^{1} Shotwell], and had:

1. Samuel Vail, b. 1732, d. 12 of 8 mo., 1753.

2. John^{3} Vail, b. 29 of 6 mo. (Aug.), 1734, near Plainfield, N. J., inherited the homestead—the southern-most part of his father's estate—in Greenbrook, Somerset Co., N. J., and there d. 13 of 1 mo., 1811, buried at Plainfield. On one occasion, during the Revolutionary War, General Washington, with an escort, rode up to his house and engaged his brother-in-law, Edward Fitz Randolph, as a guide to take them to an eminence on the face of the mountain whence a good view of Greenbrook and vicinity could be obtained. The horse of this volunteer guide being in a distant field, an aide or orderly vacated his saddle, which Edward took and led the general and his party to the top of a high rock, since known as Washington's Rock, whence the desired view of the plain below was had. In the meantime a boy had been sent to the pasture for the horse, which the waiting attendant at once mounted and hastened off in pursuit of General Washington and staff. John^{3} Vail m. > "And so it is, too, with family recollections. To have had forefathers renowned for honorable deeds, to belong by nature to those who have bravely borne their part in life and refreshed the world with mighty thoughts and healthy admiration, is a privilege which it were mean and self-willed to despise. It is as a security given for us of old, which it were falsehearted not to redeem; and in virtues bred of a noble stock, mellowed as they are by reverence, there is often a grace and ripeness wanting to self-made and brand-new excellence. Of like value to a people are heroic national traditions, giving them a determinate character to sustain among the tribes of men, making them familiar with images of great and strenuous life, and kindling them with faith in glorious possibilities."—Martineau.

> "And so it is, too, with family recollections. To have had forefathers renowned for honorable deeds, to belong by nature to those who have bravely borne their part in life and refreshed the world with mighty thoughts and healthy admiration, is a privilege which it were mean and self-willed to despise. It is as a security given for us of old, which it were falsehearted not to redeem; and in virtues bred of a noble stock, mellowed as they are by reverence, there is often a grace and ripeness wanting to self-made and brand-new excellence. Of like value to a people are heroic national traditions, giving them a determinate character to sustain among the tribes of men, making them familiar with images of great and strenuous life, and kindling them with faith in glorious possibilities."—Martineau.

(incl. John's will)

VAIL RECORDS

Compiled by Alfred Vail
Morristown, N. J. 1853

he departed this life, the eleventh of the eighth month, 1776, in the fifty fifth year of his age, having been a minister about 12 years.

Copied from a will found among the papers of the Estate of John Vail, of Littleton, Morris County, N. J. son of Thomas, son of John Vail, the Quaker preacher, and son of Elizabeth Griffin.

The last Will and Testament of ELIZABETH GRIFFIN, of Woodbridge, N. J.

Forasmuch as it is appointed for all people some day to dieand the time when very uncertain, I, Elizabeth Griffin of Woodbridge in the County of Middlesexand Province of East New Jersey being weak in body but of a sound disposing mindand memoryand inclined to dispose of the estate that the LORD hath to bless me with; Do make this my last Will and Testament in manner following; That is to say: First of all, I desire to resign my Soul to GOD ALMIGHTY who gave it to me, whenever it shall please him to call for it and my body to the earth to receive such decent burial as my executors herinafter named shall think convenient, and as touching my worldly Estate: I give and bequeath the same as follows, viz; First, I give and direct that my daughter Mary Bloodgood, the wife of William Bloodgood shall be fully paid for the trouble and expense that I have been and shall be to them.
Item, I give and bequeath to my son Thomas Gach, all that remains in his hands (at the time of my death) of those goods that I left with him when I came to live with my son in law William Bloodgood.
Item, I give and bequeath to my son John Vail the sum of ten pounds which he has already got in his hands.
My will further is that all the meadows that my husband left me to divide at my discretion shall be divided between my son John Vail and my son Thomas Gach, that is to say; that my son John Vail shall have all that my son Thomas Gach has given him a quit claim for to be enjoyed by him and his heirs and assigns forever and that my son Thomas Gach shall have the remainder to be enjoyed by him his heirs and assigns forever.
Item, I give and bequeath to my two daughters Martha Burling the wife of Edward Burling of New York, and Mary Bloodgood the wife of William Bloodgood of Woodbridge; all the remaining part of my estate to be divided equally between them.
Lastly, I nominate constitute and appoint my two daughters Martha Burling and Mary Bloodgood Executors of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all others and former Wills by me at any time heretofore made declaring this and this only to be my last Will and Testament. In Testimony Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty first day of the fourth month commonly called June and in the year of our LORD one thousand seven hundred and thirty nine.

ELIZABETH GRIFFIN.

Signed sealed published and declared by the said Elizabeth Griffith as her last will and Testament in the presence of us as subscribers.
John Shotwell Thomas Pike Joseph Shotwell

Whereas my daughter Martha is dead mentioned in this will to be my Executrix with my daughter Mary, now it is further my will to put my son John Vail. Executor, in her room and place giving my said son John all the power and privilege that my said daughter Martha had in the said Will relating thereunto being had may fuller appear.

In Testimony hereof I have hereunto set my hand this seventeenth day of the tenth month 1742.
Witness. Abraham Shotwell ELIZABETH GRIFFITH

The above Will is the only record known giving the name of either of John Vail's parents. In it Elizabeth Griffith calls him her son John Vail and makes him one of her executors.The fact that her name was Griffith at the time of her making this will, and that she names therin Thomas Gach as her son as well as John Vail, requires some consideration. It is found in the records of the Woodbridge Monthly Meeting, now in the possession of the Society at Rahway, N. J. that on the 8th of 4mo 1687 "John Veill and Benjamin Griffith" were appointed to speak to Benjamin Clark to attend meeting. (This John Veill is supposed to be the husband of Elizabeth Griffin.) We do not find this name again in the records until the 21st ## of 5mo 1709, when "John Veal is appointed to attend quarterly meeting at Shrewsbury" and it could not have been the first mentioned John Veill; if he was the first husband of E. G. since he must have been deceased, as we find in the same records, the 19th of 10 mo. 1706, the name of Elizabeth Gach, appointed to some service by the meeting, (she having changed her name, by marriage, to Gach.) Her name occurs but twice more after this, until the 15th of 7mo 1709, when we find that John Griffin and Elizabeth Griffin declare their intention of marriage , which declarations they repeat for the 2nd time on the 20th of 8 mo 1709 and after this the name of Elizabeth Griffith frequently appears, so that the former John Veill, if the husband of Elizabeth Griffith, must have been deceased, and could not have been the 2nd John Veal. It is also recorded that John Griffith died the 20th of 8mo 1713. We conclude therefor, that John Veill was her first husband and a Mr. Gach her 2nd; and both deceased prior to 1709, she having had children by the first two husbands only.

We will now proceed to submit such facts as we have in relation to John Vail the Quaker Preacher. Our earliest and most reliable information is taken from " A testimony from Plainfield Monthly Meeting# in New Jersey concerning John Vail" the Q. P. viz; that he was born in West Chester N. Y. and removed from thence, while quite young to Woodbridge, where he settled and married and became an acceptable preacher among the Friends, and died 27th of 11 mo 1774, in the 89th year of his age, and consequently was born 1686 and was buried in the Friends burying ground at Rahway.

We find also, page 946 of the "Documentary History of New York" Vol. 3 in the census list of East Chester , taken 1710; the name of John Uaile aged 24, and Arthur Uaile, aged 19. John was therefor born 1686, and would seem to be the same person as John Vail, he having been born the same year. It appears however, that on the 21st of 5mo 1709, prior to the year 1710, that John Veal whom we suppose to be the Q. P. is appointed to attend quarterly meeting at Shrewsbury; and now the question arises, how can John Veill be the father of John Vail, Q. P. the former being at Amboy Q. M. in 1687, a year after John Uaile's birth, and yet the testimony informs us that John Vail Q. P., came from West Chester to Woodbridge; when quite young; then again John Veal was at Woodbridge 1709, a year prior to the census 1710, when John Uaile was 24 years old and at West Chester.

I am inclined to believe that John Uaile, John Veal, and John Vail Q. P., are one and the same person, and that the apparent inconsistency of these facts may be reconciled by supposing that he made East Chester in 1710 his residence for a short time and then returned to Woodbridge.

I hope it may be in the power of some Friends or others interested in these historical and genealogical investigations and who have access to the ancient records of the Amboy and Shrewsbury Meetings, to examine and discover what facts and dates in relation to the birth, marriages, appointments and deaths there may be contained therein relating to the history of John Vail and his parents and any other Vails.

On the 17th of 2mo 1712, John Vail and Martha Fitz Randolph declare, for the 1st time, their intentions of marriage; and repeated their declaration on the 15th of 3 mo 1712. Both presentations were made by Jane Fitz Randolph and Elizabeth Griffith. John Vail's name occurs often after this.

The name Vail has a variety of spellings in the many documents in which it has been found, viz;
1st Vail; 2nd Vaile;3rd Vaill#; 4th Vaille;5th Uaile; 6th Vale; 7th Vaell; 8th Veil; 9th Veill; 10th Veile; 11th Veel; 12th Veal; 13th Veale; ;4th Veall; 15th Valle; 16th Vele; 17th Viel; 18Vyol.
There can be but little doubt that all these various spellings stand for the same word; as many of them are found to occur in the same document or written paper.

The following is taken from the family Bible of John Vail, Q. P.

THE ESSEX VAILS

This class is named from John Vail, who ~~#######~~ originally settled in Essex County, N. J., and whose numerous descendants now mostly reside in the county and its vicinity.

John Vail, who stands at the head of this class, was formerly of Westchester County, New York, and was the son of Samuel Vail, a brother of John Vail, the Quaker Preacher. Samuel Vail's name may be found as the 1st in the 2nd generation in the diagram representing my own family descent. Samuel Vail was born 21st of 10th month, 1678, and died 26th of 4th month, 1733. He married 1st, Abigail----, who had John, the ancestor of the Essex class; Stephen, the ancestor of the Ohio Class; Samuel, Phebe, Thomas, the ancestor of the Westchester Class; Isaac, Joseph, and Abagail. He married, 2nd, Sarah ---, and had Matthew, Sarah, and Elizabeth. Of John only(who was the son of Samuel) we have at present to do. I will merely state here that although I have parts of the genea#logy of some of the other childrenof Samuel, I have not been able to effect much. I meet with more difficulty in obtaining the records of the Westchester VAIL'S than any other Class, and have but few correspondents among them.

JOHN(ancestor of the Essex Class), married 1st, Margaret Laing and had 1 Samuel, 2 John, 3 Daniel, 4 Isaac, 5 David, 6 Jacob, 7 Abraham, and 8 Benjamin. He married 2nd, Mary Laing, and had 9 Joseph and 10 Christiana. Of these, Samuel, Jacob, Joseph and Christiana either died young or were never married.

John Vail's Will, as I found it on record at Trenton, accompanies this paper. It is printed for the gratification of those who are interested in this object.

JOHN VAIL, Jr., ist son of 2 John, Married Catherine Fitz Randolph. and had 1 Margaret, 2 Edward, 3 Amos, 4 Isaac, 5 Phebe, 6 Nathan, and 7 Joel.

Contributor's note:
This history was sent to Mathew Martin Vail, Seattle, from John Vail, England.

THE VAILS, PART I

The name "Vail," according to the "Dictionary of English and Welsh Surnames," means "Dweller in the valley."

It should be noted that there are a number of spelling variations of the modern family name: Vail,Vaill, Vaile; as well as a wide variety of seventeenth century spellings of these names. Earler versions included Veale, Veal, Veele, and Vele.

Our family history has been traced by various people both in America and in England. Some of the early information is speculation, but it's all very likely and impressive for being able to chronicle a thousand years worth of time.

Our earliest known direct ancestor is GISELBERT I, born around 1000, in Normandy, and died in 1065. He was a companion of William, Duke of Normandy (aka "William the Conqueror"). He married MATILDA LA VEYLE of Normandy.

GiILBERTUS (or Gilbert) LE VICLE (or la Veyle), son of Giselbert I and Matilda la Veyle, was born in 1025, and he was Lord of Ansigniers (Asnieres near Paris). Gilbert is said to have been at Senlac,Sussex (Battle of Hastings) in October 1066.

RALPH LA VEYLE, son of Gillbertus le Viele, was Lord of Asnieres, and a witness in 1082 to the charter from Mathilda (who died 2 November 1083, Queen of King William, the Conqueror, of England (1027-1087), at the Abbaye-aux-Dames at Caen, Normandy.

HUBERT LA VEYLE, son of Ralph la Veyle, was Lord of Asnieres, and owned land on the Isle of Guernsey, Chanel Islands until the reigns of Henry I(1100-1135) and Stephen.

EUSTACE LA VEYLE, son of Hubert la Veyle, took up lands in Northamptonshire, central England, in 1173.

HUBERT LA VEYLE II, son of Eustace la Veyle, reveals only that he left a son.

JOHN LA VEYLE, son of Hubert la Veyle II, lived during the time of King John (1199-1216).

PETER LA VEYLE, son of John la Veyle, married MATHILDA, sister of ROGER DE BEORUN, who awarded Peter with a messuage and 16 acres of land in 1221, 6th year of the reign of Henry III. An inquisition of Peter was taken in 1231, the 16th year of the reign of Henry III. Peter and Mathilda had the following children:
John, no children;
Beatrice, whose son Reginald was heir to his uncle John in 1294;

Thomas;
and Galfridus(Geoffrey).

GALFRIDUS LA VEYLE (Galfridus Vitdulus, Geoffrey Veel, Jeffrey le Veal), son of Peter la Veyle and Mathilda, was alive during the reign of King John (1199-1216) and received the King's affirmation (signed confirmation) in 1205/6. Galfridus married MAUD (Matilda) who was born around 1125-30. She was the daughter of either ELIAS FITZ HARDING (aka Berkeley) of Huntingford, County Gloucester, or of his brother ROBERT FITZ HARDING "THE DEVOUT," who died 5 February 1170/1.
Galfridus and Maud had the following children:
Henry le Veal;
Robert, who had a son Robertus Vele;
and William Vele.

HENRY LE VEAL (Vele), son of Galfridus and Maud, was living in 1252, the 37th year of Henry III. He had one son.

ROBERT LE VEAL (Vele), son of Henry le Veal was of Chersfield (Charfield), County Gloucester. He flourished around 1275-1298. He married Hawisa, who flourished around 1275-1301, heiress and daughter of PETER LE GORE (St. Fagon). Robert inherited Manor of St. Faggon (Flagon) from him. Robert served in Gascony from 1297-98. He was drafted to serve in the army and the campaign in Gascony, which was English territory at that time. Robert died around 1299.

SIR PETER (Petrus)VEALE(Veele), son of Robert le Veal and Hawisa, was a knight who flourished around 1276, and lived in 1311, the 4th year of the reign of Edward II. He held Manor of Charfield in 1315, the 9th year of the reign of Edward III, and he died in 1342/3, the 17th year of Edward III's reign. He married HAWISE (Hawissa,Hawis) in 1320/1. She was the daughter of SIR NICHOLAS KINGSTON (de Kyneston) of Tortworth, who flourished in 1303, died 1330/1, from whom Peter probably inherited Tortworth, County Gloucester, in 1336/7, the 11th year of th reign of Edward III.

SIR PETER VELE(le Veal), son of Sir Peter Veale and Hawise, was a knight. He married CECILIA (Cicely, Cisseley, Sisley) daughter of JOHN and EMMA DE MASSY (Meisy, Massey). Summoned to Parliment in 1342, the 16th year of the reign of Edward III; intayled his manors to male heirs: 1330 Huntingfield, 1349 Charfield; 1374/5 High Sheriff of Gloucestershire; 1378 served King Richard II. Sir Peter died in 1396, the 20th year of the reign of Richard II.

SIR PIERCE (Piers, Peter) LE VEAL (le Veel, Veale), son of Sir Peter Vele and Hawise, was a knight. He married CATHERINE (Katherine, Katheryn), heiress and daughter of SIR JOHN CLIVEDON (Cleudon), who was born around 1287 and died around 1373. Sir John was of Charfield and of Aller, Somerset, by his second wife, EMMA. Pierce died before 1347, and Catherine married Thomas (8th Lord) Berkeley "the Ritch", who was born 1291 and died 27 October 1361. They were married 30 May 1347, and Catherine died 13 March 1385/6. She is buried in Berkeley Church, County Gloucester, alongside Thomas Berkeley.

We ended PART I with Catherine dying 13 March 1385/6.

THOMAS VEAL (VELE), son of Sir Pierce and Catherine le Veal, married HAWISE (Hawes) TORRINGTON. They had one son.

JOHN (Johannes)VELE (Veal), son of Thomas and Hawise Veal, married MARGARET, and he died in 1430, the 9th year of the reign of Henry VI, leaving one son.

SIR JOHN (Johannes) VEALE (VELE), son of John and Margaret Vele, was a knight. He was living 1430, the 9th year of the reign of Henry VI; he was High Sheriff of County Gloucester in 1452, the 31st year of the reign of Henry VI. He died in 1457, the 36th year of the reign of Henry VI and had to pass on Huntingford Manor under the inheritance laws. He married ALICE (Alicea, Eleanor) BROKESBIE (Brooksby) during the reign of Henry VI (1422-1460).
They had the following children:
Robert Veale (Veal), who married Elizabeth Pointz, the daughter of John Pointz,Esq. (died between 1467-1473);
William Vele (Veale), born 1429; and John le Veel (who died around 1473/4).

WILLIAM VELE, second son of Sir John and Alice Veale, inherited Tortworth when aged 28 in 1457. He married SUSANNA VYELL (Vielle) of Uxell, born around 1429. She was a widow of _____ Weddel.

WILLIAM VEAL (Vele), son of William and Susan Vele, was of Over, Parish of Almondsbury, County Gloucester. He married MARGARET FETTIPLACE (Phetiplace), daughter of RICHARD PHETIPLACE (died in August 1503). Margaret's mother was FREDISWIDE KENTWODE of Maydencott, County Berkshire (previously County Oxford). Margaret Veal received lands in Basildon 28 March 1547; Margaret's will dated 1595 (perhaps a different Margaret).
They had the following children:
Edward Veal (Vele, Veele) of Over, who married Catherine Holloway, and they died in September of 1577 and 7 November 1575, respectively, both buried at St. Mary's Church, Almondsbury;
William Vele of Acton, married Eleanora Goure; Peter Vele of Tenby, Pembrokshire, married Anne Langer (Lange); Jane, married John Lardge (Lange) of Stoke;
Dorothy, married Richard Haynes of Southmede, Bristol;
May (Mary), married Richard (or Robert) Bucknell.

WILLIAM VEAL II (Vele), the second son of William and Margaret Veal, married ELIANOR (Eleanora), daughter of John Gover (Goure, Ouer) of Wotton, County Gloucester. William and Elianor lived in Acton and had the following children:
Nicholaus, married Margaret Bridges (Brydges) of Combe;
Thomas, married Elizabeth;

Dorothy, married Arthur Player;
Anne;
Catherine.

THOMAS VELE, second son of William and Elianor Veal of Acton, settled in the city of Gloucester. Thomas married ELIZABETH, who flourished between 1500-1550.
They had the following children:
William Veale of Ruawers (Ruorwars, Crawers), County Kent;
John Vele of Longford, County Gloucester;
Anne (Ann) Vele, married Walter Evdham (Eudham, Enaham); Thomas Vele, lived in London.

JOHN VELE, second son of Thomas and Elizabeth Vele, resided north of Gloucester City in Longford. He was born around 1582, and he married MATILDA (Mathilda, Maud), daughter of WILLIAM BEKETT (Becket, Beckett).
They had the following children:
John of Longford, born around 1616, married Alice Powell of Gloucester City;
William;
Thomas Vele (Veal).

THOMAS VELE (Veal), third son of John and Matilda Vele, married ELIZABETH, daughter of GRIMBALD HITCHINS (Greinbald). They had a son.

JOHN VEALE, son of Thomas and Elizabeth Vele, was born between 1590-95. He married ALICE MOORE, of unknown lineage or place. They had the following children:
Jeremiah Veale, born around 1618 in County Gloucester or Suffolk;
Thomas Veale.

THOMAS VEALE (Vayle, Vail), the second son of John and Alice Veale, was born around 1620. Thomas Vail is known to have been living in Salem, Massachusetts, with his wife, SARAH WENTWORTH, in 1640. Thomas was undoubtedly a Puritan as Salem was settled, basically, by English Puritans. It is not known in which ship they came to America nor is it known from which port they sailed, but there is evidence that Southwold, England was their home before coming to America. Thomas' brother, Jeremiah Vail, is listed as having come to America a year before him, in 1639. Thomas came to Boston around 1645. In 1647, records show that Thomas "Vayle" and his wife, Sarah, purchased land in Southampton, L.I. where they lived for about 13 years.

While in Southampton, Thomas is recorded as taking his turn at "whale-watching," a necessary, civic responsibility of the citizens of Southampton. When a whale was cast upon the shore and stranded, the whale-watchers secured it and all the townsmen gathered to divide the carcass and render the blubber, an important source of revenue for the town. Thomas was paid "three shillings per day for his paines."

In 1660, Thomas, with Thomas Pell and a group of others, purchased land from the Indians and settled the town of Westchester, now within the boundaries of New York City. Westchester was, at that time, under the control of the Dutch and Director General Stuyvesant and Council appointed Thomas Vail a Magistrate for three terms. The office of Magistrate was the most prominent of the local offices held. Thomas' duties included administering justice and regulating matters relating to roads, bridges, schools and other public buildings. His name appears on records affecting major decisions in Westchester. Thomas Vail died between 3 May 1687 and 14 December 1688.

Sarah Wentworth Vail was known for her sharp tongue. She was brought to court, as was the Puritan custom, for angry words to her neighbor and had to stand with her tongue in a cleft stick while the offense was read against her. Since she appears only once in the court records, we'll assume that she learned to hold her tongue after this experience. The date of Sarah's death is unknown. Thomas and Sarah had the following children:

Samuel, born in 1654, married Elizabeth Hunt;
Thomas Vail, Jr. of East Chester, married in 1679 to Sarah Lankaster of East Chster;
John Vail (Veale), married Eunice(nis);
Joseph Vail (Vaile, Veale), married the daughter of Isaac Smith;
James Vail of East Chester;
Philip Vail (Veale), blacksmith of Huntington, married Mary;
Ruth Vail of East Hampton, Long Island;
Mary Vail of East Chester, New York.

This finishes the history sent from John Vail, England, to Mathew Martin Vail, Seattle. John Vail has written up his own line (Thomas Vail at Salem 1640) and deposited copies in the Library of Congress, Family History Library in Salt Lake City, N.Y. Genealogical and Biographical Soc Library and the New England Historic Genealogical Soc, Boston.

Spedwell Village, Morristown, N.J. is a National Historic Site, estate of Stephen Vail, whose son, Alfred, played a fundamental role in the developmnt of the Morse Code.

Jersey; married, November 14, 1860, at Newark, Isaac Vail Brokaw, born November 27, 1835, at Metuchen, New Jersey. Children: Grace, Ernest, Frederick, Isaac Irving, Elvira, Howard Crosby, George Tuttle, of whom further.

(X) George Tuttle Brokaw, son of Elvira Tuttle (Gould) and Isaac Vail Brokaw, is the tenth generation of the Tuttle family and the seventh generation of the Brokaw line. (See Brokaw VII.)

BROKAW (VI) William Vail Brokaw, son of Simeon Brokaw (q. v.), and Prudence (Vail) Brokaw, was born at Metuchen, New Jersey, May 9, 1831, and died May 8, 1907. He married, November 8, 1854, Elizabeth Foote Gould, born at Newark, New Jersey, September 29, 1832, and died June 28, 1900, at London, England. Children: Florence, married (first) James E. Martin, (second) Dr. Preston Satterwhite; Lillia, married H. Bramhall Gilbert, deceased; William G.; and Clifford Vail, mentioned below.

(VII) Clifford Vail, son of William Vail and Elizabeth Foote (Gould) Brokaw, was born March 8, 1876. Mr. Brokaw is a well-known New York capitalist. He married Nannie Coffin Inman, daughter of John H. and Margaret Coffin Inman, on January 9, 1901. Children: Clifford Vail, Jr., born January 11, 1902; Margaret, died in infancy.

(The Vail Line).

There is a good deal of doubt as to the origin of the surname, Vail or Vaill, but it is generally claimed to be Welsh or English. The Vails of Mayfield, Fulton county, New York, are said to be descended from Samuel Vail, who settled in the Mohawk Valley. He had a brother William who settled in the town of Galway, now Saratoga county, New York Samuel Vail was for a long tine at Albany, New York, where he was engaged as a carriage builder. The immigrant ancestor of the Vails of Troy is said to be John Vail, who settled in Rye, in 1683, went to Southhold, Long Island, about 1700, and died there previous to 1770, at the age of ninety-four years. The family, according to one authority, originally Vaill, went into France in 1513, beginning with John Vaill, born in Gloucestershire England, who went into France with Henry VIII. as ensign. Another immigrant ancestor of the name is Jeremiah Vail or Vaill, who was a resident of Salem, Massachusetts, as early as 1639, and July that year was a witness in the court held there. In 1647 Jeremiah Vail became a proprietor, bought land in 1648, sold it in 1651, and removed out of the jurisdiction. He was a blacksmith by trade, and probably followed that trade during his residence in Salem. In 1645, his wife Catharine was admitted to the church there. In 1651 he removed to Gardiner's Island, then called the Isle of Wight, and took charge, with Anthony Waters, of the farm of Lieutenant Lion Gardiner of Long Island. Previous to his removal he had been granted, in 1651, by the town of Southampton, Long Island, a lot of land, provided that he settle there before the following January and do all the blacksmith work of the town. This offer, however, he did not accept. In legal and ecclesiastical affairs, Gardiner's Island was subject to the authority of the town of Easthampton, and its early records contain several brief statements respecting Jeremiah Vail. It is quite possible that there was a relationship between Jeremiah Vail and Thomas Vail, another immigrant ancestor of the Vail family, mentioned below, but what that relationship was, supposing it to have existed, has not been ascertained.

(I) Thomas Vail, immigrant ancestor of the Vail family, resided before 1657 in Southampton, Long Island, and in Westchester county, New York. He married (first) Sarah ——, and (second) Elizabeth ——, born 1657, and died November 3, 1747, at Woodbridge, New Jersey; the family names of neither of Thomas' wives are on record. Elizabeth, his second wife, survived him, and married (second) a man of the name of Gach, and (third) John Griffith. Child of Thomas Vail, by first marriage: Joseph; by second marriage: Samuel, mentioned below; Martha, John, Daniel, Arthur and Thomas.

(II) Samuel, son of Thomas and Elizabeth Vail, was born January 21, 1678, and died July 26, 1733, at Woodbridge, New Jersey. He married (first) Abigail (surname not given in records), born 1685, died November 14, 1724, at Westchester, New York; and (second) April 8, 1725, Sarah, daughter of Matthew Farrington. Children by first marriage; John, mentioned below; Stephen, Samuel, Phebe, Thomas, Isaac, Joseph, Abigail; by second marriage: Matthew, Sarah and Elizabeth.

(III) John, son of Samuel and Abigail Vail, was born May 21, 1708, at Westchester, New York, and died August 17, 1754, at Plainfield, New Jersey. He was called John Vail, Jr., to distinguish him from his uncle, the Quaker preacher. He himself also belonged to the Society of Friends. He married (first) in 1731, between November 19 and December 16 that year, Margaret, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Shotwell) Laing, born November 9, 1710, at Old Plainfield, Piscataway township, Middlesex county, New Jersey, and died before 1751; (second) before November 17, 1751, Mary Laing, his first wife's sister, born 1717. Children by first marriage: Samuel, John, Daniel, Isaac, David (mentioned below), Jacob, Abraham, Benjamin; by second marriage: Joseph and Christianna.

(IV) David, son of John and Margaret (Laing) Vail, was born July 6, 1740, at Greenbrook, New Jersey, and died November 7, 1823, being buried at Plainfield, New Jersey. David resided at Greenbrook, Warren township, Somerset county, New Jersey. He married, July 23, 1766, at Plainfield, Phebe, daughter of William and Prudence (Smith) Jackson, born January 13, 1747, (recorded at Rahway and Plainfield, Friends' monthly meeting) died June 5, 1820, aged seventy-three years, and buried at Plainfield, New Jersey. Children: William, mentioned below; John, Prudence, James Daniel, David, Rebecca, Margaret, Smith, Phebe, Margaret or Mary, Joseph and Margaret.

(V) William, son of David and Phebe (Jackson) Vail, was born May 4, 1767, at Greenbrook, New Jersey, and died February 2, 1837, at Newmarket, New Jersey, (probably). He resided at Greenbrook and was a Quaker. He married, February 7, 1790, at Scotch Plains, New Jersey, (probably), Jemima, daughter of James and Elizabeth (Frazee) Cole, of Scotch Plains, New Jersey, died December 22, 1826 (or 1828), at Newmarket, New Jersey (probably). He married (second) in 1830, Christiana Clarkson, died in the winter of 1847. Children: Elizabeth Phebe, James, Prudence, mentioned below; David W., Rachel, Dennis, Margaret, William, Daniel. By the second marriage there were no children.

(VI) Prudence, daughter of William and Jemima (Cole) Vail, was born February 17, 1795, at Greenbrook, New Jersey, and died May 14, 1887, at Plainfield, New Jersey. She married, February 6, 1822, at Metuchen, New Jersey, Simeon Brokaw, born November 22, 1792, at Greenbrook, New Jersey, died February 3, 1854, at Metuchen, New Jersey. (See Brokaw.)

(The Gould Line).

Gould or Gold is said by Lower to have been a personal or baptismal name, where it was known in England or had an English origin, for the name occurs in Germany and other countries. Golde and Goldus occur in the Domesday Book, and Gold, in the Hundred Rolls, had become a surname. As a baptismal name it was in use in the fourteenth century in some form that was possibly a variation of this name. As a man's name, Gold must have been somewhat common in England, as many local names, since become surnames, are compounded with it. Examples of such names are Goldney, Goldham, Goldey, Goldsbury, Goldsby, Goldsworthy and Goldsthorpe. It also appears to have given rise to the names of Golden and Goulden, Golding and Goulding. The latter are probably patronymical. The Golds are said to be traceable, in one form of the name or another, in the municipal records of Exeter, to the time of Edward III.

(I) John Gould, immigrant ancestor of the Gould family, is supposed to have been born at Dartmouth, Devonshire, England, and died at Elizabethtown, New Jersey. He resided on Long Island, and in New York, and in Elizabethtown, New Jersey. He married, in Connecticut, Sarah Axtell, or Extell. Children: John, mentioned below; Thomas, Hannah, Sarah, Mary and Abigail.

(II) John (2), son of John (1) and Sarah (Axtell or Extell) Gould, resided in Elizabethtown, New Jersey. He married, in 1703, Martha Frazier or Frazee, widow of William Frazier or Frazee, whose will is dated August 16, 1703, and proved May 29, 1704. Children: Robert; John, mentioned below; Thomas, Martha, Sarah.

as "very well adapted and fitted for that business, and as well spoken of as being diligent in it," is the schoolmaster in East Chester. His income from this engagement was "what the parents of the children taught do give."

In this same year (1728) public provision is made for the instruction of the young in the upper part of the town. A lot is "layed out for a school-house in the woods, near the land of John Vail's," of six rods in length and four rods in breadth. On this lot a building, constructed for the purpose by private effort, was already standing, but how long before this we vainly seek. The action of the next year, in ordering that five pounds be paid "to those men which Buill ye School-House in ye woods by John Vail's, towards paying for ye Building said School-House," shows that the erection was of late occurrence, and was met by the prompt consideration of the town, especially after appropriating sixteen pounds towards the cost of the school-house in the village. These payments, however, were made feasible by the offers of Benjamin Drake and Edmund Ward to purchase certain lands for these sums, perhaps largely with a view to assist in this good work. Between this period and the Revolution a number of sums of money, coming in from rents and sales of land, are applied to school purposes.

It would appear[1] that the school-house in the lower part of the town was destroyed during the War for Independence, and that it was first determined (in 1787) to erect a new one on the Green, but that this resolve was changed three years afterward, when it was resolved that it should be built where it formerly stood, with the moneys obtained by subscription for that purpose, and placed first in the care of —— Haviland, and, upon his decease, in the hands of Charles Guion.

As a matter of interest, the resolution of the town in 1795 is referred to, in which it is ordered "that the ground opposite Wm. Crawford's is not to be leased out, but to be left for an Academy."

By act of the Legislature, April 9, 1795, provision being made for the education of the children by an annual appropriation for five years, and for the election in each town of school commissioners, in the spring of 1796 William Crawford, Benjamin Morgan, Gilbert Shute, John Tredwell and Daniel Searing were chosen, who were, with the exception of Mr. Crawford, continued in the position until the expiration of the five years, Mr. James N. Rosevelt taking the place of Mr. Crawford. On a map of the town, of 1797, there is represented the locations of four schools in the town. The lower one is near Charles Guion's tavern; the middle one, on the White Plains road, near the corner of the road that sets off to New Rochelle, adjoining the present Infant Asylum grounds; the upper one, on the same road, half a mile below Scarsdale; and the fourth, on the Bedford and Vermont road, near Hunt's Bridge. In 1800 it seems to have been deemed advisable to remove the lower school-house "to the hollow ground adjoining the

THE STORY OF A NEW JERSEY TOWNSHIP.

The committee were authorized to give public notice when they were ready to report.* The next meeting recorded was not held until January 9th, 1730, when Capt. Matthew Moore, John Veall [Vail] and Moses Rolph were chosen a committee to report what was best to be done at the present juncture of the Sonmans-Stelle affair. The Freeholders then adjourned to the 26th. At ten o'clock on the morning designated they met again and the committee last appointed reported as follows:

"The Said Comjtte first do think it proper and absolutely nessary that money be forth [with] Raised to Defray the Charges of Runing and assertaining the bounds between us and at our neighbouring towns, Especially the bounds between us and amboy wch we think ought forth wth to be don as Sone as possible; and if any have wthJn the Limation [i. e limitation] of ye Law before or Shall hereafter offer to Trespass wth Jn our bounds, that they be forth wth prosecuted.—2ndly, we think it Just there should be no more Land Layd out to any person whatsoever wth Jn our bounds but to those who have not had there ten pound Rights Layd out to them, Exclusive of what is Called the five pound Right, Except it be Layd on Land yt is not Liable to be any ways controverted between us and our Neighbours, til our bounds are assertained.—3dly We think it proper to Qviet the minds of all and to prevent jelousies Jn Som Jn Relation to ye Raiseing money for the Ends and purposes afore sd. that there be a Comitte apointed by the Freeholders and Jmpowered by them to take a Count of our atturneys (to whom they sd atturneys shal be acountable) for what money comes Jn to there hands."

This report was received with much favor, and the money was at once called for. The attorneys alluded to were John Kinsey, Henry Freeman, and Moses Rolph, who were appointed in the meeting of March 25th, 1720. It was now required that each Freeholder should pay, nolens volens, ten shillings for contesting the claims of the Amboy men. The committee, whose propositions had proved so acceptable, were continued as an advisory cabinet to whom the attorneys might resort for consultation. By the way, John Veall, one of them, will be more readily recognized as John Vail. As we have before intimated, our fathers had a frightful way of writing their names. John's name is spelt Veall in several places and Vaile in another, in such a way that his identity is preserved, so that we know the same man is meant in every instance. The Veall being thus disposed of, revenons a nos moutons:

The meeting, which we presume was a lengthy one, adjourned in time, perhaps, for a late dinner. On the 5th of February it re-assembled at ten o'clock in the morning, as before. John Kinsey, the elder, was chosen Moderator, as the Chairmen of these early town gatherings were called. He presented a paper written by the younger John Kinsey, "shewing his opinjon what was best to be don by the Freeholders to put them Jn a way to opose and Defend themselves against those who had or should Trespase wth Jn there bounds."

This document, which was a shrewd plan for proceeding in the disputed case, was unanimously approved. We give it in full:

was "under a consern To vissit the Isle of Berbados and perhaps Sum of the adjacent Islands, and Requests friends consideration thereon, and a Certificate if they are Easey therewith." The certificate was given to him, but a general objection to his making such a long journey appears to have prevented his departure. The Quarterly Meeting discussed the matter and doubtless influenced Hampton's friends to keep him at home.

At this time Thomas Lewis had the care of the Woodbridge Meeting-house, George Parker had in charge the one at Plainfield, Cowperthwait Copeland that at Rahway.

Robert Willis was one of the most active ministers of the sect in this part of the country. He often made journeys to other places to the edification of those among whom he sojourned. On the 17th of April, 1760, he informs the Woodbridge Friends that "he has been under an Ingagement of minde for sum time to Vissit the meetings of friends in the Southeron Provinses." His proposed trip was approved, and a commendatory certificate was given to him. The record says: "He being under low Circumstances, Joseph & Abraham Shotwell are appinted to provide a hors & to furnish him with necessarys of all kindes Suitable for that Jarney."

Sarah Shotwell was also well known as a speaker, and a pattern of humility and faithfulness. After her death a memorial was written by a committee, John Webster and Abner Hampton, which was adopted in the June Monthly Meeting.

The senior John Vail (there were three Johns) had some eminence, several years before, as an instructive teacher of the truth. Likewise was William Morris at one time an honored and useful minister who "went about doing good."

In July of this year (1760) it was decided that Mendham should pay one-fourth of the money required for the treasury of the Woodbridge Monthly Meeting. A proposition was made in the following month to remove the Plainfield Meeting-house, which was rejected in September. Where it was proposed to move it, and why it was considered necessary to do so, are not stated.

Robert Willis returned from the South in October, with

Edward Vail

THE subject of this sketch is a descendant in the fourth generation from Samuel and Abigail Vail, of Westchester, N. Y. His great-grandfather was John Vail, the oldest son of Samuel and Abigail Vail, who was twice married, and reared a large family. The children of John Vail by his first wife (Margaret Laing) were Samuel, John, Daniel, Isaac, David, Jacob, Abraham, and Benjamin; and those by his second wife (Mary Laing) were Joseph and Christiana, who died single. The children by the first wife all married and had large families, whose descendants are numerous and widely scattered.

John Vail, the son of John, and grandfather of Edward Vail, married Catharine Fitz-Randolph, and had children: Margaret, Edward, Isaac, Amos, Phebe, Nathan, and Joel. The last named married Catharine K. Miller, and had children: Alexander, Mary Ann, Edward (the subject of our notice), Christopher, Thomas, Phebe, Margaret, Richard, Benijah, Catharine, and John.

Joel Vail lived at Green Brook, and was a hatter by occupation, and also a farmer and merchant. Edward, the subject of this notice, was born at Green Brook, Sept. 26, 1808, and was brought up there at the hatter's trade with his father. He followed that occupation, together with farming, till about the time of his marriage. He married, Dec. 2, 1845, Ann Vail, a name which she has never changed, being a daughter of James, son of Isaac Vail. They have had no children. Mrs. Vail was born and brought up at Long Hill, in the vicinity of where she now resides.

After his marriage, in 1845, Mr. Vail settled on his present place, being the inheritance of his wife, where he has ever since resided and followed the pursuit of agriculture. He was brought up in the doctrines of the Hicksite Quakers, with which he still stands identified, though not a regular attendant at any meeting of that order. He is noted for his strict integrity and moral worth, and is held in high esteem as a man and a citizen.

Berry, of the firm of Berry & Thorn, Plainfield, and is operated by J. J. Collins, of New York.

The Elizabethtown bill in chancery—good authority for titles in this portion of New Jersey—shows the following for this township:

The lower southern portion of the township, along Green Brook and below the base of the mountain, is composed of large tracts that extend southerly to the south branch of Green Brook.

The west tract, No. 56, was taken by Sir Ev. Cameron, May 24, 1690, "2000 acres at Blew Hills;" No. 39, to same, "1300 acres on south side of Bound Brook;" No. 10, Peter Sonmans, Oct. 9, 1685, 2500 acres, Green River; No. 34, J. and G. Alexander, June 15, 1686, "462 acres at Blew Hills;" No. 35, Robt. Fullerton, June 4, 1686, 300 acres; No. 38, James Cole, Sr., April 23, 1688, 125 acres.

On the top of First Mountain and along its crest is a tier of lots that are termed as behind the south tier of lots; 113, James Alexander, Jan. 12, 1727, $116\frac{3}{4}$ acres, northwest corner of Lockiell's, 2000 acres on Bound Brook; 94, to same, Feb. 12, 1727, $118\frac{3}{4}$ acres, beginning at northeast corner of Sir. Ev. Cameron's 2000 acres at Blew Hills; 95, to same, and same date, 493 acres joining Peter Sonmans', Blew Hills; 114, to the same, Jan. 12, 1727, $118\frac{3}{4}$ and $493\frac{8}{10}$ acres, behind Sonmans'; 115, Elisha Smalley, March 17, 1736, 22 acres at Blew Hills, on Stony Brook; 139, Alexander and Dunstar, Oct. 25, 1743, 1633 acres, each one-half between the First and Second Mountain; 101, Joseph Jennings, Dec. 28, 1727, 4 acres on the First Mountain, at the falls of Stony Brook.

EARLY SETTLEMENT.

In the Green Brook valley, extending from the western boundary of the township northeastward, was a succession of early land owners who had large farms, reaching across the plains from the brook to the First Mountain. Many of these occupied their lands before the Revolution. Beginning with the westernmost, we shall name these in the order of their farms.

The Vails were among the earliest settlers. John and Stephen, the ancestors, came from Long Island at an early time. Their father's name was Samuel; they were members of the Society of Friends. John Vail settled on the place where the late Jonah Vail lived, on Green Brook, and Stephen on the next farm, now owned by Mr. Palmer. Stephen Vail was great-grandfather of Mrs. Ephraim Vail, now living on the estate at the advanced age of ninety. Her husband, Ephraim, was a grandson of John, one of the first settlers, who had nine sons,—viz., Samuel, born Aug. 24, 1732; John, June 29, 1734; Daniel, Jan. 7, 1735-36; Isaac, Nov. 27, 1737; David, April 5, 1740; Jacob, July 3, 1742; Abram, July 22, 1744; Benjamin, Aug. 3, 1750; Joseph, June 12, 1752; Christiana, Dec. 10, 1753. Four of these sons—John, David, Abram, and Joseph—settled, respectively, on the Jonah Vail place, where Charles Sanford now lives, and on the Ephraim Vail place, where Samuel Smalley now lives,—places adjoining. Samuel Vail died when a young man, and Daniel, Isaac, Jacob, and Benjamin settled at Basking Ridge.

John Vail (2d), who settled on Green Brook, had children,—Margaret, Edward, Ann, Isaac, Phebe, Nathan, and Joel. Amos, of this family, was the father of Ann, Abram, Jonah, and Phebe. Jonah died June 7, 1880, aged eighty-one; his widow is now over eighty. Jonah left sons,—Theodore, Adelbert, and Amos, the second of whom resides on the old estate at Green Brook.

The grandchildren of Stephen Vail, and children of Stephen (2d), were Samuel, Moses, Shubal, Rebecca, Aaron, Sarah, Randal, Mary, Hugh, and Catharine. Of the children of Samuel, the only one now living is Rebecca, widow of Ephraim, aged ninety. The house in which she resides was built in 1774, and one room of it at a considerably earlier date. Ephraim died April 26, 1878, aged ninety-four. He had a sister Nancy, who was born and died in the same house, at the age of ninety-eight. Of the children of Ephraim, there are living on the old estate Sarah, S. Line, Emmor K. Vail, and Abram M. Vail. Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Vail were married March 21, 1810, and had lived together in wedlock previous to his death, in 1878, sixty-eight years, and always occupied the same house.

The Vail fulling-mill was the first cloth-dressing establishment in this portion of the country. It was owned, together with a saw-mill at Coontown, by Samuel, who was a clothier. In connection with his fulling-mill was also a carding-machine; it was a great convenience, as farmers then made their own cloth. The settlers in this section went to Plainfield to church and to get their mail after the establishment of the first post-office, in 1806.

Enos, grandfather of E. W. and Nelson Runyon, lawyers of Plainfield, was one of the early residents; also David Boice, father of Patterson and Cornelius. Farther northeast were the families of the Mannings, of whom John and Isaac were the principal early settlers. They came from Bergen about the time of the Revolution, and owned large farms extending from the brook to the top of the mountain. None of the family now reside in the town. Between the Woodens and the Mannings lived the Williams family, some of whom still remain. Next west of the Mannings lived Andrew Cadmus, who had three sons, —Abram, Frederick, and Cornelius,—descendants of whom still live in the township,—Abram and Rudger.

Israel Wooden was a large land owner and farmer in the same vicinity. His father was among the first settlers. Mr. Wooden was born in the township, then included in Warren.

Andrew Drake was an early settler in that part of Warren now North Plainfield. He died more than sixty years ago, an old man, leaving sons—Hugh and Jonathan—who reared large families.

Vail, John

UNION COUNTY

No family name is more honorably and continuously associated with the welfare of the Friends in this lo than that of the Vails. In 1687 mention is made of John Vail as an active member of the Society.His nam found first in the primitive annals of Salem, Mass. about 1650 and is discovered subsequently in Westch County, N.Y., from whence he moved to East Jersey about 1685.

There were two prominent sons, John Vail, Jr., born in 1685, and Samuel Vail. John married in 1712,M Fitz Randolph of Woodbridge. The farm of John Vail extended from near present Richmond Street on b sides of Green Brook to the vicinity of Netherwood Avenue.

Samuel Vail, son of the original John, in 1725 married Sarah Farrington, of Westchester County, N.Y.,v he lived and died. He was a Friend, and about the date of his marriage purchased a large plantation on G Brook near present Dunnellen. This land was occupied by his two sons, John and Stephen. John Vail, ol son of Samuel, married in 1730 Margaret Laing, daughter of John and Elizabeth Shotwell Laing. To eac eight sons he gave a farm; four, John, David, Abraham and Joseph (a son by his second wife, Mary Lain were few and moderate. If a man could read tolerably well, was a good writer, and could cypher as far as the rule of three, knew how to use the birch scientifically, and had firmness enough to exercise this skill, he would pass muster.

In 1818 Jabez P. Manning occupied the school-house on the Public square, and the following copy of the contract made between him and the subscribers will be of interest, as tending to show in what manner educational facilities were secured and offered at that early date:

> This article, between the undersigned subscribers of the one part, and Jabez P. Manning of the other, witnesseth: That said Manning doth, on his part, engage to teach a school at the school-house near the center of Youngstown, for the term of one quarter, wherein he engages to teach reading, writing, arithmetic, and English grammar; and furthermore, that the school shall be opened at 9 o'clock A. M. of each day, and closed at 4 P. M. of each day of the week (Saturday and Sunday excepted), and on Saturday to be opened at 9 and close at 12 o'clock A. M. And we, the subscribers on our part, individually engage to pay unto the said Manning $1.75 for each and every scholar we subscribe, at the end of the term; and we furthermore engage to furnish, or to bear the necessary expense of furnishing, wood and all other things necessary for the use of the school. Furthermore, we do engage that unless by the 6th day of April of the present year the number of scholars subscribed amount to thirty-five, that said Manning is in no way obligated by this article.
> "Furthermore, we allow the said Manning the privilege of receiving five scholars more than here specified.
>
> J. P. MANNING.
>
> Youngstown, March 31, 1818."
> "Subscribers names, and number of scholars: George Tod, 3; John E. Woodbridge, 4; Homer Hine, 2; Henry Wick, 2; Philip Stambaugh, 1½; Samuel Vaill, 2; Robert Kyle, 2; George Hardman, 1; James Davidson, 2; Polly Chapman, 1; Jerry Tibbitts, 3½; John F. Townsend, 2; Henry Manning, 1; William Bell, 1; Jonathan Smith, 1; Moses Crawford, 1; William Cleland, 1½; Margaret Murdock, 1; William Potter, 2; William Rayen, 1½; William Morris, 1; Noah Chamberlain, 1; Richard Young, ½; James Duncan, 1; Mrs. McCullough, ½; Byram Baldwin ½. Total 40½."

This probably was the first regular and complete organization of a school in the village. In 1819 Fanny Roth, or Ross, was a teacher, either in Youngstown, or just south of the village. There were no regularly defined districts in those days, but the teachers occupied positions in various localities, and were supported by a general subscription. Consequently it is difficult to positively locate the fields of labor of the various persons whose names have been remembered, but they all filled places comprised within the expression, "the village of Youngstown and vicinity." In 1820 Miss Phebe Wick taught the school on the Public square. Miss Mary Case (Mrs. Benjamin Stevens) also taught in Youngstown about this date.

At this time money was an exceedingly scarce commodity, every species of exchange of value being done by trading. Nearly all the corn and rye were reduced to whiskey, and periodically teams would haul it to Pittsburg or the lake shore, and the money received at these two points for the whiskey was all that came into the village. There is an entry in an ancient ledger charging Miss Phebe Wick, in July, 1820, with three bushels of wheat; in September with one hundred pounds of flour, which amounted to $2.43. Then in October of the same year she is credited with "School bill, $3.34." This was the proportion to be contributed towards the general tuition fund by the party with whom she was dealing. Thus she still had a credit of ninety-one cents, which was discharged, not by paying her that much money, but by giving her an order upon Thomas Kirkpatrick, another merchant of that day.

About 1822-23 we find it possible to obtain a little more definite general information with regard to the character of the schools. As a general rule there were three months of winter term—December, January, and February—and the summer terms continued well into July, or at least until harvest was close at hand. Quite frequently married people, who were older by many years than the teacher, received instruction during the winter months. The salaries paid were, for male teachers, from ten to twelve dollars a month, and for females from four to five dollars a month, with their boarding provided by the residents or "boarding 'round," as it was called. The hours were from nine in the morning until four in the afternoon, with a short recess at noon for lunch.

There was a full session every day, excepting Saturdays, when the hours lasted till 12 o'clock only, the afternoon session being omitted.

In addition to the regular subscription agreed upon by the residents to be paid, each one was obliged to contribute a certain proportion of wood, the aggregate of which would supply the school during the winter. This was hauled to the school-house in sled lengths, twelve feet long, and the boys were required to cut up, each noon or on Saturdays, sufficient to last during the next day. The duty of kindling the fires devolved

CHAPTER XX CIVIL LIST OF HAMILTON COUNTY

VAIL

Immigrants to the Miami county did not turn so readily to the Military district as to the Symmes Purchase' and the Congress lands, since the titles to the latter were considered better and more reliable, and less likely to involve litigation. As early as 1790, some white settlers are believed to have set down their stakes within the limits of the present Anderson township; and, as we have seen, a fortified station against the Indians probably existed upon Anderson soil that year. The first settlements, according to Colonel James Taylor, of Newport, were made upon Bennett Tompkins' survey at the mouth of the Little Miami; Crittenden's survey, settled by Philip Turpin, near the present Union bridge; Powell's, Massie's, Richardson's, John Andersons', Bland's, and Moore's, and the surveys numbered one thousand five hundred and twelve and one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three. Besides those named in connection with Gerrard's station and Philip Turpin, who was among the earliest, there were Isaac Vail, John Grimes, the Edwardses, Corblys, Debolts, Johnsons, Clarks, and Durhams, whose families were upon the soil of Anderson during the closing decade of the last century or the opening one of this. Settlers were not numerous, nor their improvements large, for obvious seasons, until after the pacification of the Indian tribes in 1794, by Wayne's victory at the battle of the Fallen Timbers. Many memoranda of individual settlements in the early day will be found in the paragraphs below:

There were scattering votes for John Reiley, David Enox, Israel Ludlow, Rice Bullock, and John Stites Gano.

Territory of the United States North West of the Ohio:

SEAL Ar. St. Clair

Arthur St. Clair Governor of the Territory of the United States to the Sheriff of the County of Hamilton Greeting:

Whereas by a certain Writ of election to you directed bearing date the day of in the year of our Lord 1798. You were empowered and commanded to hold an Election at the Town of Cincinnati in the said County, at which the Inhabitants of the said County qualified according to the Ordinance of Congress for the Government of the territory should choose five representatives to represent them in the General Assembly; And whereas by an enumeration of the people of the said County which has come to my hands since the date of the said Writ, it appears that they were entitled to two more Representatives. These are to require you, and you are hereby required and commanded to cause an Election to be held at the said Town of Cincinnati for two more Representatives on the twelfth day of September next ensuing to represent the said County in the General Assembly of the Territory for two years commencing from the twenty second day of January last past. You will call to your assistance two or more of the Magistrates of the said County to aid you in conducting the said election, and will proceed in every respect in the same manner as is directed by the aforesaid Writ to which this is a Supplement, giving due notice of the time when the said Election is to be held that all qualified persons may have an opportunity to attend on the said twelfth day of September to vote at the said Election and you will make a return of the names of all such as do vote, and of those voted for to the Office of the Secretary of the territory on or before the fourteenth day of the said September together with this Writ.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the Territory at Cincinnati in the County of Hamilton the 28th day of August 1799 and in the twenty fourth year of the independence of the United States.

Agreeable to the conmmand of the within writ of Election I have taken to my assistance Robert Benham and Joseph Prince Esquires, two of the Justices of the peace within and for the said County of Hamilton, and on the twelfth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine, at Cincinnati, in the County af's [aforesaid] opened the Election proceeded to take the votes of the Electors within said County, pursuant to this writ whereupon Aaron Cadwell and Isaac Martin Esqrs., two of the Candidates of said Election were duly elected and chosen Representatives to the General Assembly for Hamilton County, and have done in all things as within it is commanded me to do, which will more fully appear by the schedule hereunto annexed.

First Settlers of Piscataway and Woodbridge--Referring to No. 4748, as announced in these columns of the issue of May 23, 1914, the compiler will be pleased to offer in the succeeding issues the results of some genealogical searches made for several years concerning the origins and vital statistics of the families of these two interesting and early settlements of New Jersey.

The history of the settlement of New Jersey and of its government under the Proprietors is well understood.

(Vide, ante, PART ONE, pp. 43 et seq and many recitals sub. in this SERIES.)

* * * It is proposed to treat of the grantees and associates in order, so that the first notes will be concerning John Martin, first named above.

GERER.
June 20, 1914. No. 4785. (O.C.F.P.).
First Settlers of Piscataway and Woodbridge, N. J.
JOHN MARTIN, SR., who lived and received grants of land in both Piscataway and Woodbridge, was one of the four original grantees of Piscataway. Beyond doubt John Martin came from the Piscataqua region in New England. In 1648 he was taxed as being then of Dover, as appears by the following: "List of the Inhabitants by Record

October 19th, 1648: Richard Yorke, Hate Evil Nutter, Mr. Roberts, Henry Langstaff, William Roberts, John Martin."

All of the above names are included because of their relationship to the Piscataway settlers. In 1655 John Martin was still in Dover, but 1661 to 1671 he was credited to Oyster River. Several items concerning him appear in the early New Hampshire and Massachusetts records. In 1673 John Martin's name is mentioned in the will of Governor Thomas Roberts of New Hampshire, who makes a bequest to his daughter Hester (wife of John Martin) and as being in New Jersey. In connection with the will of William Pierse, whose widow was Esther Pierse, Suffolk Co., Mass., 1661, John Martin's name appears. It is suggestive that one of the early sailing vessels from Ipswich, Eng., called "The Dilligent," brought immigrants to New England in 1638 and the master of the vessel was John Martin.

There is some support to the statement of the celebrated Luther Martin of Baltimore (see Whitehead), that his ancestor, who was this John Martin, came to East Jersey with his brother. There was a James Martin of Burlington called "Meal Man" who left a will dated 1687, proved 1693, who mentions brothers Thomas and John Martin et al. This Thomas Martin was of Lymehouse, Parish of Stepney, alias Stebonheath, County of Middlesex, meat man, who in 1684 gave a power of attorney to his brother, James Martin, planter, now bound for West Jersey, to act as land agent. James Martin was in Burlington as early as 1686 by deed record. His mother was Martha Greenhill, or Grinnell. Further, Hatfield in his History of Elizabeth, N. J., notes a Henry Martin, who was one of the Associates of 1695, and while he wrongfully credits him with having been a son of John Martin of Piscataway, above, he does claim that Henry had a son, James Martin, in Elizabeth in 1726. It is also worth while to know that John Martin of Piscataway also had a son James, and while it is not at this time attempted to show any connection necessarily between Henry Martin of Elizabeth and John Martin of Piscataway and James Martin of Burlington, yet the compiler believes that when the English origin of John Martin of Piscataway is discovered some relation will appear. Further, John Martin, while at Dover, had a law suit brought against him and his wife Hester in 1647, which was decided in their favor. He was proprietor there in 1648 and served on the grand jury in 1650, all of which will go to show that he was born at least before 1626, and his wife Hester is credited generally as having been born in 1628.

Pope, in his "Pioneers in Maine and New Hampshire," wrongfully confuses John Martin of Dover and Piscataway with a John Martin of New Hampshire, who died and left a will in 1664, wife Sarah and several children. There is a close connection between all the New Hampshire Martins and one Richard Martin of Dover, proprietor there, and at Portsmouth, before 1660. The Hulls and Yorkes lived at Dover and Portsmouth and several references are made to John Martin having land near "Lamprey River Falls."

Coming now to the genealogy. JOHN MARTIN, SR. of PISCATAWAY was born before 1626 and died at Piscataway July 5, 1687. He was of Dover, New Hampshire, 1648-1666; Woodbridge, N. J., 1668-1676; and Piscataway, N. J., 1676-1687. He married Hester (or Esther), born in 1628, died at Piscataway, December 12, 1687, daughter of Governor Thomas Roberts, who settled in Dover, New Hampshire, very early, and was chosen President of the colony in opposition to John Underhill, in 1641. John Martin and Esther his wife, both left wills of record, which give their children by name and in the Piscataway and Woodbridge records substantiating the following issue:

I. Mary, alleged to have been born in 1645; married (1) Hopewell Hull, who died April 3, 1693. Their first child was born in 1670. She married (2) April 9, 1696, Justinian Hall, who came to New Jersey in 1684 "indentured for four years," but who received confirmation of deed for land on the Raritan, near Piscataway, in 1697-8.

II. John Jr., born in 1650, died at Piscataway in 1703, married (1) June 26, 1677, Dorothy, daughter of Richard Smith of Woodbridge, (2) January 19, 1698-99, Ann Brown, who survived him.

III. Joseph, born in 1652, married November 25, 1679, Sarah, daughter of William and Catharine Trotter, of Elizabethtown.

IV. Lydia, born in 1654, married October 18, 1676, John Smalley.

V. Benjamin, born in 1656, married (1) October 24, 1680, Margaret, daughter of Nicholas Reynolds; married (2) November 10, 1688, Margaret, daughter of Peter Ellstone, (Alston).

VI. Martha, born before 1660, died November 13, 1694, married about 1674, John Langstaff. Their first child was born in 1675.

VII. Thomas, born about 1659, married April 28, 1683, Rebecca, daughter of Richard and Mary Higgins.

VIII. James, born in 1669, died March 21, 1676. The latter is the only birth recorded in Piscataway and undoubtedly the other children were all born at Dover, N. H., although the birth dates above given are more or less uncertain.

THE MOORE LINE.

SAMUEL^1 MOORE called Moores in Savage's Genealogical Dictionary, removed from Newbury, Mass., to Middlesex Co., N. J., about 1666, certainly soon after the session of the Province of New Jersey by the Duke of York to John Lord Berkly and Sir George Carteret in the year 1664. Locating at Woodbridge he filed surveys for a number of tracts of land in Woodbridge and Piscataway townships; and on the 27 Dec. 1667, a patent was issued to him for 70 acres of land, at a yearly rental of half-penny sterling per acre. This 70 acre lot is situated in the lower end of what is now called Lower Rahway; and part of the old tract remained in the family until the latter part of the 19th century. His house lot at Woodbridge contained sixteen acres of land.

Samuel^1 Moore and Robert Dennis were chosen delegates to represent the town of Woodbridge in the 2nd General Assembly of the Province of East Jersey which convened at Elizabethtown 3rd Nov. 1668, Phillip Carteret being Governor. At that session, the Legislature passed an act imposing a tax of £12 sterling on the 6 towns then composing the province, namely Elizabeth, Newark, Woodbridge, Middletown, Shrewsbury, and Bergen, 40 shillings on each town, for defraying the public charges.

"By a law passed in May of the same year, the taxes were to be paid in winter wheat at five shillings per bushel; summer wheat at four shillings & six pence; Indian corn at three shillings; rye & barley at four shillings; beef at two pence & half penny per pound; & pork at three pence and half penny; to be paid into the hands & custody of Jacob Mollins of Elizabethtown."

Samuel Moore was appointed Treasurer of the Province of E. Jersey, 4 Dec. 1675 and reappointed in 1678, his compensation being nine pence per pound; in 1682 he was ordained by an act of the Legislature one of the Commissioners for laying out highways, bridges, landings and ferries in the county of Middlesex.

At the first division of the public land of Woodbridge among the freeholders, about 1670 he received a double portion, 356 acres, his brother Matthew receiving but 177 acres. His fellow townsmen elected him to various positions of trust, as follows: Assistant justice of the township court, 1669–71, 1675 and 1681; President of the court 1672–74; Marshal 1676; Clerk of the court 1676–87, Overseer of the highway 1669–70; Rate-maker [Assessor] most of the time from 1672 to 1687; Rate-gatherer 1675–79, and 1685, Overseer of the poor 1682; Deputy in the General Assembly 1669, 1670, 1683, and 1688; Lieutenant of the military 1675. During the year 1683 he held the offices of high sheriff of Middlesex Co., Deputy to the Assembly; Messenger of the House of Deputies, Town clerk of Woodbridge and Tax collector for the township. And in June of that year, according to the Woodbridge town meeting records, he was "by a unanimous Vote Made Choice of to keep ordinary [an inn] for this towne, and whilst Rum is to Be had from the Merchant at three Shillings or two Shillings and six pence for Gallon, he is to afford it for Money at three pence for gill, Six pence the half pint, and Eighteen pence the Quart; if he gives more then to Raise the price." Dally states that this first tavern set up in Woodbridge, probably occupied the site upon which Dr. Samuel E. Freeman's drug store now stands, [1873], this being the spot assigned for his residence in the record and by tradition. The same historian justly remarks that, he appears to have been a capable, faithful, and honest servant of the township and Province, and as such will ever be held in honor.

Samuel^1 Moore, second Town Clerk of Woodbridge N. J., 1669–88, died there 27 May 1688, he m^1. in New England, 3 May 1653, Hannah Plummer, who d. 8 Dec. 1654; m^2. in Newbury, Mass., 12 Dec. 1656, Mary Ilsley, b. 1638±, d. about June 1678 (after birth of twins), daughter of William and Barbara Ilsley of Newbury; m^3. 23 Dec. 1678, Ann Jaques or Jaquish.

His father-in-law, William Ilsley, b. 1608, came from South Ampton, Eng., in the Confidence in Apr. 1638, aged 26 years, occupation shoemaker, with wife Barbara aged 20. He served Philip Davis, 12 years; d. at Newbury, Mass., 22 or 23 July 1681 (Coffin says aged 73.) His will of 26 Feb. 1679 mentions his wife Barbara, 3 sons and 2 daughters. William and Barbara had: (1.) Mary, 1638±-1678, m. 12 Dec. 1656 (as 2nd wife), Samuel^1 Moore or Moores, of Newbury, sketched above, with whom she removed to Woodbridge, N. J., about 1666. (Children later). (2.) John, b. 14 Sept. 1641. (3.) Elisha, d. 16 Jan. 1691, m. 14 March 1668, Hannah Poor [of John]. (4.) William, b. 23 Feb. 1648, was great grandfather of Capt. Isaac Ilsley, a man of distinction in Maine in the 18th century. (5.) Joseph, b. 30 Oct. 1649, d. 15 Oct. 1704, m. 1 Mar. 1682, Sarah Little. (6.) Isaac, b. 23 June 1652, a soldier in Appleton's company, wounded in the great Narragansett fight, 19 Dec. 1675; m. Abigail Plummer [of Joseph]. (7.) Sarah, b. 8 Aug. 1655, m. 21 July 1673, Samuel Hale.

SAMUEL^1 MOORE, of Woodbridge, N. J., d. 1688, by 2d wife Mary, nee Ilsley, 1638±-1678 [of William], after removal to New Jersey, had: (1.) Elizabeth, b. 20 July 1668. (2.) Samuel, b. 31 March 1670; either he or a younger Samuel was one of the three freeholders of Woodbridge, who at the town meeting of 19 June 1749 were added to a standing committee, appointed 20 Apr. 1744 to hear complaints and correct mistakes growing out of the division of the public lands of the township. He m^1, 29 Oct. 1693, Sarah Higgins; m^2. 2 June 1718, Mary Harrison. (3.) Thomas, b. 26 July 1672, m. 25 Dec. 1699, Mary White. (4.) John, b. in Woodbridge, N. J., May ye 20th 1674, m^1 by John Bishop, justice in Woodbridge, 18 March 1699, Hope Robinds, b. Woodbridge, N. J., 10 Dec. 1681, daughter of Daniel and Hope (-------------) Robinds of Woodbridge, N. J.; m^2. by John Bishop, justice, in Woodbridge, Nov. ye 21st, 1717, Mary Oliver. (Children later.) Dally states that about 1714–16, "John Kinsey and John Moore were chosen pursuant to an act of the General Assembly to consult and coöperate with the justices in respect to the building of a 'gaol' and a court-house." It is said that the father's land in lower Rahway descended to his son Matthew [John] and from Matthew [John] to Samuel 2d, and from him to Edward of Rahway, brother to our Joseph. The mansion house and a part of the land was owned and occupied in 1863 by Hannah, widow of Edward's son Isaac Moore. (5.) Enoch, b. 3 June 1678. (6.) Frances (twin), b. 3 June 1678. By 3d wife Ann nee Jaquish, Samuel^1 had (7.) Sarah, b. 16 Sept. 1681, d. -- Jan. 1687–8, a little more than 4 months prior to her father's death. There may have been older children born in New England prior to 1667.

JOHN^2 MOORE, of Woodbridge township, Middlesex Co., N. J., b. 1674 [of Samuel^1] m^1. 1699, Hope Robinds [of Daniel], and had: (1.) John, b. 3 Dec. 1700, in ye town of Freehold, N. J. (2.) Joseph, b. 5 Oct. 1703. (3.) Benjamin, b. 10 Oct. 1705 in Elizabethtown, N. J. His name in the minutes of Woodbridge Monthly Meeting of Friends, is first met with in connection with his declaration of intention of marriage with Elizabeth Shotwell, 15 of 12 mo. O. S. 1727–8, m. between 21 of 1 mo. and 18 of 2 mo. 1728, Elizabeth Shotwell, who d. 31 of 9 mo. (Nov.) 1750, daughter of Daniel^2 and Elizabeth (-----) Shotwell of Staten Island [of Abraham^1]. (4.) Enoch, b. 7 of 10 mo. (Dec.) 1707, d. 18 of 10 mo. 1755, m. -- of 6 mo. 1735, Grace Brotherton, b. 2 of 6 mo. 1719, daughter of Henry and Ann^3 (Shotwell) Brotherton [of Daniel^2, Abraham^1]. (5.) Samuel, b. April ye 4, 1709, probably in Woodbridge township, was a carpenter, afterward a merchant in lower Rahway; d. about 1751. His will of 3 May 1750, gives his age as 40, and his occupation as Merchant, appoints as executors his wife Mary and his brother Enoch, and names his five sons, Joseph, Edward, Isaac, John and Samuel. He m. 1729± Mary --------, who d. 17 of 5 mo. 1811, aged 97 years, 9 months and 14 days; i. e., b. about 3 Aug. 1713, buried in the Friends new burying ground at Rahway. (Children later.) (6.) Daniel, b. 24 Aug. 1711. (7.) Rachel.

John^2 Moore, b. 1674, m^2. 1717 Mary Oliver, and had: (8.) Mary, b. 17 Jan. 1718-19. (9.) William, b. 30 Aug. 1720. (10.) Hannah, b. 31 Mar. 1722. (11.) John, b. 13 May 1725. (12.) Deborah, b. 28 Mar. 1727. (13.) Sarah, b. 6 Dec. 1728.

After the death of Samuel^3 Moore, about 1751 [of John^2, Samuel^1], his widow, Mary who is believed to have come from Holland, m^2 ---------- Elston or Alston, and after his death, she m^3 ---------- Hays, who absconded with part of her property. She was laterally known as Granny Hays. On 3 Aug. 1804, a chart was made out by her grandson Edward Moore II, by which it appears she had then living 4 children, 34 grand children, 98 great grandchildren and 17 great great grandchildren. In the latter part of her life time she was blind, and was much pleased when any of her descendants came to see her. She is said to have given birth to 13 children, 5 of whom had offspring. In the summer of 1888 the compiler of this volume met several persons who remembered having seen this, his great grandmother's great grandmother, and examined a chart of the given names of her posterity born before her death, which was drawn by her great grandson Clayton Moore, at Bridgetown, 26 July 1818, for his friend and cousin, Hugh D. Webster, from one drawn by Isaac Moore, 13 May 1811, at which time she was living, and all but 4 of the descendants therein mentioned. The list was said to include 6 children, 34 grandchildren, 116 great grandchildren and 47 great great grandchildren, making with herself a total of 204; but for some of them blank lines in place of names were given in the chart; all her descendants' surnames and the dates of their birth were omitted, also, all mention of her son John Moore. Beside her Moore children, the chart indicates that she had a son Thomas Elston, whose children are given as "Wallis, Mary, Benjamin, Lewis, Susan and Latisha" [Letitia], for none of whom are descendants named. The chart indicates that Thomas Elston's brother Isaac (probably the 3d son, Isaac Moore, is meant) had a son Isaac whose daughter Anna had a daughter Anna. There was in 1888, standing below Jane H. Van Winkle's residence in Rahway, an ancient dwelling which A. V. Shotwell remembered having heard called many years ago "the Captain Tom Elstone House," but as the names of Thomas and Isaac Elston, or Dr. De Camp, do not occur in the Rahway Meeting records, it is concluded that they were not members of the Society of Friends. On the 18 of 5 mo. 1774, Samuel Elstone and Margaret Elstone were by their request admitted as members of Rahway and Plainfield Monthly Meeting of Friends.

Samuel^3 Moore, 1709-1751±, of Woodbridge, now Rahway, N. J., m. Mary -------- 1713±-1811, and had:

1. Mary, called Polly, m. Morris DeCamp, who was sergeant in Col. Sheldon's Light Dragoons, a famous soldiery in the Revolutionary War; this regiment was part of the time in Connecticut, then in New Jersey and part of the time in Delaware. He was wounded on Staten Island on the 23 of Aug. 1777. They had: (1.) Susan, m. Samuel Marsh. (2.) Catharine, m. ----- -- Marsh. (3.) Gideon, m.------------.

2. Joseph,^{4} b. 9 Jan. 1731-2, in Woodbridge township now Rahway, N. J., was a miller; became a member of Woodbridge, Rahway and Plainfield, M. M. by request, 21 of 9 mo. 1763, and in 1766, he with his wife and children received a certificate of membership directed to Kingwood M. M.; he settled at Amwell, Hunterdon Co., N. J., and there d. 6 of 10 mo. 1793, of yellow fever contracted while attending Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, at the close of a very wearisome journey to Detroit, undertaken in the vain expectation of being present at a proposed general Indian treaty which failed of consummation, mainly on account of the unyielding demand of the Indians in Ohio, that the whites should not be allowed to continue their settlements north of the Ohio river. His very interesting journal of that expedition, together with Jacob Lindley's somewhat fuller account of the same, and a short memorial of Joseph Moore, was issued in pamphlet form in 1892, by the compiler of this work, and is yet to be had at 25 cents a copy. Joseph was buried on his plantation in Amwell; the neighbors were so fearful of the disease that not one of them dared venture near the house. An undertaker in the neighborhood made a coffin and left it in sight of the house to be taken away by some of the family. Joseph's two daughters with the aid of a colored man prepared and buried the remains, one neighbor at the last coming forward to render some assistance. John Moore, Joseph Moore and Samuel Moore, shoemaker, were names of inhabitants of Woodbridge township in 1757, as we learn from a list of the subscribers toward the building of a certain stone bridge there in that year. Joseph m. 21 of 2 mo. [Feb.] 1751, Christiana Bishop, who d. in 1791, daughter of Moses. Moses Bishop's 4 daughters married 4 Josephs—Joseph Moore, Joseph Gilman, Joseph Williams and Joseph Martin. (Children later.)

3. Edward^{4}, b. 6 Nov. 1733, dwelt on the westerly side of Main St., near Commerce, in Lower Rahway, N. J., and there d. 8 of 3 mo. 1822; he became a member of Rahway and Plainfield M. M. by request, 15 of 8 mo. 1764. He was a carpenter by trade and sometimes acted as undertaker. A bill for services of this kind has been seen in which a coffin was charged 20 shillings (about $2.50), and this was for one of the wealthiest and most prominent men of the neighborhood. "Uncle Eddy Moore," as he was familiarly called, had peculiarities of which the old people sometimes speak; one was that he would not reply or respond when addressed as "Mister Moore." A committee for the relief of sufferers in the Revolutionary War was formed in 1778, consisting of Abraham Shotwell, William Smith, Hugh Webster, John Vail, William Thorne and Elijah Pound. Subsequently Thorne resigned and Edward Moore was chosen in his place. Thorne said in the November meeting at Rahway that he was compelled to affirm his allegiance to the Continental Congress several months before—having no choice except to do that or be thrown into prison. Elijah Pound did the same thing and was therefore allowed to resign his position on the committee. Dally in his history of Woodbridge, p. 220, says that "on a warrant issued by Henry Freeman, justice, Edward Moore was visited three times during 1780, by Daniel Compton, the constable, for the collection of a tax of £29, and a fine of £500," and was thus on account of his anti-war principles deprived of 2 tables, 2 calves, an iron pot, a hand-saw, an auger, a square and compass, broadax, drawing-knife, hammer, grindstone, spade, a hand-saw file, and a cow. ACCOUNT OF JOSEPH MOORE.

"About the year 1791 a misunderstanding existed between the United States and several of the Indian tribes. On this occasion the meeting for Sufferings, held in Philadelphia, addressed a memorial to Congress, the object of which was to show the expediency of pursuing pacific measures toward settling the disputes with the Indians. Their representation was well received, but the measures they recommended were not then adopted, and the calamities of war still continuing to prevail on the western frontiers of the States, the Yearly Meeting, held in 1792, appointed a large committee to unite with the meeting for Sufferings in deliberating on this momentous subject and if practicable to recommend such measures as would be most likely to promote peace and frindship with the Indians.

"Early in the year 1793 deputies from several Indian nations visited Philadelphia with a view of forwarding an accommodation of differences with the United States, and, Government having agreed that a treaty should be held in the Indian country, near Detroit, during the summer following—those Indian deputies repeatedly urged that some Friends should attend the negotiations, stating that the nations they represented had a special confidence in Friends as a people who, from their first settlement in America, had manifested a steady adherence to the maintenance of peace and friendship with the natives. In accordance with the desire which Friends had long felt to promote peace, the proposal was acceded to, and six Friends were deputed to accompany the commissioners appointed by Government, on this occasion, after having obtained the President's approbation."—Friends Miscellany, 2nd edition, Vol. II., pp. 49–50.

The journal of Joseph Moore, to which reference has been made, begins thus: "On the 17th of 4th mo. 1793, I set out for Philadelphia and attended the meeting for sufferings, where were divers Friends, who had given up to attend the Indian treaty proposed to be held at Sandusky, on the waters of Lake Erie—having previously obtained certificates from our several monthly meetings for that purpose. The commissioners appointed by Government are General [Benjamin] Lincoln, Colonel [Timothy] Pickering, and Beverly Randolph. Lincoln goes by water to Albany, &c.; William Savery, Jacob Lindley, [of Chester Co., Pa.], and William Hartshorn go with him, and John Parish, John Elliott and myself, with Timothy Pickering and Beverly Randolph, go through the country by land."

On the night of 26 of 5 mo. 1793, Joseph Moore, with the other Friends, on their way to Detroit, lodged at the house of Jeremiah Moore, near Niagara river.

Joseph Moore in his journal in Friends Miscellany, Vol. VI. pp. 334–5, gives the following list of families of Friends in Canada whom he had visited in the summer of 1793, namely: Asa Schooley, Joseph Havens, Obadiah Dennis, Abraham Webster, John Cutler, John Hill, Benjamin Hill, Jeremiah Moore (Abraham Laing and Benjamin Canby, single men), John Taylor, Joshua Gillam, Joseph Marsh, Adam Burwell, Daniel Pound, Wm. Lundy, Thos. Rice, James Crawford, Enoch Scrigley, Samuel Taylor, Ezekiel Dennis and several others.

As they approached Philadelphia on their homeward journey, they continued to hear alarming reports of the yellow fever pestilence in that city, yet they persisted in their purpose to attend the yearly meeting there. When near Germantown, they met Sarah Lundy also on her way to attend the yearly meeting and to make a proposed visit to the southern states.

On the 21st of 9th mo. 1793, Joseph Moore attended the select yearly meeting at 4th St., in Philadelphia, and on the 24th 2 sittings of the yearly meeting, and others on the succeeding days. But his fatigue and exposure had left him ill prepared to resist the attack of the fever then raging to a distressing extent in the city. The journal ends on the 26th of 9th mo. 1793, at the res. of John Johnson, closing thus:

"The meeting [yearly, in Philadelphia] assembled again at nine o'clock, and the business concluded before twelve, in solemn quiet, and, I believe, to the satisfaction of all present. After which I dined with my friend David Bacon, and returned to Germantown with my kind friend, John Johnson, who had also attended all the sittings of this Yearly Meeting. The sickness in town continues as heretofore. Divers friends in the city are paying constant attention to the sick—providing necessaries, nurses, coffins, and carriers of the dead. At which I feel glad, and hope they will be rewarded for their labours in so great and charitable a work."—Friends Miscellany, Vol. VI, p. 343.

The following essay appears to have been the commencement of a Testimony from Friends of Kingwood monthly meeting, concerning Joseph Moore.

"Our beloved friend, Joseph Moore, was born at Woodbridge in New Jersey, in the year 1732, of parents not professing with us; but as he advanced to manhood, a merciful extension of Divine regard so opened his understanding in the path of true religion, that he joined in communion with Friends.—Soon after his marriage he came to settle within the limits of our meeting. He had not long resided with us before he received a gift in the ministry; in the exercise of which he appeared very much to our edification and comfort. He was well qualified for the discipline of the church, and diligently labored therein for the promotion of peace and good order; nor were his pacific endeavours altogether confined to the religious society of which he was a member, but he was also usefully employed in promoting peace and harmony in his neighbourhood, where very few Friends resided.

"He was of an affable disposition, greatly delighting in the company and conversation of his friends. His upright life and social, engaging manners, together with his exemplary conduct, procured him an extensive acquaintance with people of all denominations, by whom also he was generally beloved. His gospel labours in the work of the ministry were chiefly confined to this and the neighbouring meetings, until the year 1786, when he performed a religious visit, in company with his near and dear friend, Abraham Gibbons, to Friends, and those professing with us in Nova Scotia. In this journey they travelled in much harmony, and their gospel labours were to the satisfaction of the visited. In the following year accompanied by William Wilson, of Philadelphia, he proceeded a second time to Nova Scotia with a donation from Friends, to be distributed amongst the poor in that country. This important trust and service he was enabled diligently to perform, to the satisfaction of Friends.

"This our dear friend was a true sympathizer with the sick and afflicted, either in body or mind, among the different religious denominations; and frequent were the calls which he made to this class, when he not only administered assistance and relief to the maladies of the body, but also was an instrument of spiritual consolation to the tired and desponding mind."

"In addition to the foregoing testimony it may be stated, that Joseph Moore was educated by his father for a mariner and he made one voyage to sea in the capacity of supercargo, at the age of sixteen. As he approached to manhood, it is probable those religious impressions, to which allusion is made, influenced him to decline a further prosecution of that design.

On the 21st of the 2d month, 1751, when a little over nineteen years of age, he was married, and not long after, settled on a farm about three miles from Flemington, and nine from Kingwood meeting. As his children grew up around him, the difficulties of getting them to meeting at such a distance, must have increased. It is probable this circumstance, in connection with his desire for the welfare and improvement of his neighbours, induced him, in 1772, to make application to the monthly meeting, requesting a meeting to be held at his house. The sympathetic and brotherly feeling of Friends at that day, induced them to grant his request, and a meeting was accordingly held there.

"Sometime previous to this, Joseph had acceptably appeared in the ministry, but he was not recommended as a minister until the year 1774. Not long after this period, Kingwood monthly meeting had the following named ministers belonging to it, who frequently travelled abroad in Truth's service: Joseph Moore, Sarah Lundy, Gabriel Willson and Henry Widdifield. It is said when Joseph Moore and Abraham Gibbons visited Nova Scotia, they travelled on foot; but no reasons are assigned for this mode of proceeding. In the year 1791, he met with a close trial in the decease of his wife.

"The preceding account of his journey to attend the Indian treaty, is the only Journal of his life that we [Editor of Friends Miscellany] have seen. On his return from that arduous and deeply exercising travel, he attended the Yearly Meeting held in Philadelphia, during the prevalence of the yellow fever. He then proceeded on his way toward home, as far as Solebury, in Bucks county. Here he rested a day or two at his son in-law, Tomas Carey's and attended Buckingham meeting.—He was somewhat indisposed at the time, but proceeded to his own habitation, and thence to the week-day meeting at Kingwood. His indisposition continued; and though importuned to stay with his friends at Kingwood, he felt most easy to return home. The disorder, which was believed to be the yellow fever increased upon him, and in a few days terminated his course of probation. He was buried near his own dwelling house."

The following is a copy of a memorandum in the family register, said to have been written by Henry Clifton: "Our dear father Joseph Moore, departed this life, after a short illness, on the 7th of 10th month, 1793, and second of the week, in the sixty-second year of his age; expressing a few days before his departure, that if it was the Lord's will to remove him at this time he felt an entire resignation thereto."

Soon after the death of his wife, in the last decade of the 18th century, he, in company with Asher Adkinson of Flemington, went to Pittsburg, Pa., purchased a flat-boat load of produce, descended the Ohio and Mississippi rivers to New Orleans, then a Spanish province, sold the cargo, and Adkinson returned home. John went on to Apalachian, or Apalachicola, at that time in the Spanish colony of Louisiana now in Florida. In 1816, after an absence of over 20 years, he returned to New Jersey. During the whole of that time his friends had no certain intelligence of his whereabouts. At the time of leaving home he had left in the hands of a brother-in-law two bonds for collection, for which he had taken a receipt; this he brought back with him. VAIL.

FOUR GENERATIONS IN NEW JERSEY.

The name of the immigrant forefather of the Quaker Vails of the vicinity of Plainfield, N. J., has not been ascertained; but the family was planted in Westchester Co., N. Y., at a very early date, certainly before 1678.—Vail (the name was often anciently written Veal) married Elizabeth --------, who (b. 1657±), d. in Woodbridge, N. J., 3 Nov., 1747, having m. (2) -------- Gach, and m. (3) John Griffith. -------- and Elizabeth (--------) Vail, of Westchester Co., N. Y., had: (1.) Samuel^{1} Vail, a synopsis of whose children, grand-children and great-grand-children is here presented. (2.) Martha. (3.) John, Sr., the Quaker preacher. (4.) Daniel. (5.) Arthur. (6.) Thomas.

Samuel^{1} Vail, b. 21 of 10 mo. (Dec.), 1678, in West Chester, N. Y., d. Woodbridge, N. J., 26 of 4 mo. (June), 1733; m. (1) Abigail --------, b. 1685±, d. West Chester, N. Y., 14 of 8 mo. (Oct.), 1724, and had:

I. John^{2} Vail Jr., (so-called to distinguish him from his uncle, John Vail, the Quaker preacher), b. 21 of 2 mo. (April), 1708, West Chester, N. Y., d. at Plainfield, N. J., 17 of 5 mo. (May), 1754; m. (1) --------, 1731, (between 18 of 9 mo. and 16 of 10 mo.), Margaret^{1} Laing, b. 9 of 9 mo., 1710, at old

* The 100 acres bought later is now owned by a granddaughter, Edith V. (Willson) Rasck.

Plainfield, Piscataway Tp., Middlesex Co., N. J., d. before 1751, dau. of John^2 & Elizabeth (Shotwell) Laing, and granddaughter (1.) of John^1 & Margaret (--------) Laing, and (2.) of John^2 & Elizabeth (Burton) Shotwell, [of Abraham^1 Shotwell], and had:

1. Samuel Vail, b. 1732, d. 12 of 8 mo., 1753.

2. John^3 Vail, b. 29 of 6 mo. (Aug.), 1734, near Plainfield, N. J., inherited the homestead—the southern-most part of his father's estate—in Greenbrook, Somerset Co., N. J., and there d. 13 of 1 mo., 1814, buried at Plainfield. On one occasion, during the Revolutionary War, General Washington, with an escort, rode up to his house and engaged his brother-in-law, Edward Fitz Randolph, as a guide to take them to an eminence on the face of the mountain whence a good view of Greenbrook and vicinity could be obtained. The horse of this volunteer guide being in a distant field, an aide or orderly vacated his saddle, which Edward took and led the general and his party to the top of a high rock, since known as Washington's Rock, whence the desired view of the plain below was had. In the meantime a boy had been sent to the pasture for the horse, which the waiting attendant at once mounted and hastened off in pursuit of General Washington and staff. John^3 Vail m. (1) 23 of 4 mo., 1760, Catharine Fitz Randolph, b. 20 of 9 mo. (Nov.), 1739, Woodbridge, N. J., d. Greenbrook, N. The following, from a History of Hunterdon County, N. J., was copied from the Records of Kingwood (now Quakertown) M. M.:

"A brief account of Friends' sufferings belonging to Kingwood Preparative Meeting, in the years 1776–78, for not complying with the unjust requisitions of men to become instruments in the shedding of human blood. Our worthy Friend Joseph Moore, for refusing to take the test of allegiance to the State of New Jersey—so called—& abjuring the king of Great Brittain, was confined in Trenton Jail near 6 weeks, & had the test tendered to him again by the court, but he, refusing to comply, was fined in the sum of £50, & discharged from confinement, for which sum the following chattels were distrained: 1 yoke of oxen & 1 mare, worth £40. For militia fines & tax, 1 yoke oxen, 2 cows, 1 mare & 1 colt, worth £61."

Joseph^4 Moore, an approved minister of the Society of Friends,—son of Samuel^3 & Mary (__________) Moore, of Lower Rahway, in the part of Woodbridge Tp., Middlesex Co., now within the city of Rahway, Union Co., N. J., grandson of John^2 & (first wife) Hope (Robins) Moore, and great-grandson (1) of Samuel^1 & (2d of 3 wives) Mary (Ilsley) Moore & (2) of Daniel & Hope (_________) Robins, all of Woodbridge, N. J.,—dwelt for many years in Amwell Tp., Hunterdon Co., N. J., probably within the present Township of Raritan, which was erected in 1838, from part of the territory of the original Township of Amwell. The precise location of his dwelling has not been ascertained, no one in the neighborhood seeming to have any recollection of having heard of the family. The house in which his intimate friend, Thomas Atkinson, resided, is yet standing, and in a very good state of preservation. It is about two and a half miles east of Flemington, in the Township of Raritan, and is built of stone in the side of a steep hill and presents to view two stories in front and one at the back. The public road runs near and in front of it, between it and the south branch of the Raritan River, on which, almost opposite his dwelling, Thomas Atkinson built, in 1742, a mill, which was rebuilt in 1853 by Jacob Rockafellow, and is now the property of Mr. Alex. S. Rockafellow, who resides near the old Atkinson homestead.

Joseph^4 Moore and family having settled in this vicinity, became members of Kingwood (now Quakertown, N. J.,) Monthly Meeting of Friends on the 10th of 7th mo., 1766, by certificate from Rahway & Plainfield M. M. On 6th mo. 12th, 1783, Kingwood M. M. granted certificates to his daughter Ann and to Joseph for himself, wife, & 3 minor children, Benj., Hannah, & Miranda, directed to the M. M. at Chesterfield, Burlington Co., N. J., but these were returned to Kingwood M. M. 6 mo. 10, 1784; and Joseph and his household continued to worship at Kingwood until his death, which occurred in the autumn of 1793, at the close of his arduous service of several months on the expedition to Detroit, undertaken under care of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting of Friends in conjunction with a government commission appointed in the hope of being able to negotiate a general treaty of peace with the various Indian tribes northwest of the Ohio River. (See pp. 21–24.)

One Samuel Moore was reported to Kingwood M. M. 9–8, 1808, for having neglected the attendance of meetings and for intemperance, which latter he denied; he was treated with for his delinquencies, and was finally disowned by the Society, 11–9, 1809. Joseph^4 Moore's son Samuel, had m. in 1781, Amelia Prall, dau. of the Benj. Prall who d. 17 Nov., 1791. John Moore and family transferred their membership to Rahway & Plainfield M. M. by cert. from Kingwood M. M., granted 9–8, 1787. Benj. Moore, in 7th mo., 1790, brought to Kingwood M. M. a cert. of membership from Buckingham (Pa.) M. M.; but, having m. contrary to Friends' Discipline, etc., he was disowned. He was, however, restored to membership in 1st mo., 1807, after making satisfactory acknowledgment of his transgressions, and thereupon transferred his membership to Buckingham M. M. by cert. granted by Kingwood M. M., 2–9, 1807. Miranda Moore became member of Buckingham (Pa.) M. M. by cert. from Kingwood M. M., granted 5–9, 1793. And after the father's death, Huldah & Ann Moore, having also moved thither, acquired membership in the same meeting by cert. from Kingwood M. M., granted 6-12, 1794.

Edward^4 Moore, [of Samuel^3, John^2, Samuel^1], b. 6 Nov., 1733, probably in the part of Woodbridge Tp., Middlesex Co., now within the city of Rahway, Union Co., N. KESTER ADDENDA.

The following additional items were received too late for insertion (between the last two paragraphs) on page 271:

The younger three children of John^5 and Ann T. [John] Kester of West Philadelphia, Pa., are: (5.) Roselda, who dwells at Kennett Square, Chester Co, Pa., having m. Edward P. Cloud, who is editor and proprietor of the "Kennett (Weekly) Republican," and of "Cloud's Poultry News," and had one child, John Kester Cloud. (6.) Annie who dwells at the homestead, unm. (7.) William W. Kester, who is engaged in the milk business, and resides near Darby, Pa.

The father, John^5 Kester, 1817-1895, of No. 3224 (now 3226) Woodland ave., W. Phila., Pa., owned at time of his death the oldest milk route in the city, retaining to the last, customers who had patronized him when he first embarked in the business nearly fifty years before. He was one of the four originators of the Philadelphia Milk Exchange. He was also identified with other successful business operations; and, though his early struggles were somewhat handicapped by disasters, he was able by hard work, frugality, and carefulness to accumulate a goodly competence. He was a devout and consistent member of the Society of Friends (Hicksite), and elder of Darby Monthly Meeting, a representative to Philadelphia Yearly Meeting from Fishing Creek Half Year's Meeting. Was accustomed to welcome to his house Friends attending the Y. M. from a distance. He was a kind and faithful husband and father, nobly endeavoring to discharge to his seven children after the death of their mother in 1864, the tender offices of both parents. A careful adviser to the many who sought his counsel, an honest, upright christian, and a friend to the oppressed of all races and conditions. He was a firm advocate of peaceful arbitration as the wisest way to settle difficulties which rise between governments and in neighborhoods. But he is probably most widely remembered as "an earnest and staunch advocate of prohibition and total abstinence." In politics, originally a whig, afterward a republican, and steadfastly favorable to the recognition of the equal political and other rights of women.

Thomas Makepeace had six children by his first wife. Thomas, the eldest, returned to England. The second son was William who married Ann Johnson on 23 May 1661. The other four were daughters, the youngest of whom was named "Waitawhile". He married, second, a Mrs. Elizabeth Mellows, and by her had a son, Joseph, born 1646, died 1666. Thomas died in January or February 1667. His estate as listed in his will was valued at over 291 pounds (18).

It is not known where Thomas came from in England but he may have descended from "Abel Makepeace, Esq.", who, as noted above, married a daughter of Laurence Washington, Esq., of Gray's Inn, Mayor of Northampton in 1545 (18).

Son William Makepeace was a cooper's apprentice in 1653, later probably lived for some time on Block Island after his father's death. After that he lived at Freetown. Anne, who married James Edmester (Edminster), was the fourth of five children. In 1679 he had acquired "...a large tract of land on the Taunton River..." which was "...a half share of the one and twentieth lott on the Easterly side of the said Taunton River, being, by estimation, about 100 rods wide and four miles long from the said river Eastwards...on the Swanzey side..." Presumably this is separate from the 15th lot of the original 26 lots of "Ye Freeman's Purchase" bought in 1659 from Wamsitti and his squaw Tattapanum. No. 15 was first bought by Josiah Winslow, Sr., son of Gov. Edward Winslow. He sold it to William Makepeace in 1661 (23).

William Makepeace drowned in 1681 when about 48 years old as he and four others were crossing from Mattapoisett to Assonet when the leaky "canoe" capsized when "...the wind riseing caused a great sea..." His estate totalled over 180 pounds including house, land, cattle, swine and smaller items such as pewter, brass, iron, barrels, bags, keggs, pails, tubbs, bridell and saddle, two guns, two bibles, plow and churn (18).

A deed of 29 October 1688 by William Makepeace, Jr., to his sister Ann, who later married James Edmester, covered about 100 acres "...within the precincts of Freetown..." (18)

The only other reference to the children of the original John Edminster has already been briefly noted: Prudence, who was born in 1667-8, married Joseph Pike in

Swanson

1689 (8). Thus, 1689 was an eventful year in the family - Prudence and James were married and Mary got arrested.

Now I wish to turn to another source of information on James, son of the original John. In 1905, one Samuel B. Moore, a descendent of an Edminster Moore who lived in New Jersey in 1769, corresponded with Mrs. Mandana Edminster Ramsay of Boston. Her son, Charles Merle Ramsay, allowed me to copy this correspondence. Mr. Moore had arranged with a Mr. J. H. Evans of Freetown to search town and church records there. Mr. Evans turned his results over to Freetown Town Clerk, Joseph S. Taylor who transmitted them to Mr. Moore in a letter of 7 April 1905. Mr. Moore in a letter to Mrs. Ramsay of 5 June 1905 states: "James Edminster was married to Ann A., Daughter of William Makepeace and wife Ann Johnson, April 19, 1689, the ceremony being performed by Major Thom. Leonard, of Taunton. William Makepeace was drowned in August 1681, or nearly eight years before the marriage of his daughter with James Edminster. The daughter received as her share of her father's landed estate about 100 acres, some of which has since been known as `The Fox Fields'. Ann, daughter of James and Ann Edminster, married Seth Smith, of Fridove...Nov. 13, 1712. William, son of James and Ann Edminster, married Mary Paul, of Dighton,...Oct. 1, 1737." Another reference (16) includes the marriage of Anne Edminster (Edmister) and Seth Smith at Taunton on 13

Ref. Edminster Family in America:

find that a James Edmester and Anne Makepeace were married in Taunton, Massachusetts on 19 April 1689. It is certain that this is the same James. Taunton is close to Freetown; the Anne checks; and the timing is satisfactory. Once more, the spelling variation is not a handicap (except to a genealogist!) According to archive records in the Mormon Genealogical Library, Ann Makepeace was born about 1668 at Freetown. Another reference (17) cites the fact that, "Sarah the second wife (of Remembrance Davis of Freetown) was a daughter of Christopher Fox and wife Hannah Edminster, and born March 30, 1724, near Freetown, Massachusetts, granddaughter of James Edminster and wife Anne Makepeace." Here the spelling is back to "Edminster". The pathetic remainder of this story of Sarah is that "...several children of Remembrance Davis by his second wife were so deformed that they could not live."

In the genealogy of the Makepeace family (18) it states, "Also, another deed dated Jan. 25, 1689, by William Makepeace, Thomas Makepeace, William Davis, James Edmester and Anne Edmester, wife of James Edmester, all of Freetown..." Spelling is back to "Edmester" again. Also, note that the January date in 1689 of the deed, above, is about nine months later than the April 1689 date of the marriage of James and Anne due to the fact that the beginning of the new year was on March 25th, and January was thus the 11th month.

In a discussion of the early residents of Freetown, especially one Lieut. Gardiner, is the following which places James in Freetown as a taxpayer in 1690; "To the record of Lieut. Gardiner we also owe the names of the resident taxpayers of Freetown in 1690, and which were as follows: John Reed, ...William Davis, William Makepeace, Thomas Makepeace, Ann Makepeace, widow, James Edminster, Job Winslow..." The widow Ann Makepeace in this note is the widow of William Makepeace and mother of Ann Makepeace Edminster. This William Makepeace had been drowned in 1681 (19). He was the second son of Thomas Makepeace who was born in England about 1592, came to Boston in either 1635 or 1637 from Daventry, Northamptonshire (20). It is not known whether or not this Thomas Makepeace was closely related to the Makepeace's of Northamptonshire, England, who owned Sulgrave Manor. Lawrence Makepeace, of London, in 1610 bought the Manor from Robert Washington, 4-great grandfather of George Washington of Virginia. Robert Washington's sister, Mary, married Abel Makepeace, father of Lawrence who acquired the famed Manor. Lawrence's son, also Abel, sold the Manor in 1659 (21).

Frances Moore, who had John Bishop of Raway made his guardian, Nov. 16, 1694, with Jonathan Bishop as fellow-bondsman, (idem, p. 323).

But, to him, and wife, Isabel Moore, must be allotted that first GERSHOM MOORE, of Maidenhead, Hunterdon County, who d. 1722-3, yeomon, leaving will dated April 3rd, 1722, naming wife Mercy, chil.--THOMAS, Nathan, Gershom, Martha, Mary, all except Thomas, under age. (N.B. it is soon apparent that the dau. Martha was too young to have become the wife, as "Martha Moores," accord. to tradition, of John Freeman, vide, ante, this PART, p. 713.--O.E.M.) This will was proved Jan. 23, 1722-3, and because of Ralph Hart and Richard Furman, as executors, proves the Newtown, L. I. origin, (ARCH., Vol. XXIII, p. 324).

The Thomas Moore, who d. 1709, may have been, also a son of the first THOMAS MOORE, (idem, p. 325).

Examining HATFIELD, (pp. 84-5), it will be seen that the writer has rejected the original claim for the ancestry of this THOMAS MOORE, of the title, as a son of the first THOMAS MOORE, who was in Southold, (vide, ante, this PART, p. 779), as it was REV. JOHN MOORE, who was son of the FIRST in Southold.

If anything, Rev. JOHN MOORE was the son of a first THOMAS MOORE of N. E., poss. of Salem, Mass.

CAPTAIN JOHN MOORE OF WOODBRIDGE

He was the gallant soldier in Coll. Thomas Ffarmar's New Jersey Regiment of 1715, (vide, ante, PART ONE, p. 115), and so-called "MOORE, CAPT. JOHN, 1674-1730. Capt. in Col. Thomas Farmer's N. J. Regt., 1715," (SOC. of COL. WARS, 1922, p. 333),--(qual. of O.E.M.) He was a son of HON. SAMUEL MOORE of W., (vide, ante, PART FOUR, p. 619).

His children by wife, Hope Robbins, were:

(W. VIT. RECS., vide, ante, PART TWO, p. 257.)

This lists 2 wives

I. John, b. in Freehold, Dec. 3, 1700-1.
II. Martha, b. ca. 1701, m. JOHN FREEMAN of W., (vide, ante, this PART,
p. 713). (Rel. recs.)
III. Joseph, b. Oct. 5, 1703.
IV. Benjamin, b. Oct. 10, 1705.
V. Enoch, b. Dec. 7, 1707.
VI. Samuel, b. Apl. 4, 1709.
VII. Daniel, b. Aug. 24, 1711.
VIII. Rachel, b. Oct. 15, 1713.

By wife, Mary Oliver:

IX. Mary, b. Jany. 17, 1718-19.
X. William, b. Aug. 30, 1720.
XI. Hannah, b. Mar. 31, 1722.
XII. John, b. May 13, 1725.
XIII. Deborah, b. Mar. 28, 1727.
XIV. Sarah, b. Dec. 6, 1728.
(To be added from will, infra.)
XV. Elizabeth.
XVI. Hope.
XVII. Frances.

Capt. JOHN MOORE d. in 1736, leaving a will, dated, 1730, March 13, called of W., yeoman, which was proved, April 30, 1736, and naming 13 of the foregoing children, omitting Martha, Joseph and the second John, (ARCH., Vol. XXX, p. 343).

See JER. GEN., Nos. 4687 and 4764.

ANTHONY MORRIS OF PHILADELPHIA

This was a distinguished line of public officials.

ANTHONY MORRIS 2nd, (supra) was also a prominent settler of Burlington, New Jersey and in the early records his name frequently appears, and as JUSTICE MORRIS, 1695-6, (ARCH., Vol. XXIII, p. 31).

As related to LUKE WATSON, (vide, ante, this PART, p. 721). There were two such officials, father and son, a regal family. The one line is given as foll.; (PA. MAG., Vol. I, p. 177).

1. ANTHONY MORRIS, b. Aug. 19, 1654, d. Aug. 23, 1721, Mayor of Phila.
2. ANTHONY MORRIS, b. March 15, 1681-2, d. Sept. 23, 1762, Mayor of Phila., and who m. 1700 Elizabeth Watson, dau. of LUKE WATSON, THE COMMONWEALTH BUILDER, (vide, ante, this PART, p. 727).
3. ANTHONY MORRIS, b. Nov. 14, 1705, d. Oct. 2, 1780.
4. ANTHONY MORRIS, b. Aug. 8, 1738, killed in the battle, near Princeton, Friday, Jan. 3, 1777.

(PENNA. MAG., Vol. 12, p. 488.)

GEORGE MOUNT OF MONMOUTH

GEORGE1 MOUNT b. about 1635. Pioneer of his name in Monmouth Co., N. J.; quit-renter, 1685, (vide, ante, PART ONE, p. 54); m. about 1660, Katherine (???). Will, dated 1702, mentions wife Katherine, (STILLWELL, Vol. IV, p. 111).

RICHARD2 MOUNT b. ca. 1665-6, m. prior, 1687, Rebecca Wall, (dau. of GARRETT WALL, pioneer). Resided (1) Middleton, (2) Cranberry.

RICHARD3 MOUNT b. prior to 1691, d. between July 22 and Aug. 11, 1777. Married:

(1) Rebecca Wall, about 1715 or 18,
(2) Rachel Cox,
(3) Elizabeth Seabrook, 1711-1791.

MERCY: or MASSIE4 MOUNT, m. William Vaughan of Upper Freehold, who died leaving a will dated Oct. 2, 1767, proved, Oct. 28, 1767, naming his wife, Massie Vahne, (Vaughan), exec. She married later David Stout. (Vide, ante, PART FOUR, p. 635.)

MOUNTAIN FAMILY

A New Jersey migration. From the original French de la MONTAIGNE, an old noble, reigning order in the 15th and 16th Centuries.

They came early, as 1654(?), it is said, the first being JEAN MOUNTAIN (sic.) having a family of children, representing at least JOSEPH, JEAN, RICHARD, MARTHA, and his half brother GEORGE GUINAP, of early N. J. records. The last named JOSEPH MOUNTAIN m. MISS. E. DRAKE, who?

(PENNA. MAG., Vol. 30, p. 251.)

DAVIDE MUDIE

A First Settler of PISCATAWAY, who came before 1700, (vide, ante, PART ONE, p. 79).

He was really of PERTH AMBOY. D. in 1695-6, leaving a will, dated 1695-6, Feb. 18, no wife; children, JAMES, ISOBELL, CHRISTIAN, ELIZABETH, and

JOHN, to have property in Europe: MARGARET, ANNA, JANNET, wife of THOMAS GORDON, KATHERINE and MARY to have American prop. Dau. JEAN STRACKEN already provided for. Proved, Mar. 12, 1695-6, (ARCH., Vol. XXIII, p. 331).

MOREHOUSE

Referring to previous presentation (vide, ante, PART THREE, pp. 426, et seq.) it was stated (p. 430) that AARON MOREHOUSE "was a son of Col. Andrew Morehouse," etc., and "lived with his uncle," etc., which was a mis-statement in the MSS., and should read "lived with his elder brother, JAMES MOREHOUSE" (Family Records.)

It has gladdened many hearts of those not otherwise informed, that this lineage was established through an old man, SAMUEL MOREHOUSE, ae. 86, who recalled the early N. Y. County associtions.

MORRIS FAMILY OF N. J.

(For Miss Maud Burr Morris, valuable supporter of this SERIES and joint worker in re STELLE, (vide, ante, PART ONE, p. xxiii.)

Note first, PROCEEDS., (N. J. HIST. SOC., 1922, Vol. VII, pp. 41 et seq). (STILLWELL, Vol. IV, pp. 14, et seq.).

of Elizabeth; although she might be a dau. of John (#26) and Mary (Kelsey) Oliver.

26. John, b. ca. 1703, d. ca. 1765, m. (1) ca. 1722 Mary Kelsey, b. ca. 1704; m. (2) by lic. dated 8 Dec. 1748 Susannah Brant, widow; m. (3) Elizabeth Cooper(?) who survived him. His son who d. 1771 called himself John Oliver III to distinguish himself from his older cousin, John Oliver, Jr., son of David Oliver (#22)
27. Dorcas, b. ca. 1705, living in 1747, m. at Piscataway 25 Feb. 1730 David Conger, b. Woodbridge 15 Mar. 1707, d. ca. 1747, a son of Gershom and Ann (de Signey) Conger.
28. Abigail, b. ca. 1707, mentioned in her father's will of 1720 but, as she is not among the 1738 heirs, perhaps had died by that date. A correspondent suggests evidence (unknown to me) points to her marriage to Thomas Darling.

5. ELIZABETH OLIVER, daughter of William Oliver (#1) and Mary Ackerly, born ca. 1664, judging from her marriage 25 December 1680 to Zerah Higgins, born at Eastham, Massachusetts, in June 1658, a son of Richard and Mary (Yates) Higgins. His estate was settled 12 December 1695 and makes no mention of her.

Children:

29. Richard Higgins, b. 18 Nov. 1682, d. shortly before 1 Dec. 1736 when his widow Phoebe declined to administer and Dr. Peter Leconte of Monmouth County was appointed instead. Richard was first called Jonathan, but when his uncles Samuel Oliver and Thomas Higgins were appointed his guardians 21 Dec. 1695, he was called Richard only son of Zerah Higgins. He m. by 1716 Phoebe Trotter; the will of Benjamin Trotter of Elizabethtown, dated 27 Oct. 1716, calls him "boatman." His goods were auctioned 20 June 1737. He is said to have had a son Jonathan and perhaps other children, but as none are known to be represented among the Coddington heirs, they must have been minors in 1738.
30. Mary Higgins, b. ca. 1684, living in 1746, m. 4 June 1702 Moses Rolph by whom she had eleven children.
31. Sarah Higgins, b. 15 Sept. 1686, no record, probably had died without issue by 1738.

7. WILLIAM OLIVER, born, say, ca. 1668, son of William Oliver (#1) and Mary Ackerly, died perhaps ca. 1715, maybe married Mary —— who married second at Woodbridge 21 November 1717 John Moore born Woodbridge 20 July 1670, died ca. 1736, a son of Samuel and Mary (Ilsley) Moore. Mary survived John Moore. The children of William Oliver, Jr., by his supposed wife Mary —— are not well recorded.

Children (assumed):

32. Hannah(?) (Oliver?), b. say ca. 1700, m. ca. 1720 William Winans, b. ca. 1694, d. 1762-1763, a son of John and Anna (Robertson) Winans.
33. Joseph, b. say ca. 1703, witnessed the will of John Moore of Woodbridge 13 Mar. 1730, signed the agreement of the heirs of Sarah Coddington in 1738, then is heard of no more unless he is the Joseph Oliver freeholder at Woodbridge in 1752, but this might be Joseph, b. 1729-1730, son of John (#26) and Mary (Kelsey) Oliver.
34. William, III, b. say ca. 1705, wrote his will at Elizabeth 27 Feb. 1783, d. before 7 June 1783 when it was proved, m. Sarah Coddington, b. ca. 1708, dead by 1783, a dau. of Benjamin and Mary (——) Coddington.

Rolfe the husband of a niece of Sarah Oliver.

ANDREW DRAKE was born 20 January 1685, according to Louis Stoughton Drake (1896), a son of George Drake and Mary Oliver of Piscataway. The will of Andrew Drake of Piscataway is dated 16 September 1742 and was probated 2 December 1743; it mentions his wife Hannah and eleven children. Andrew Drake had married at Piscataway 22 May 1705 Hannah FitzRandolph, a daughter of Joseph and Hannah (Conger) FitzRandolph, born 4 February 1688/9. Andrew, then, was a nephew of Sarah Oliver.

SAMUEL OLIVER was born ca. 1686-1687 and died, according to his gravestone in the First Presbyterian churchyard at Elizabeth, 15 May 1744 in his 58th year. He married (1) Sarah —— who died 9 April 1735 in her 47th year, and (2) Margaret —— who survived him. Samuel Oliver of Elizabeth Town, yeoman, wrote his will 1 November 1739; it was probated 16 June 1744. In it he mentions his wife, Margaret, his cousin (i.e., niece) Mercy Oliver, and his cousin (i.e., nephew) Benoni Frazee, indicating he died childless. He was a son of Samuel Oliver, Sr., of Elizabeth Town, yeoman, whose will of 18 January 1719/20, proved 12 August 1723, mentions his wife Mary and his children Samuel, David, Jonathan, John, Mary, Sarah, Elizabeth, Mercy, Dorcas, and Abigail. Samuel Oliver, Jr., would thus be a nephew of Sarah Oliver.

MOORE, John
b. 1674
m. 1 Hope Robbins
2 Mary Oliver

WILLIAM OLIVER is not mentioned in the will of Samuel Oliver, Sr., so is probably a son of William Oliver, Jr., who made a contribution toward the support of the Presbyterian minister at Elizabeth with William Oliver and Samuel Oliver in 1694. I do not think the William Oliver who signed the 1738 agreement is this William Oliver, Jr., but is his son together with the Joseph Oliver who also signed as an heir in 1738 and is also not mentioned in the will of Samuel Oliver, Sr. It is likely William Oliver, Jr., had died by 1738 leaving two sons, William Oliver III and Joseph Oliver, who would be nephews of Sarah Oliver. The death before 1738 of William Oliver, Jr., might also identify the Mary Oliver who married at Woodbridge 21 November 1717 John Moore and survived him. John Moore was born at Woodbridge 20 July 1674, a son of Samuel and Mary (Ilsley) Moore. He married (1) at Freehold 18 March 1699 Hope Robbins, daughter of Daniel Robins of Woodbridge. Hope died in 1714. John Moore of Woodbridge wrote his will 13 March 1730 mentioning his wife Mary and fourteen children; Joseph Oliver was a witness. The will was probated 20 April 1736.

As Mary (Oliver) Moore was a widow in 1736 and not represented as an heir of Sarah Coddington in 1738 although she had nine children by Moore, I do not think she was born an Oliver. As John Moore was born in 1674, he would be a contemporary of William Oliver, Jr., who was born ca. 1668, so could easily have married William's widow as his second wife. This might explain why William Oliver, Jr.'s, projected son Joseph Oliver witnessed Moore's will. Since Mary Moore had a child born as late as 1728 and perhaps three more after that, it is possible she was a mother as late as 1734, in which case she was probably born after 1684. A Mary Moore appears among the purchasers of goods in the account of the auction of the estate of Sarah Coddington ca. 1738.

Benjamin, John and Andrew Faneuil, later "FANEUIL'S HALL," Boston, (FOSDICK, p. 173) was one of the First Settlers of New Oxford, of which lists are to be found in OXFORD, (pp. 186 and 195).

Rev. David de Bonrepos was a pastor of this French Church, and removed to Staten Island, (OXFORD, p. 138), and (vide, ante, PART THREE, p. 402).

Lydia Huntley Sigourney, the poctess, (OXFORD, pp. 200 et seq.), was kin to an ancestral collateral of O. E. M., and the lineage of her husband is that of the foregoing Andrew Sigourney. (OLD. NORTH., Vol. xi, 1908, p. 295.)

FRANCIS BRIDON became one of the prominent First Settlers of Staten Island, associated with MONNET, (vide, ante, PART ONE, p. 120), and the variants Breedon, Brydon, etc., belong to his descendants.

DEDICATION

As stated, "IN CONCLUSION OF PART THREE," (ante, p. 449), this PART FOUR of this SERIES" will relate more particularly to WOODBRIDGE than PISCATAWAY, although a mixture of each, and will be dedicated especially to REVEREND JOHN SMITH, originally from Barnstable, Mass., SAMUEL MOORE, leading citizen of WOODBRIDGE, THOMAS BLOOMFIELD, the soldier Englishman, and JONATHAN SINGLETARY, whose alias, "DUNHAM," seemed to have placed him under a cloud, though he was one of the most honored and influential men of his time."

This plan will be carried out, as to the above four figures in the WOODBRIDGE HALL of FAME, memorializing her FIRST SETTLERS, to which it is most appropriate to add that (fifth) VINCENT RUNYON, HUGUENOT, of PISCATAWAY, again presenting and reemphasizing the French Protestant blood strain in early New Jersey history, so frequently overlooked by historians or far obliterated in the processes of the recording years, by name variation.

THEREFORE, in recognition of their kind and quality of highminded citizenship, their marked and distinguished services to their respective communities, and their human and colorful contributions to the colonizating and pioneering aspects of those two pivotal settlements, this PART FOUR is dedicated, that these leaders of the migratory movement, along with and as related to others of the same epoch, which created the FOUNDATIONS of a new COMMONWEALTH, by name, episode and achievement, with genealogical origins, may be preserved and honored, as FIRST SETTLERS of unusual distinction in Colonial New Jersey.

1. REVEREND JOHN SMITH, b. ca. 1614, d. ca. 1710; first of Barnstable, Mass.; one of the original grantees or associates, 1668, of PISCATAWAY, (vide, ante, PART ONE, p. 70), but, more definitely, the notable and worthy First Citizen of WOODBRIDGE, (vide, ante, PART ONE, p. 80). He was the epitome of ministerial idealism, as a preacher of vigor and determination, in the face of Puritan intolerance, and as an honest servitor of trade and business in his practical vocation in WOODBRIDGE, where he was the miller for his townsmen. His declining years in another parish, in Sandwich, Massachusetts, crowned his life with sagacity, wisdom and honor. He brought to New Jersey, in his marriage, the HINCKLEY Blood, in its definite and worthy contribution to a new race of descendants.
2. HONORABLE SAMUEL MOORE, b. ca. 1630, d. May 27, 1688, then "Town Clerk," whose civic attainments, in high office and public relations, marked his character, abilities and reflection of public confidence, in WOODBRIDGE. He was one of the original affiants to take the "Oathe of Alegeance and Fidelitie," 1667-1668, (vide, ante, PART ONE, p. 81); and he was continuous in performance of community service. His ancestry was that of New England, not as the immigrant, but as the transmission unit of virile, typical family traits, making this surname and his descendants, who bore it, easily distinguishable in the new environment and worthily shown in succeeding generations. It was said in opening that there was greater homogeneity in the WOODBRIDGE circle of citizenry. It may be said that this MOORE Family is well to be considered the most expressive of that fact. His brother, MATTHEW MOORES, (sic.), who was an associate and citizen in the WOODBRIDGE affairs, emulated his brother, more civically distinguished, but was none the less of the same sturdy, virile type.

3. CROMWELLIAN THOMAS BLOOMFIELD, SENIOR, in WOODBRIDGE, but, in reality, JUNIOR, to the Massachusetts immigrant, b. ca.

question of who his father was having, in 1640, joined the church, and was a brother-in-law of Gov. THOMAS HINCKLEY, having married his sister SUSANNAH HINCKLEY. His children were:

1. Samuel, born, April, 1644.
2. Sarah, bap. 1645.
3. Ebenezer, b. Nov. 22, 1646, and died next month.
4. Mary, b. Nov. 1647, (m. JOHN DUNHAM).
5. Dorcas, b. Aug. 18, 1650.
6. John, b. Feb. 22, 1652, buried in two days.
7. Shubael, b. March 13, 1653.
8. John, Sept. 1656.
9. Benjamin, b. Jan. 1659.
10. Ichabod, Jan. 1661.
11. Elizabeth, Feb. 1663.
12. Thomas, Feb. 1665.
13. Joseph, Dec. 6, 1667.

(This list has omissions.--O. E. M.)

Large families being the rule in those days, the Smith posterity does not seem to be disproportionate to the times. In 1659, JOHN SMITH, of Barnstable was, with Isaac Robinson and others, permitted to visit the Quaker meetings and report his observations thereon. Like Robinson, he was of the opinion that the best way to deal with the Quakers was to let them alone; not to persecute, not to antagonize them. He did not receive such harsh treatment as Cudworth and Robinson, but was for a time under the cloud of the government influence.

In consulting the records of the towns and the genealogical dictionaries, the writer finds the genealogies of the Smiths, and especially the John Smiths, beyond his power to unravel, and leaving this matter here, at the first generation of the Barnstable Smiths, declines the task of further untangling the highly respectable but somewhat confused genealogical pedigrees. He may, in conclusion, be permitted to say, that the Barnstable Smiths have ever proved themselves good citizens, and have very seldom been convicted of offenses against the laws of the country of which so many of them are citizens.

There seemed to be an undue tendency among our ancestors, which their descendants have not yet outgrown, to name their sons, JOHN; no doubt out of a feeling of admiration for the first great SMITH of American history. This commendable phase of hero worship has been the great perplexity and embarrassment of genealogists in all future times. When we try to untangle the mystery of the Smith family the Johns are so numerous that it is difficult, yea, impossible--to decide which Smith is involved in the investigation."

(Genealogical Notes of Barnstable Families, Amos Otis Papers, 1861, reprint and revised by C. F. Swift, 1888, Vol. II., pp. 236 and 237.)

2. SAMUEL MOORE, leading Citizen of WOODBRIDGE, and this appellation is given in justice, and without invidious or unfavorable comparison with those other notable men, who came from NEWBURY, MASSACHUSETTS, to found, with him, the new settlement. But, his leadership stands forth clearly and undisputed in the records, although the others attained full prominence and standing in the activities and relationships of the community.

SAMUEL MOORE was b. ca. 1630, d. May, 27, 1688, testate;

As the father of Captain John Moore, he was a brother of Matthew Moores, who, too, had a son, John Moores. (The Matthew Moores line has continued the name of "MOORES" to the present day, while the line of Samuel continues the name of Moore.)

"Samuel Moore and Matthew Moores, brothers, came from Newbury, Mass., and were early settlers at Woodbridge, N. J. On December 27, 1667, they were allotted land." (Early Record.)

It is the quite definite conclusion of the writer, for abundant reasons, that these two brothers, SAMUEL and MATTHEW MOORE, and their sister, SARAH MOORE, who m. Samuel Dennis (son of Robert) were sons and daughter of FRANCIS MOORE, Sr., of Cambridge.

EDMUND MOORE of Newbury was likely a brother, too.

Hanna, Mar. 25, 1665.

The exact dates of arrival in New Jersey are difficult of fixation, but by 1675, there was entered "Here begins the Rights of land due according to the Concessions." These concessions were entered, likewise, "1664-5, Feb. 10. "The Concessions And agreements of the Lords Proprietors of the Province of New Cesarea or New Jersey to and with all and Every the Adventurers and all such as Shall Settle or plant there." (ARCH., Vol. XXI, pp. 33-4.)

"SAMUEL MOORE, FIVE DAUGHTERS, THREE SONS, AND TWO SLAVES, EACH 60 A." (ARCH. Vol. XXI, p. 46).

By the time of his will, one daughter had died and two other sons had been born, etc.

In W., SAMUEL MOORE, SR., m. (3), ANN or HANNAH JACQUES, Dec. 23, 1678, (vide, ante, PART TWO, p. 250. She was the widow of HENRY JACQUES, Jr., of W.

"1683, Nov. 10. Will of SAMUEL MOORE of Woodbridge. Wife, Hannah, sons, Samuel, Thomas, John, Enoch, daughters, Hannah, Elizabeth, Frances, Sarah. Real and personal estate: liberates negro-woman, Nanny. Executors, brothers-in-law, Samuel Dennes and Samuel Hale, with son-in-law, John Blumfield. Witnesses, John Pike, John Bishop, Samuel Haile, John Blumfield, John Ilsley, Ephraim Andrise, Israell Thornehill, Ezekial Blumfield, Jonathan Bishop, MATHEW MOORE." (Idem., p. 121.)

3. THOMAS BLOOMFIELD, the soldier Englishman, like his associate, SAMUEL MOORE, from NEWBURY, MASSACHUSETTS, concerning whom the military legend will ever prevail, almost with the strength of historic truth, and who, as the ancestor of that rather famous Governor of New Jersey, JOSEPH BLOOMFIELD, (1753-1823), will hold a sacred place as a progenitor of many prominent New Jersey families; came to his estate by that force of character and strength of achievement, which have ever characterized the name. He was an immigrant into and a first settler of New England, possibly b. ca. 1620, (figuring backward from the birth date of his first child, Mary, b. 1642, which of course is not finally conclusive, as he may have been much older, and probably was).

This THOMAS BLOOMFIELD must not be taken as the first generation in America, since the records of Newbury, Mass., show his father of the same name, and COFFIN, (p. 296) gives some rceords of the family there:

"BLUMFIELD, THOMAS, sen., an early settler, died in 1639. Ch.--Thomas and a "lame daughter."

BLUMFIELD, THOMAS, jun., son of THOMAS, sen. Ch.--Mary, b. 5 Jan., 1642; Sarah, b. 30 Dec., 1643; John, 15 Mar., 1646; Thomas, 12 Dec., 1648; Nathaniel, 10 April, 1651; Ezekiel, 1 Nov., 1653; Rebeccas, 1656; Ruth, 4 July, 1659; Timothy, 1 April, 1664. In 1665, he moved to WOODBRIDGE, N. J. Gov. Joseph Bloomfield, of that state was one of his descendants." (COFFIN, p. 296 and also vide, p. 70, quoted in PART ONE, p. 86).

Without further extending quotations from the WOODBRIDGE TOWN RECORDS, as indicated in the introductory statement at the commencement of this section, the following names have been gleaned from said TOWN RECORDS as indicating, with date of record, who were the actual first settlers of WOODBRIDGE and the neighboring village of "NEW PISCATAWAY," which is referred to in the WOODBRIDGE TOWN RECORDS as if contemporaneous if not of prior date of settlement.

While this list of names is not all inclusive, it should be a fair and accurate guide to the names of these first settlers and the dates of their location in this section of early New Jersey.

From various sources we collect the following information about Daniel Peirce, senior:

March 4, 1645, "There was granted by the towne of Newbury to Daniel Peirce twelve akers of upland which the said Daniel Peirce requested, promising he would remain with us in Newbury as long as hee liveth unlesse hee should return to Old England." (Town Records.)

At the close of the summer of 1665, says Coffin (History of Newbury), by invitation of Governor Carteret, of New-Jersey, several persons went from Newbury and settled in a township, which, in honor of the Reverend John Woodbridge, of Newbury, was called Woodbridge. Of these emigrants some returned; others remained, and became distinguished both in civil and military life. Among them were Captain John Pike, ancestor of Gen. Zebulon M. Pike, killed at the battle of Queenstown in 1812; Thomas Bloomfield, ancestor of Joseph Bloomfield, for some years governor of New-Jersey; John Bishop, senior and junior; Jonathan Haynes, Henry Jaques, George March, Stephen Kent, Abraham Toppan, Jr., Elisha Ilsley, Hugh March, John Bloomfield, Samuel Moore, Nathaniel Webster, John Ilsley.

Governor Carteret, John Ogden and Luke Watson, on the 21st of May, 1666, says the Hon. William A. Whitehead (Coll. of New-Jersey His. Soc. Vol. i.), "entered into an agreement with Daniel Peirce and his associates for settling two townships; and on the 11th of December, 1666, in consideration of £80 sterling, they transferred to Peirce for that purpose one-half of the tract, 'known as Arthur Cull [Achter Kol] or Amboyle' [Amboy], as originally granted by Governor Nicolls; extending from the Raritan to Rahawack [Rahway] river, and running back into the country, according to the Indian deed. This deed was confirmed by another of similar tenor, dated 3d December, 1666, on the back of which Peirce endorsed the names of those interested with him in the grant, 'that is for the accommodating of the town now called Woodbridge;' he to have the first choice. His associates were Joshua Peirce [his son], John Pike, John Bishop, Henry Jaques, and Hugh March of Newbury; Stephen Kent of Haverhill; Robert Dennis of Yarmouth, and John Smith of Barnstable in New-England. On the same day Peirce was commissioned deputy-surveyor to lay out the bounds of Woodbridge. On the 1st of June, 1669, he and his associates received a charter. .... On the 18th of December, 1666, a week after he obtained his first conveyance, Peirce transferred to John Martin, Charles Gilman, Hugh Dunn, and Hopewell Hull, one third part of the land he had thus acquired, and they and their associates founded the town of Piscataway," so named after the region in New-Hampshire and Maine bordering on the Piscataway or Piscataqua river.

In 1668 Daniel Peirce was a member of Governor Carteret's first council. He returned to Newbury as early as 1670, and took part in the bitter and protracted church controversy between the "Parker party" on the one side, and the "Woodman party" on the other, which excited public attention throughout New-England. (Coffin's Hist. of Newbury, 72–112.)

Daniel^1 Peirce died November 27, 1677. His will, dated Nov. 12, 1677, and proved March 26, 1678, makes his son Daniel sole executor, "desiring him to doe for his brother Joshua's children as he shall see in his discretion meet to be done for them; mentions his "marriage agreement with Ann, Stephen's heirs, his son Daniel, his grandson Richard and his own heir male. "Whereas Jasper my Indian hath been a good servant to me my will is that he shall serve my executor well and faithfully six years after my decease & that then he shall have his freedom." Executor: son Stephen. Overseers: friends Capt. Thomas Noyes, Mr. Moses Gerrish. Witnesses: Isack Ilsley, Anthony Mors, Henry Short. The estate was valued at £1124, Jasper the Indian being worth £10.*

Children, born in Newbury:

i. Henry, b. July 30, 1649. In 1666 he had got Eleanor Bryer into trouble and, instead of facing the music, had fled, presumably having been taken to New Jersey by his father. The fine of the unhappy Eleanor was paid by John Knight, and Henry was fined £30 in March and an unnamed sum in May, 1666, for his misdemeanors. He remained in Woodbridge where he married about 1673 Anne, probably sister of John Trueman of Woodbridge who left a legacy to her and her children in his will in 1679. He took the Oath of Allegiance Feb. 27, 1667/8. In 1677 he made public acknowledgment of his error in slandering Rev. Ezekiel Fogg. He died in Woodbridge April 17, 1679. The widow Anne Jaques married Samuel Moore of Woodbridge Dec. 23, 1679, and on March 4, 1679/80, Moore was appointed administrator of the Jaques estate.

Children, born in Woodbridge:

1. John, b. Aug. 2, 1674; m. Dec. 11, 1700, Susanna Merrick.
2. Henry, b. Sept. 12, 1675. In 1697 and 1697/8 he sold land in Woodbridge and disappears from the records of that town, except that a lot of land was drawn in his name in 1717. The two deeds describe him as a blacksmith. From his grandfather's will it may be inferred that after his father's death this boy, his namesake, was brought up in his grandfather's home in Newbury. Henry Jaques and Rebecca Pickering were published in Ipswich April 10, 1706, and married in Portsmouth June 28, 1706, and in Portsmouth they lived until 1721/2, when administration was granted on his estate to her brother Joshua Pickering. The widow Rebecca Jaques m. at Newington Sept. 24, 1724, Paul Wentworth.
3. Sarah, b. Jan. 12, 1677; d. April 12, 1678.
4. Jonathan, b. April 8, 1679.

ii. Mary, b. Nov. 12, 1651; d. Oct. 13, 1653.

iii. Mary, b. Oct. 23, 1653; m. May 7, 1674, Richard Brown.

iv. Richard; m. Jan. 18, 1681, Ruth Plummer. He took the Oath of Allegiance in 1676, aged 22. He was drowned May 28, 1683 (town record), but in the inventory of his estate it says that he died June 22, 1683. The first date is correct as on that day a jury of inquest found that Richard Jakwish, tired and weary with washing sheep, jumped into the river to save a man who was beyond his depth, "sank and rose no more." † He left a small estate.‡

John Loofbourrow of Woodbridge
Founder of the Loofbourrow Family in America

BY EDITH LOUGHBOROUGH MULFORD

Mrs. Mulford, who has been engaged for some years in compiling a history of this family under its various spellings of the name, welcomes correspondence with interested parties (address: 130 South Mountain Road, Montclair, N. J.). All citations of deeds and wills in this article refer to the originals on file at Trenton unless otherwise stated. Abbreviations used: MB (marriage bond); ENJD (East New Jersey Deeds); NJA (New Jersey Archives); PA (Pa. Archives); VM (Va. Mag.); GMNJ (Gen. Mag. of N.J.); NEHGR (New Eng. Hist. and Gen. Reg.); D (Dally); M (Monnette); SM (Stillwell's Misc.); FW (Woodbridge Freeholders records); QR (Quaker records); VST (Vital Statistics, Trenton); NJHS (New Jersey Hist. Soc.).

Of the many immigrants to the New World, seeking freedom of religion and a new way of life, none is more illustrative than John Loofbourrow who came to Perth Amboy in Feb. 1685.* Exhaustive research so far has failed to reveal the ancestry or country of origin of John Loofbourrow and no connection has been traced to the James Luckburrowe, age 20, listed on the Original Lists of Persons of Quality Who Went from Great Britain to the American Plantations in 1635 (Hotten).

John Loofbourrow was living in Woodbridge, N.J., on Oct. 7, 1686, when he leased a gristmill from Samuel Moore. John was a Quaker and an active member of the Amboy Monthly Meeting, where on 9th mo., 9th day, 1687, he stated his intentions to marry Gurtrude Holland. This was an ill-fated romance as she died before the date set for their marriage. Letters of administration were granted to John Loofbourrow on her estate, Jan. 26, 1688 (NJA 21:108). However, fate was inclined to be kind as the Quaker meeting records show his publication for marriage with Hannah Bunn, Oct. 22, as his father and not nearly so popular a man as his brother, Samuel Dennis. In the freeholders' records, 1667-1677, he received a house lot of nineteen and one-half acres; in 1670 he is credited with receiving a patent for 107 acres; in 1681 he was rate-maker or assessor; in 1685 he was one of the eight men chosen to superintend the building of a bridge; he was overseer of highways in 1688. Dally locates his residence in the town with some exactness. His wife died May 15, 1689, but neither left a will, although administration on his estate was permitted to his oldest son, John Dennis, in 1695, despite the fact that inventory had been taken in 1689. Their children were:

I. John, born September 9, 1669, married April 8, 1694, Rachel Hull, born July 9, 1676, daughter of Captain Benjamin and Rachel (Yorke) Hull. He died in 1702-3.
II. Maria (Mary), born December 7, 1671, died October, 1689.
III. Sarah, born July 18, 1673; married July 16, 1689, Benjamin Fitz Randolph, of Piscataway.
IV. Elizabeth, born February 14, 1674; married April 4, 1693, to John Manning of Piscataway.

John Dennis, above son of John Dennis, who married Rachel Hull, died 1702-3, leaving a will in which he is called "carpenter"; names his wife Rachel and his uncle, Samuel Dennis, and brother, Nathaniel Fitz Randolph. John and Rachel Hull Dennis had at least the following children:

I. Eunice, born December 29, 1694;
II. Joseph, born May 8, 1697;
III. Rachel, born May 14, 1699;
IV. John, born January 14, 1700-1.
(There were other chil.--O.E.M.)

As to the other children of John Dennis Sr. and Sarah Bloomfield, they will be referred to later in the discussions of the Fitz Randolph and Manning families.

(3) SAMUEL DENNIS, son of Robert and Mary Dennis, was born some time before 1650; died in 1715; married Sarah, who died before 1689. He married (2) widow Crow or Crowell, April 14, 1689. Of the three Dennis men who figured with such prominence in early Woodbridge history, Samuel Dennis was unquestionably the most popular man of the three, enjoying the confidence and esteem of his fellow-townsmen and at the same time occupying the more important and greater number of civil offices. He was a weaver; received twelve acres for his house lot 1667-77, and in the freeholders' list of 1670 was credited with ninety-four acres; juryman 1671; one of the "Schepens" under the Dutch rule in 1673; ensign of the local militia company in 1674; on various church and civil committees; deputy to the Legislature in 1682-3; town clerk 1688-1692; member of the Governor's council, 1684 and 1687; as judge was president of the township court in 1686-7 and assistant justice 1683 and 1692; he was deputy again in 1698-9; served as marshal, sergeant, overseer of highways, rate maker at different dates. His brother-in-law was Samuel Moore, an older man, and likewise prominent in Woodbridge. Dally makes the following statement; "In some respects the jurist. Samuel Dennis, was the peer of Moore, and, as we have seen, both men were held in high estimation by the town folk."

One of the most intricate and interesting genealogical problems yet presented is to ascertain the maiden name of Samuel Dennis's first wife, Sarah, for her name was Sarah, as their four children are recorded in Woodbridge Town Records as children of "Samuel and Sarah." She must have died between 1683, when her last child was born, and 1689. Woodbridge Town Records give the death of Sarah Dennis as 16(???) (date gone).

On April 14, 1689, Samuel Dennis married (2) Widow Crowe (later called Crowell). Her name was Mary and she was the widow of Edward Crowe of Woodbridge, by whom she had four children, namely, Mary, Yelverton, Joseph, and Edward (New Jersey Deeds). What Mary Crowe's first name was does not appear. But Samuel Dennis names her in his will of March 20, 1719, with children, Sarah, Reliance, Elizabeth, and Samuel, the latter of whom married his step-sister, Mary Crowell.

Now Samuel Moore of Woodbridge, in his will of November 13, 1683, calls Samuel Dennis his "brother-in-law." This admits of four possibilities as to the maiden name of Sarah, first wife of Samuel Dennis. It might have been Sarah Moore, a sister of Samuel Moore. It could not be that Samuel Moore, married a sister of Samuel Dennis, for all his wives, three in number, are known (1) Hannah Plummer of Newbury, Mass., whom he married May 3, 1653. She died December 8, 1654. (2) Mary Ilsley, daughter of William and Barbara Hsley, of Newbury, Mass. (3) Ann or Hannah Jacques, widow of Harry Jacques of Woodbridge, N. J., whose maiden name is unknown. It was unlikely to have been a Plummer, as none of that name came to Woodbridge, and Samuel Dennis married Sarah there about 1671, as their first child Samuel Jr., was born in 1671. That it was Sarah Ilsley, is easily eliminated for Sarah Ilsley, born August 8, 1655, daughter of William and Barbara, married July 25, 1673, Samuel Hale.

ISSUE OF SAMUEL DENNIS

By his (1) wife Sarah (???):

I. Samuel, born September 17, 1672; died leaving a will dated July 26, 1707; married December 3, 1695, Mary Crowell.
Will names son, Samuel, executor and Jonathan.
II. Robert, born May 17, 1676.
III. Sarah, born February 17, 1678.
IV. Jonathan, born February (???), 1683; died December 12, 1688.

By (2) wife Mary (???):

V. Reliance.
VI. Elizabeth.

Issue of Samuel Dennis, Jr. (Samuel I.) and wife, Mary Crowell:

I. Jonathan, born September 2, 1692.
II. Sarah, born September 27, 1698.
III. Mary, born December 21, 169(???); died March 18, 1702.
IV. Robert, born May 4, 1701; died January 17, 1702.
V. Mary, born January 9, 1703; died October 1, 1706.
VI. Samuel, born July 8, 1706.
(Vide, ante, PART FOUR, pp. 598-9.)

Coming now to the remaining children of Robert Dennis Sr. of Woodbridge, we have already mentioned the son, ROBERT DENNIS JR. of Portsmouth, R. I. He must have been born some years before 1650 and hight have been the oldest son. He was admitted freeman 1671; November 19, 1672, he married Sarah, daughter of Henry and Mary (Newland) Howland of Duxbury, Mass.; he was on a committee in 1676 at Portsmouth to choose keepers for the Indian prisoners; deputy to Legislature 1673-84. His will is dated May 11, 1691, and was proved July 2, 1691; he died June 5, 1691. His widow was born in 1645, which is another suggestion as to the birth date of Robert Dennis Jr., since he was probably as old or older than his wife. She died October 2, 1712; left a

(VII) Mary Alice Howard, daughter of Lieutenant-Governor Albert Crawford and Ellen (Murray) Howard, was born June 21, 1854. She married Arthur Whitman Claflin (see Claflin VII).

MOORE This is an early New England name and is found with various spellings in the pioneer records, such as Moors, Moores, Mooers and Mores, also sometimes as Moore. It was identified with the settlement and development of several New England towns, and has taken no inconspicuous part in the making of northern New York. Its revolutionary record is an honorable one, and its members have been no less worthy in civil life.

(I) Edmund Mooers, born about 1614, came from Southampton, England, to Boston, in 1638, and is found of record in Newbury, Massachusetts, as early as 1640, with his wife Anne. He died in Newbury, June 7, 1676. Children: Martha, born December 12, 1643; Jonathan, mentioned below; Mary, November 30, 1648; Edmund, died November 8, 1656; Richard, born November 3, 1653; Sarah, April 1, 1661.

(II) Jonathan Moore, eldest child of Edmund and Anne Mooers, was born April 23, 1646, in Newbury, Massachusetts, where he subscribed to the oath of allegiance in 1678. He was assessed jointly with his brother in 1688 for the following property: Two houses, fifty-two acres of land, two horses, one two-year-old, two oxen, three cows, four three-olds, one two-year-old; eight sheep, one hog. He was member of the military company, being promoted from corporal to cornet in 1689, and to lieutenant in 1690. Either he or his son bearing the same name was a soldier in 1707. He married, May 10, 1680 (this appears 1670 on Newbury records, but is evidently an error), Constance Langhorne. Children: Jonathan, mentioned below; Richard, born July 24, 1683; Samuel, February 20, 1686; Thomas, November 6, 1688; Dorothy, December 8, 1690.

(III) Jonathan (2) Moore, eldest child of Jonathan (1) and Constance (Langhorne) Moore, was born April 30, 1681, in Newbury, Massachusetts, and resided in that town, where he died April 8, 1745. The records of the town show that Jonathan and one of his brothers received twenty shillings as a bounty for killing a wolf in Bradford, "This last winter." voted March 13, 1722, by the town of Newbury. He married, January 17, 1714, Mary, daughter of Joseph and Mary (Wallingford) Poor, born August 12, 1692. Children: Joseph, mentioned below; Jonathan, born April 4, 1718; Edmund, August 24, 1722; Benjamin, January 20, 1725; John, October 15, 1726; Samuel, November 5, 1728; Amiruhama, November 17, 1730.

(IV) Joseph Moore, eldest child of Jonathan (2) and Mary (Poor) Moore, was born February 3, 1715, in Newbury, Massachusetts, and presumably resided in Massachusetts. He probably lived outside of Newbury, as record of his marriage does not appear in that town, and only two children are there recorded. His wife's name was Sarah, and the birth of their son Daniel is recorded in Newbury and the baptism of a daughter Mary, December 28, 1740, in Byfield church.

(V) Daniel Moore, son of Joseph and Sarah Moore, was born in January, 1734, in Newbury, Massachusetts. He resided in Haverhill, Massachusetts, where he married, January 4, 1753, Abigail Springer, born August 28, 1729, in Newbury, daughter of Henry and Joanna (Pike) Springer. The following children are recorded in Haverhill: Sarah, baptized September 9, 1753, died young Joshua, Vol. III, p. 253); (FOSDICK, supra, etc.); (Vapereau, DICT., p. 1119); Hug. Soc. Pub. of London, and J. B. Rietstap, Armorial G,n,ral).

Also, "were fragrant memories of Priscilla Mullens, the typical "Puritan" maiden, who was born in France!" (Story Of The Walloons, by W. E. Griffis, 1923, p. 275.)

Huguenot Societies are entirely within their rights, and safe, in allowing eligibility of descent from William Mullins.--O. E. M.

It is true that Nellie Z. R. Molyneux attempted to give the ancestry of William Mullens, (sic.), of the Mayflower, (Hist. Gen. & Biog. of the Molyneux Fams., pp. 60, 55, et al.), but this is open to challenge, in the absence of record presented. However, there is given a pedigree of "Guillim de Moulins," (Lord Molyneux?) which in itself proves the Huguenot origin, for "Guillaume," Fr. is none other than "William," Eng.

MONNET COAT-OF-ARMS

See HERALDIC LION, (supra).

THOMAS MONEY (MONNET)

He became an inhabitant of Boston in 1705.

He had been identified in a record with PIERRE MONNET (MONET), as from NIORT, France, 1681, (vide, ante, PART THREE, p. 314), and it is not strange that he should have followed along, with FRANCIS BRIDON, a French Huguenot, who became a prominent settler of Staten Island, with PIERRE MONNET, Sr., who appeared there, 1681.

In 1705, by the Selectman's Records of Boston, there were seven admissions to the Colony of Mass.; Elizabeth Brigdon (Bridon), THO: MONEY (MONET), et al. (BOSTON, pp. 533-4.)

Undoubtedly the French Church was the center of Huguenot citizenship, in its attraction to the new settlers. (Vide, ante, this PART, p. 493.)

Brigdon was interchanged with Breeding and Breading in these same records, and FRANCIS BRIDON had a son Samuel Bridon, Boston, 1711, (REC. COM. REP., Vol. 8, p. 87).

MATTHEW MOORES

(Vide, ante, this PART, Dedication, pp. 498 et seq.)

Brother of the Hon. SAMUEL MOORE of W., himself a First Settler, not as prominent as his brother, but providing many descendants and honorable influences.

He received his patent, 10 June, 1671, and lived at W. continuously there; d. Mar. 20, 1691.

At Newbury, Mass., he had m. 27 May, 1662, Sara(h) Savory, dau. of William Savory, who came with his bro., Thomas, in the "Mary and John." from London, March 24, 1633-4, the latter of whom settled at Ipswich. Sara S. had a bro., Robert Savory, who was at Newbury, where he m. Dec. 8, 1656, Mary Mitchell, and had a dau., Sarah, and a son, William.

SARAH MOORES, widow of MATTHEW M. lived after her husband's death, at W. many years. His will, dated "1689, May 6. Mathew Mores, ISLAND, since known by his own name." (Idem, supra). The first Manning in PISCATAWAY was JEFFRY MANNING, 1683?? (See MANNING FAMILY, post, pp. indic.) and this brood multiplied rapidly there. Likewise, many of the BLACKWELL name followed in succeeding years as PISCATAWAY and Hunterdon county residents.

The marriage record (supra) is to be found in New York Marriages Previous to 1784, by Gideon J. Tucker (1860), p. 31, as "1676, April 26, BLACKWELL, ROBERT and MARY MANNINGHAM, (warrants, Orders, Passes) III, 192" with reverse entry on page 254, and as if to insure the unusual name of MANNINGHAM there is an entry concerning GEORGE MANNINGHAM in the same list.

BLACKWELL'S ISLAND

originally
HOG ISLAND, N. Y.

This is the famous penal institution of New York and is an island located in the East River, originally a part of Queen's County, of the West Riding of Yorkshire, Long Island. It takes its present name from Robert Blackwell, and the story is best told in the ANNALS OF NEWTOWN, by RIKER, (p. 54).

BLOOMFIELD FAMILY

Thomas Bloomfield, Senior, his sons, John Bloomfield, Thomas Bloomfield, Junior, Nathaniel Bloomfield, Ezekiel Bloomfield, Timothy Bloomfield, and his daughters, who married Woodbridge men, all became First Settlers of Woodbridge.

From Coffin (supra), other authorities, and the vital records of Newbury, Massachusetts, there is established the family of Thomas Blomfield, junior, (in previous notices) but soon to become senior in the annals of Woodbridge. The name of his wife was Mary, as indicated in the death record of three of his children, but her maiden name is unknown.

Children:

i. Mary, b. 15 Jan., 1642, m. Jonathan Dunham, alias Jonathan Singleterry, before going to N. J., a Woodbridge family.

ii. Sarah, b. 30 Dec., 1643, m. Dec. 18, 1668, John Dennis, likewise a Woodbridge family.

iii. John, b. 15, Mar., 1646, m. Oct. 3, 1676, Sarah Moore, daughter of Samuel Moore?? First Settler of Woodbridge. She died April 13, 1681, and he m. (2) May 27, 1684, Elsi?? or Alice Heard. From his first wife he had one son and one daughter, Thomas Bloomfield, born Oct. 3, 1679, and Sarah Bloomfield, born Mar. 28, 1681, who m. Richard Wright of Woodbridge about 1702, and is named in her father's will as "Sarah Right.?? By his second wife, John Bloomfield had Ruth, born Mar. 28, 1686, Phebe, born Nov. 15, 1688, who married (???) Davis and i??

mentioned in her father's will as "Phebe Davis," a daughter (name and date obliterated, and a son, John Bloomfield, born "of Alice," May 1693, and others.

iv. Thomas, b. 12 Dec., 1648, m. May 10, 1676, Elizabeth Dennis. She died soon after, was dead when he made his will in 1678/9, and from that document it would appear that they had no children. He died at Woodbridge, March 27, 1679, called "son of nor."[1] Another instance, due to the fickleness of human nature, was when a license was issued to Samuel Moore, of the town of Woodbridge, and Mary Higgins, widow of Richard Higgins, of New Piscataway, September 6, 1678, a marginal entry informing us: "This is null one of the persons recanting the agreement."[2] The record is silent as to whether it was the anxious bridegroom or the coy widow who "recanted" even after the license had been obtained.[3]

A MARRIAGE LICENSE IN 1695.

The following is the oldest New Jersey marriage license known to be in existence:[4]

[1] E. J. Deeds, Liber No. 3, f. 92. It is possible that this license had been issued by James Carteret, President of the Province by appointment of the General Assembly, and who had usurped the powers of Gov. Philip Carteret during the latter's absence. James Carteret sailed for Carolina the latter part of June or the first part of July. If the license had been issued by him, that of itself would be sufficient reason for its revocation by John Berry, who had been commissioned Deputy Governor by Gov. Carteret when leaving for England a year before, with Secretary James Bollen. It is quite probable, however, that the license had been signed in blank by Gov. Carteret, and issued on the day it bears date by the acting Secretary of the Province, and that it was annulled for good cause coming to the knowledge of the Deputy Governor.

From notes of Dlora Hall Dalton.
1669 mentioned as coming from New England as one of first settlers of Woodbridge, Middlesex, New Jersey...patent from Philip Carteret, 18 Mar 1669/70 conveying to "Daniel Robens of the towne of Woodbridge, yeoman,certain parcells of upland and meadow in and about said towne ofWoodbridge...etc" containing 173 acres. 1680 superintended the construction of a causway,was elected constable, was the tax collector in 1688, appointed marshal orsergeant of the court in 1692. Although he was of Puritan stock, on his removalto Crosswicks, Monmouth Co., N.J., in 1695 he became identified with theSoc. of Friends. It is suggested that his wife died in or before 1695, since sheis not mentioned after he moved.
There is some confusion as to who Daniel married. Isaac Gilbert Robbins (Robbins Genealogical Collection, FHL US/CAN film 1036069, pt 10) says"Daniel, born 1640 and Hope (Simmons) married at Sandwich [Barnstable Co], orWareham [Plymouth Co.], Mass, 1659..." Other genealogists agree that she wasHope Potter of New Haven. Dlora Hall Dalton could not find the marriage inthe records of New Haven, but she located the marriage of Daniel Robinson andHope Potter (Vital Records of New Haven, 1649-1850, FHL US/CAN 974.67/N1 Viop. 20)
This evidence plus the recorded birth of two children with the rightnames and ages in New Haven suggest to her that Daniel Robinson and Daniel Robins(also spelled Robbins) are the same individual. Daniel's will was written 13 Jun 1714 and probated on 18 Aug 1714(Genealogy Collection of Charles R. Hutchinson FHL US/CAN film 0946273, book A-D)names Daniel, Moses, Richard, Aaron, Benjamin, Mary, Lydia, and Hope as livingand Nathaniel, being survived by his daughters Sarah and Marabe Robins.Lydia is named as the wife of William Thorp of Woodbridge, NJ. Hutchinson feels that Daniel is the son of Richard Robins who emigrated to Charlestown, Massachusetts, as early as 1639. Richard was the second sonof John and Hester Robins of Theddingworth, England. (no solid proof).Frank J. Robbins (FHL US/CAN film 1036069 pt 9) agrees that John and Hester are ancestors but that Daniel descends from the oldest son, John whoemigrated to Wethersfield, Connecticut as early as 1638. Isaac Gilbert Robbinsdoesn't think that Daniel comes from this line at all, instead belongs to JohnRobins of Oyster Bay, Long Island. Dlora Hall Dalton, thinks that all are wrong. She can find no Daniel Robins in any records showing English descent, but shecan find only a single reference to a Daniel Robinson coming to America from Scotland. According to the passenger list, Daniel Robinson came toBoston on the ship "John and Sarah" as a prisoner to be sold by order of theEnglish Government (New Eng. Historical and Genealogical Register, FHL US/CANB2ne Vol. 1 p. 379). She notes: "In the aftermath of the Civil War in England,Cromwell sent to the Colonies between three and four hundred Scottish prisoners ofwar, captured in the battles of Dunbar and Wrocester, to be sold as slaves(see 'New World Immigrants' FHL US/CAN 973 W3tn pp 135-160). In 'Boston, aChronological and Documentary History' is written: '1652 Spring. Boston's firstnon-English element of population arrives, 272 Scots banished by Oliver Cromwell'(FHL US/CAN 974.461 H291, p 8). Daniel was one of these men. Apparently hefought in the Battle of Dunbar on the side of the Scots against Cromwell'sEnglishmen and lost." These men were sold for 6 to 8 year indentures, after whichthey were free according to a letter from Rev. John Cotton of Mass. to

LordGeneral
Cromwell (FHL US/CAN 973 W3s p 157). Dlora Hall Dalton could find no information regarding Daniel's indenture nor any indication where hemight have come from to join the army, but she firmly believes that he was a Scot.
Sara Robbins Hoffman in "The Exile of Daniel Robins to America in 1652" privately printed in 1992 (LDS Family History Library) says that DanielRobins
was born near Blair Atholl, Scotland, to Richard and Mary [Robertson],members of the Clan Donnachaidh. He was recruited into the Scots army supporting Charles II against Cromwell's Commonwealth army. It is not clear justwhen this happened; it may have been in time for the Battle of Dunbar in1650.
"On 3 September 1651, the anniversary day of the Battle of Dunbar,Cromwell's
army met and defeated the Royalist Army at Worcester. It was here thatDaniel
Robinson/Robins was taken prisoner of war, marched to London, andconfined to Tothill Field near Parliament House to await his fate." He was selectedto be transported to New England aboard the JOHN and SARAH. After a difficultwinter passage, they arrived in Boston in February of 1652. Daniel's indenturewas bought by Nathaniel Foote of Connecticut. It was in this place that hemarried
Hope Potter whose sister, Sarah, was married to Robert Foote, brother of Nathaniel Foote, Jr.

COMMENT: On 3 Sep 1651 he took part in the Battle of Worcester as part of the King's Scottish Troops. The King's forces under David Leslie had invaded England and advanced through the countryside with little opposition until their support lines had stretched nearly to the breaking point. When they reached Worcester they found Cromwell's forces in ambush. After a sharp fight, the King's forces were defeated. Many Scots were captured, otheres escaped to make their way back to Scotland, and the young King, himself, escaped and made his way to the coast whence he fled to the continent. Daniel Robertson was among those captured, marched to London, and kept at Tothill Field near the houses of Parliament. Many Prisoners, including Daniel, were transported aboard the JOHN & SARAH of London (John Green, Master), arriving in Boston in Feb 1652. Many indentures of these prisoners were purchased for work at the Saugus iron works. Daniel's indenture, however, was purchased by Nathaniel Foote who lived near New Haven.

CLAN: Daniel was born to the Robertsons of Scotland. The Robertsons in Gaelic are know as Clan Donnachaidh (pronounced Donna-Key) (children of Duncan) Descendants of the Hereditary Abbots of Dunkeld. The highland clans were a pastoral warrior race that based their prestige on cattle. From EXILE OF DANIEL ROBINS.

!AKA: Was known at various times as Daniel Robertson(at birth), as Robinson (in CT) and Robins (in NJ) Since Robin is a frequent familiar name for Robert, Robert and Robins can be considered the same name. Thus it may be seen that the transfromation in his surname is fairly straightforward, especially since it is probable that Daniel himself, could neither read nor write and may well have spoken a broad Scots dialect that was difficult for English ears to fathom. Daniel was listed as Daniel Robinson in the list of prisoners aboard the John & Sarah. He also was known in New Jersey and poss. in Connecticut, as "the Scot or "Scothch Robins". came to America as an indentured servant
Daniel Robins was the first settler of that name in N.J. Most Robins/Robbins descend from him. Among the settlers from New England who settled in the Twsp. of Woodbridge in 1669-70 was Daniel Robins, who was first mentioned in a patent from Philip Cartaret, dated March 18, 1669-70, conveying to "Daniel Robins of the Towne of Woodbridge, yeoman certain parcells of upland and meadow in and about said Towne of Woodbridge", etc. containing 175 acres.
He lived there for 25 years and during that time owned several other tracts of land. In 1692 he was the marshal or sergeant of the township. In 1692 he bought from John Reed a tract of land in Monmouth County containing 500 acres. He moved there the following year, disposing of his corporation rights , etc. in Woodbridge to Adam Hude, of Staten Island, and of his lands there to his son Daniel.
Daniel came from Puritan stock, but after moving to Monmouth County, where all his friends and neighbors were Quakers, he became identified with that society, as were many of his descendants thereafter. He died in August, 1714. Sons mentioned in his will were Daniel, Moses, Richard, Aaron and Benjamin. His daughters mentioned were Mary, Hope and Lydia, wife of *William Sharp, of Woodbridge. *(That is interesting)
Daniel and Hope Potter/Robbins had 10 children in all, 8 survived him. Their names were Josrph, Nathaniel, Daniel, Richard, Moses, Aaron, Benjamin, Mary, Hope and Lydia

From notes of Dlora Hall Dalton.
1669 mentioned as coming from New England as one of first settlers of Woodbridge, Middlesex, New Jersey...patent from Philip Carteret, 18 Mar 1669/70 conveying to "Daniel Robens of the towne of Woodbridge, yeoman, certain parcells of upland and meadow in and about said towne of Woodbridge...etc" containing 173 acres. 1680 superintended the construction of a causway, was elected constable, was the tax collector in 1688, appointed marshal or sergeant of the court in 1692. Although he was of Puritan stock, on his removal to Crosswicks, Monmouth Co., N.J., in 1695 he became identified with the Soc. of Friends. It is suggested that his wife died in or before 1695, since she is not mentioned after he moved.
There is some confusion as to who Daniel married. Isaac Gilbert Robbins (Robbins Genealogical Collection, FHL US/CAN film 1036069, pt 10) says "Daniel, born 1640 and Hope (Simmons) married at Sandwich [Barnstable Co], or Wareham [Plymouth Co.], Mass, 1659..." Other genealogists agree that she was Hope Potter of New Haven. Dlora Hall Dalton could not find the marriage in the records of New Haven, but she located the marriage of Daniel Robinson and Hope Potter (Vital Records of New Haven, 1649-1850, FHL US/CAN 974.67/N1 Vio p. 20) This evidence plus the recorded birth of two children with the right names and ages in New Haven suggest to her that Daniel Robinson and Daniel Robins (also spelled Robbins) are the same individual.
Daniel's will was written 13 Jun 1714 and probated on 18 Aug 1714 (Genealogy Collection of Charles R. Hutchinson FHL US/CAN film 0946273, book A-D) names Daniel, Moses, Richard, Aaron, Benjamin, Mary, Lydia, and Hope as living and Nathaniel, being survived by his daughters Sarah and Marabe Robins. Lydia is named as the wife of William Thorp of Woodbridge, NJ.
Hutchinson feels that Daniel is the son of Richard Robins who emigrated to Charlestown, Massachusetts, as early as 1639. Richard was the second son of John and Hester Robins of Theddingworth, England. (no solid proof). Frank J. Robbins (FHL US/CAN film 1036069 pt 9) agrees that John and Hester are ancestors but that Daniel descends from the oldest son, John who emigrated to Wethersfield, Connecticut as early as 1638. Isaac Gilbert Robbins doesn't think that Daniel comes from this line at all, instead belongs to John Robins of Oyster Bay, Long Island.

Dlora Hall Dalton, thinks that all are wrong. She can find no Daniel Robins in any records showing English descent, but she can find only a single reference to a Daniel Robinson coming to America from Scotland. According to the passenger list, Daniel Robinson came to Boston on the ship "John and Sarah" as a prisoner to be sold by order of the English Government (New Eng. Historical and Genealogical Register, FHL US/CAN B2ne Vol. 1 p. 379). She notes: "In the aftermath of the Civil War in England, Cromwell sent to the Colonies between three and four hundred Scottish prisoners of war, captured in the battles of Dunbar and Wrocester, to be sold as slaves (see 'New World Immigrants' FHL US/CAN 973 W3tn pp 135-160). In 'Boston, a Chronological and Documentary History' is written: '1652 Spring. Boston's first non-English element of population arrives, 272 Scots banished by Oliver Cromwell' (FHL US/CAN 974.461 H291, p 8). Daniel was one of these men. Apparently he fought in the Battle of Dunbar on the side of the Scots against Cromwell's Englishmen and lost." These men were sold for 6 to 8 year indentures, after which they were free according to a letter from Rev. John Cotton of Mass. to Lord General Cromwell (FHL US/CAN 973 W3s p 157). Dlora Hall Dalton could find no information regarding Daniel's indenture nor any indication where he might have come from to join the army, but she firmly believes that he was a Scot.

Sara Robbins Hoffman in "The Exile of Daniel Robins to America in 1652" privately printed in 1992 (LDS Family History Library) says that Daniel Robins was born near Blair Atholl, Scotland, to Richard and Mary [Robertson], members of the Clan Donnachaidh. He was recruited into the Scots army supporting Charles II against Cromwell's Commonwealth army. It is not clear just when this happened; it may have been in time for the Battle of Dunbar in 1650.

will dated September 26, 1712, and proved October 3, 1712. The article heretofore referred to gives the names of four of his children, but in all probability omits two sons, Charles and Samuel, who likewise settled in New Jersey. Also the statement is made that he was a brother-in-law of Jedediah Allen, who served on the bench in New Jersey with his brother, Samuel Dennis, and, on account of the item before mentioned appearing in the will of Thomas Eaton of Shrewsbury giving a legacy to friend, John Dennis, son of Robert Dennis, of Portsmouth, it seems reasonable to assume that Robert Dennis Sr. of Woodbridge had left there and returned to live with his son, Robert at Portsmouth, where he must have died.

Another son of ROBERT DENNIS SR. was JONATHAN, who came with his father to Wood-bridge, where he lived until 1694, when, with his family and brother Joseph, he removed to Cohancey, Salem County, N. J., where he died in 1790 (?M.K.T.) or 1720. He married in Woodbridge, March 14, 1677-8, Rachel, daughter of Samuel Moore, who survived him. Children: I., Elizabeth, born January 8, 1678-9. II., Mary, born April 7, 1682; married Moses Shepard. III. Rachel, born October 3, 1683. IV. Jonathan, born January 29, 1685; died 1718 or 1719; married Sarah Clowes. V., Joseph, born February 18, 1687; removed to Bucks County, Pa., and then returned to Sussex County, N. J., where he died in 1770. VI., Charles, twin with Sarah, born January 4, 1689; married Priscilla. VII., Sarah, twin with Charles, born January 4, 1689. VIII., Hannah, born January 26, 1691-2; IX., Samuel. X., Naomi; married John Tyler. XI., Philip, died February 15, 1768; married Lucy Bacon. The last three children are not entered in the Woodbridge town records and the only authority for them is Lee's book, above referred to.

Jonathan Dennis, above, while in Woodbridge, was prominent, occupying several civil offices. He died as one of the honored and respected citizens of Cohansey.

First Settlers of Piscataway and Woodbridge. Continued from No. 4855.

It would be very strange, indeed, if a member of the SMITH FAMILY did not figure among these first settlers, and we shall have three separate families to consider before this work is completed. The eighth, last, and in many particulars, most prominent of the eight grantees and associates of Piscataway was JOHN SMITH, who settled in Woodbridge.

DENNIS FAMILY. Referring to No. 4836 in issue of September 5, 1914, by "Gerer."

Since the completion of the article on the DENNIS family in the "First Settlers of Piscata-way and Woodbridge," some additional records have come to light;

(Various DENNIS ref. in all PARTS, this SERIES.)--O.E.M.

Dennis Family.--Additional item. It appears that Eunice Dennis, born December 29, 1694, who was the daughter of John Dennis and Rachel Hull, his wife, became the wife of Robert Combs, who died leaving a will of record. This may prove of interest to the searchers of the Combs ancestry.

GERER.

November 14, 1914. No. 4889. (O.C.F.P.). Continued from No. 4875.

Eight of the families have now been presented, including the four original grantees (1666) of Piscataway and their associates (1668), viz.: JOHN MARTIN, CHARLES GILMAN, HUGH DUN, HOPEWELL HULL, ROBERT DENNIS, JOHN SMITH, JOHN GILMAN and BENJAMIN HULL.

(These original compilations have been amplified and clarified in various pointed statements and references in various PARTS of this SERIES.--O.E.M.)

The nine associates of Woodbridge were JOHN BISHOP, ROBERT DENNIS, HENRY JACQUES, STEPHEN KENT, HUGH MARCH, JOHN PIKE, DANIEL PIERCE, JOSHUA PIERCE and JOHN SMITH, of whom ROBERT DENNIS and JOHN SMITH were likewise of the Piscataway associates and have already received treatment. Therefore, the others will be presented in order.

I. JOHN BISHOP of Woodbridge. The Woodbridge town book has the following to say of him: "John Bishop was one of the original associates. He was from Newbury, Mass., where, by his wife Rebecca, daughter of Richard Kent, he had son Noah, born June 20, 1658." The children of Noah are given in this register.

"Marriages--Mary Bishop to Charles Gilman of Piscataway, January 9, 1684."

"Births--Bishop, Sarah (Noah and Lydia) February 10, 1684; Jonathan (Noah and Lydia), January 9, 1686; Ruth (Noah and Lydia), February 9, 1690; Mary (Noah and Lydia), April, 1693; Noah (Noah and Lydia), March 8, 1694-5; Ann (Noah and Lydia), March 8, 1697."

And, strange as it may appear, no further vital records of this family are evident in the town book.

John Bishop was a carpenter, which was a common vocation of the early settlers of Woodbridge, but he was also a substantial man of affairs in the early history of the town. However, it appears that in Newbury, he was a miller. He had settled there in 1637 and he sold his mill in 1644 and removed to Woodbridge, possibly in 1666-7.

Dally, in his "History of Woodbridge," is somewhat contemptuous of military titles and makes the following comment concerning the Bishops: "They had a monopoly of the cheap distinction at one time, Young John Bishop glorifying for a long time in the captaincy, old John in lieutenancy and Jonathan being ensign. No use being made of these officers, of course, we cannot say just how valiant they were. In civil life the Bishops were exceedingly useful and did good service in their day and generation."

It is true that in 1675 John Bishop Sr. was appointed a lieutenant in the local military company; his oldest son was captain, for several years, of the same company, and is frequently referred

"1723 June ??3. CLERKSON, JAMES, of Woodbridge, Middlesex Co. yeoman; will of. Children--James, John, Robert and Agnes. Executors--the three sons with Adam Hudde, Robert G??christ, Moses Rolph and Edward Crowell as assistants. Witnesses--Ad. Hude, David Tappen, Cornelia Ellison, Marion Hudde. Proved January 5, 1729-30." (ARCH., Vol. XXIII, pp. 97 and 98.)

It was left to the sons, above, to carry on.

When Joseph Fitz Randolph of Piscataway, ??oman, died in 1726-7, he left a will dated March 1, 1719-20, in which he listed his wife, Joannah, and his children, among others, Bethia, wife of John Clarkson. (Idem, Vol. XXIII, p. 166.)

JAMES CLARKSON OF WOODBRIDGE

He was a F.S., Quit??renter, 1696-7, Middlesex Co., 47 acres, (vide, ante, PART ONE, p. 59).

He d. at W. Dec. 10, 1729, age 67, i. e. b. in 1662, (vide, ante, PART TWO, p. 372), and wife, Christian, d. Nov. 2, 1715, age 54, i. e. b. in 166??, (idem.). Two sons are buried at W., JOHN CLARKSON, d. 1757, aged 67, i. e. b. 1690 and wife, Bertha, d. Sept. 2, 1757, age 62. i. e. b. 1695 and ROBERT CLARKSON, d. 17??, age 19, i. e. b. 1694, PISC., (idem, p. 369).

JAMES CLARKSON and THOMAS CLARKSON figure in Town Recs, 1690, (vide, ante PART FOUR, p. ??). The former had a son. JAMES CLARKSON, JR., b. Mar. 1, 1687, showing ??her, Christlan??, (vide, ante, PART TWO, p. 253 and 265).

JOHN CLAWSON OF PISCATAWAY

(Vide, ante, PART THREE, p. 412.) (Do. PART FOUR, p. 594). Among the orig, quit-renters?? of East New Jersey, (1670-1684), as affixed, (vide, ante, PART ONE, p. 53), the entry "John Pawson" has always bothered, a quit-renter for 96 acres. The name is without definite lag and an unnatural surname. The writer has concluded an error?? for CLAWSON, and it corres??ponds with the JEAN CLAWSON, very clearly in E.N.J., as in 1671, et al., (ARCH., Vol. XXI, p. 17).

As tho' to deny him existence, the family hist, makes him the son (?) of his brother, WILLIAM CLAWSON, but that irrefutable gen. O.B.L., still made him, senior, in 1702 (vide, ante, PART ONE, p. 79).

HALLECK CODRIACK

F.S. of WOODBRIDGE, 1675 and before, and was then a "kinsman of JOHN SMITH" (vide, ante, PART FOUR, p. 531). He had kinship with THOMAS LEONARD of WOODBRIDGE, (vide, post, this PART, p. indic.) whose will, May 19, 168??, named wife, Ketherin, and "heir and my kinsman, H??lick Codrlack, heirs and executors of real and personal estate," (ARCH., Vol. XXIII, p. 291), ??y 1712, there was a PETER CODRIACK in W. old enough to have comveyed land, "a freehold right." (ARCH., Vol. XXIII, p. 15??).

CLEMENT FAMILY

This was celebra??ed in both East and West Jersey ??ist, by colonial representatives. First, the line of ROBERT CLEMENT, Senior, of Haverbill, Mass. While the latter was not a F.S., his son, ROBERT, called likewise "Senior," was there temporarily and owned land at W. 1679, whence his son. DANIEL, succeeded to the lands in "Woodbridge and Piscataqua Township," while another son, JONATHAN, was a settler of E. in the neighborhood of the former, and had two sons, and both should be denominated First Settlers.

(ARCH., Vol. XXI, p. 182.)

MOSES COLLIER OF WOODBRIDGE

(Vide, ante, PART FOUR, pp. 531-2.)

This was the patriarch from Hingham, Mass., who came, in 1683, with some of his chil., to become a F. S., of W., with his wife, Elizabeth. In HINGHAM, (Vol. II, Gen., pp. 135-6), is presented gen. First THOMAS COLLIER, early planter, had 5 acres, in first dist. of land, 1635. Wife, Susanna. He d. there, 6 Apr., 1647, and she d. 10 Dec., 1667--and they had two known children. THOMAS, b. in Eng., 1622, our MOSES COLLIER, (supra), and poss., JOHN. (SAVAGE, Vol. I, p. 433.)

MOSES COLLIER, b. in Eng., ca. 1625, m. (1), Nov. 26, 1665, Elizabeth Jones. She d. 10 Apr., 1657. He m. (2), 1657, Elizabeth Bullard. Lived at H., and sold out prior to 1683, having eleven children, all except, the first, Benoni, by second wife, Elizabeth. Among them were MOSES, b. Nov. 8, 1658 and Thomas, b. ca. June 5, 1664.

At least these two went to W., together with sev. daus. ment., infra. MOSES COLLIER, JR., soon rem. elsewhere.

It is certain that the old gentleman, was in W., owning land, 1684, (ARCH., Vol. XXI, p. 72), when he wit. will of JOHN BISHOP. In 1690, his wife, Elizabeth, was a widow, and his son, THOMAS COLLIER, ment., (idem, p. 204), conveying land, etc. The latter had a wife, Hannah, 1700, (idem, pp. 311 and 322).

MOSES COLLIER d. there 17 March, 1684, "in ye 59th year of his age," (vide, ante, PART TWO, p. 365), i. e., b. 1625.

FOUR SISTERS COLLIER

Who came to W., 1683, with their father, MOSES COLLIER, F.S., from Hingham, Mass., where they were born, and some of their births recorded, (HINGHAM, Vol. II, p. 136). From W. Vit. Recs., (vide, ante, PART TWO, p. 248).

1. Mary Collier, b. Feb. 10, 1660-1, m. ca. 1676, Capt. John Bishop, Jr., of W., named in his will of 1720.
2. Deborah Collier, b. June 20, 1666, m. Dec. 8, 1687, Thomas Smith, of Piscataway, (vide, ante, PART TWO, p. 288), (idem, p. 226).
3. Jemima Collier, b. March 16, 1667-8, m. Mar. 1, 1693, Richard Gibson, of W.
4. Susannah Collier, b. ca. 1670, m. Nov. 17, 1697, John Robinson of Pisc.

MOSES COLLIER, the father, was a witness to the will of the first Captain JOHN BISHOP of WOODBRIDGE, Sept. 19, 1684, with other W. persons, and JOHN BISHOP, JR. had m. his daughter, MARY COLLIER, and perpetuated the name in the latter's son, MOSES BISHOP; will, 1720. (ARCH., Vol. XXIII, pp. 39-40). (Vide, ante, this PART, p. 747.)

THOMAS COLLIER OF WOODBRIDGE

A F.S., and son of the first MOSES COLLIER, of W., of whom, (supra). He was b. in Hingham, Mass., and came to W. ca. 1683, with the fam.

He first appeared in a deed, 1690, (ARCH., Vol. XXI, p. 204), with his mother, Elizabeth Collier, a widow. 1700, he was of W., had a wife, Hannah, and conveyed to his bro.-in-law, JOHN ROBINSON, (idem, p. 311 and p. 322). Creditor of OBADIAH AYERS; 1695, (idem, Vol. XXIII, p. 19).

He m. Mar. 1, 1693, Hannah Dennis, (dau. of John and Sarah Dennis, of W.), b. ca. 1672, who d. after 1710.

He was constable of W., 1696; marshall, 1687, and he and his wife members of the church, 1709-10, (vide, DALLY).

BISHOP

Search Book

Whoever his wife was, she apparently was the mother of all his children, although none is recorded in the Woodbridge town records. She was living in 1693, for she was a witness to the will of Joseph Frazee, and the other witness was Frances Moore, heretofore referred to. The names of their children appear in the will of Captain John Bishop, dated June 20, 1720, and proved April 3, 1722, he evidently having died shortly before the latter date. The will names a son John, as also appears in the will of his grandfather, John Bishop Sr., a son, Moses, which offers a suggestion as to the relationship with the Collier family, of which Moses Collier was the head; a daughter, Ann Coburn; son-in-law, Moses Goodden, who had evidently married another daughter, then deceased; grandchildren, David Goodden and Thomas Bishop, and a brother, Noah Bishop. The witnesses to the will were John Alston, Samuel Bonnell and Samuel Stone. The latter is important, on account of the relationship to his brother, Jonathan Bishop.

It is clear that Captain John Bishop had another daughter, Rebecca, and also there is strong indication that he had a son Nathaniel, who is not mentioned in his will, because he was not alive at that date. This was Nathaniel Bishop of Cohansey, who left a will dated May 9, 1720, and proved May 28, 1723, in which he names a wife Sarah, and children, Daniel Moses, Nathaniel, Samuel, John and three daughters, whose names are not given. The inventory states that he died April 24, 1723.

JONATHAN BISHOP, son of JOHN BISHOP SR. and Rebecca (Kent) Bishop, was born January 11, 1656. As soon as he reached his majority he became a landowner in Woodbridge, and like his father and brother, quite an active citizen. His name very frequently appears as a witness to wills and in the administration of estates. In 1682 Jonathan Bishop was admitted freeholder of Woodbridge in consideration of his building a sawmill on the Rahway River. He was sheriff of Woodbridge in 1694. In 1682-97 he served as ensign of the local militia company. He had his share of the local civil offices occupied by his father and brother. In 1695 he was appointed guardian of his niece, Marie Bishop, daughter of his brother, David Bishop, then deceased. It is difficult to determine whom he married, for he died in 1724, leaving a will dated March 17, 1723-24, proved August 10, 1724, in which a wife, Catherine, is mentioned; a son, John, and a sister, Mary Stone. As John Bishop Sr. had no daughter Mary Bishop recorded, it is reasonable to assume that Jonathan Bishop's wife was Catherine Stone.

NOAH BISHOP, son of JOHN BISHOP SR. and wife, Rebecca Kent, was born January 10, 1658, and while not as prominent a man as either his father or brother in Woodbridge history, yet he received some special appointments for civil offices of minor consequence. His name occasionally appears in the town records and there is a positive record as to his being admitted to the Church of Christ in 1707-8, and his wife Lydia is mentioned as a member under date of June 6, 1708. He was overseer of highways in 1698. He is mentioned in the will of his brother, Captain John Bishop, 1722, so that he must have been living at that date, and in the will of Matthew Moore of Woodbridge he was made overseer, together with his brother, Captain John Bishop. The date of his death is not known and his will or administration of estate has not been found. He apparently was living in 1722. He is the only one to have his children recorded in the Woodbridge Town Records. His wife was named Lydia and he had the following children: Sarah, born February 10, 1684; Jonathan, born January 9, 1686; Ruth, born February 9, 1690; Mary, born April, 1693; Noah, born March 8, 1694-5; May, born March 8, 1697.

The fourth and youngest son of JOHN BISHOP SR. and wife Rebecca Kent, to appear in the Woodbridge records is the son DAVID BISHOP, who was born August 26, 1660. His career was short and uneventful, as he died when comparatively a young man. He married Marie Alger, daughter of Thomas and Susanna Alger, of Woodbridge. It has been stated by one authority that she was the daughter of William Alger, but that does not seem to be correct. He had only one child by her, a daughter, Marie Bishop, who selected in 1695 her uncle, Jonathan Bishop, to be her guardian. This same daughter, Marie Bishop, is mentioned in the will of Charles Gilman in 1691-2, which family was treated of in a former article. David Bishop must have died in 1683-4, as his widow, Marie Bishop, married January 9, 1684, for her second husband, Charles Gilman of Piscataway and when he died she married, May 20, 1692, Benjamin Jones of Piscataway. Her ultimate end has been undetermined.

GERER.

December 5, 1914. No. 4904. (O.C.F.P.).
BISHOP family, continued from No. 4900, in issue of November 28, 1914.

One interesting item appears in the following taken from the New Jersey Archives, First Series, Vol. X, page 380:

"From the east end of Long Island we bear that the sloop of Noah Bishop of Woodbridge was lost there, together with the cargo, and that the lives of all those on board were saved with difficulty"--September 17, 1739.

Also in a list of the militia regiment under the command of Colonel Thomas Farmer, in the year 1715, for New Jersey, and composed of Woodbridge men, the names of John Bishop, Moses Bishop, James Bishop and Noah Bishop all appear.

Further, a reference was made in the foregoing article to the relationship of Captain John Bishop to "a kinsman, John Alston."

A little further search throws additional light upon the latter. The correct name appears as Alston (Elston) in the records. The first was John Elston of Salem, who suffered shipwreck in Boston Bay, July 26, 1631, with two of Mr. Craddock's fishermen. He removed to Wells and took the oath of allegiance to the Massachussets Government, July 5, 1653; he made his will March 11, 1683-4, which was probated at Salem, Mass., November 24, 1685. In it he names his wife Joanna and their children John, Samuel, Ephraim, Dinah, Margaret, Hannah and Benjamin. It is quite probable that it was the son John who appeared at Woodbridge as the kinsman of Captain John Bishop, and it is quite possible that their mothers were sisters, and unquestionably there was some blood relationship between the two families.

will dated September 26, 1712, and proved October 3, 1712. The article heretofore referred to gives the names of four of his children, but in all probability omits two sons, Charles and Samuel, who likewise settled in New Jersey. Also the statement is made that he was a brother-in-law of Jedediah Allen, who served on the bench in New Jersey with his brother, Samuel Dennis, and, on account of the item before mentioned appearing in the will of Thomas Eaton of Shrewsbury giving a legacy to friend, John Dennis, son of Robert Dennis, of Portsmouth, it seems reasonable to assume that Robert Dennis Sr. of Woodbridge had left there and returned to live with his son, Robert at Portsmouth, where he must have died.

Another son of ROBERT DENNIS SR. was JONATHAN, who came with his father to Wood-bridge, where he lived until 1694, when, with his family and brother Joseph, he removed to Cohancey, Salem County, N. J., where he died in 1790 (?M.K.T.) or 1720. He married in Woodbridge, March 14, 1677-8, Rachel, daughter of Samuel Moore, who survived him. Children: I., Elizabeth, born January 8, 1678-9. II., Mary, born April 7, 1682; married Moses Shepard. III. Rachel, born October 3, 1683. IV. Jonathan, born January 29, 1685; died 1718 or 1719; married Sarah Clowes. V., Joseph, born February 18, 1687; removed to Bucks County, Pa., and then returned to Sussex County, N. J., where he died in 1770. VI., Charles, twin with Sarah, born January 4, 1689; married Priscilla. VII., Sarah, twin with Charles, born January 4, 1689. VIII., Hannah, born January 26, 1691-2; IX., Samuel. X., Naomi; married John Tyler. XI., Philip, died February 15, 1768; married Lucy Bacon. The last three children are not entered in the Woodbridge town records and the only authority for them is Lee's book, above referred to.

Jonathan Dennis, above, while in Woodbridge, was prominent, occupying several civil offices. He died as one of the honored and respected citizens of Cohansey.

It would be very strange, indeed, if a member of the SMITH FAMILY did not figure among these first settlers, and we shall have three separate families to consider before this work is completed. The eighth, last, and in many particulars, most prominent of the eight grantees and associates of Piscataway was JOHN SMITH, who settled in Woodbridge.

Dennis Family.--Additional item. It appears that Eunice Dennis, born December 29, 1694, who was the daughter of John Dennis and Rachel Hull, his wife, became the wife of Robert Combs, who died leaving a will of record. This may prove of interest to the searchers of the Combs ancestry.

Eight of the families have now been presented, including the four original grantees (1666) of Piscataway and their associates (1668), viz.: JOHN MARTIN, CHARLES GILMAN, HUGH DUN, HOPEWELL HULL, ROBERT DENNIS, JOHN SMITH, JOHN GILMAN and BENJAMIN HULL.

(These original compilations have been amplified and clarified in various pointed statements and references in various PARTS of this SERIES.--O.E.M.)

The nine associates of Woodbridge were JOHN BISHOP, ROBERT DENNIS, HENRY JACQUES, STEPHEN KENT, HUGH MARCH, JOHN PIKE, DANIEL PIERCE, JOSHUA PIERCE and JOHN SMITH, of whom ROBERT DENNIS and JOHN SMITH were likewise of the Piscataway associates and have already received treatment. Therefore, the others will be presented in order.

I. JOHN BISHOP of Woodbridge. The Woodbridge town book has the following to say of him: "John Bishop was one of the original associates. He was from Newbury, Mass., where, by his wife Rebecca, daughter of Richard Kent, he had son Noah, born June 20, 1658." The children of Noah are given in this register.

"Marriages--Mary Bishop to Charles Gilman of Piscataway, January 9, 1684."

"Births--Bishop, Sarah (Noah and Lydia) February 10, 1684; Jonathan (Noah and Lydia), January 9, 1686; Ruth (Noah and Lydia), February 9, 1690; Mary (Noah and Lydia), April, 1693; Noah (Noah and Lydia), March 8, 1694-5; Ann (Noah and Lydia), March 8, 1697."

And, strange as it may appear, no further vital records of this family are evident in the town book.

John Bishop was a carpenter, which was a common vocation of the early settlers of Woodbridge, but he was also a substantial man of affairs in the early history of the town. However, it appears that in Newbury, he was a miller. He had settled there in 1637 and he sold his mill in 1644 and removed to Woodbridge, possibly in 1666-7.

Dally, in his "History of Woodbridge," is somewhat contemptuous of military titles and makes the following comment concerning the Bishops: "They had a monopoly of the cheap distinction at one time, Young John Bishop glorifying for a long time in the captaincy, old John in lieutenancy and Jonathan being ensign. No use being made of these officers, of course, we cannot say just how valiant they were. In civil life the Bishops were exceedingly useful and did good service in their day and generation."

It is true that in 1675 John Bishop Sr. was appointed a lieutenant in the local military company; his oldest son was captain, for several years, of the same company, and is frequently referred to in the records as Captain John Bishop, and 1682-1687 his brother, Jonathan Bishop, was ensign.

When JOHN BISHOP SR. settled in Woodbridge he received the 240 acres of upland and forty acres of meadow allowed to each of the associates and in addition acquired another 190 acres. In the early land divisions his son John acquired seventeen acres and Jonathan acquired forty-one acres. In 1682 Jonathan was admitted a freeholder upon consideration of building a sawmill on Rahway River. In addition two other sons of John Bishop Sr. settled in Woodbridge, i. e., Noah and David.

When the township court was opened in 1669 John Bishop Sr. was made assistant, and in 1671 chosen again; in 1676 he was "viewer and sealer of leather"; in 1669 and '74 was on a committee to secure a clergyman; a rate-maker in 1675 and a tax gatherer in 1670-1; he was on the committee for schools in 1682 and his name appears as witness to several wills and in connection with the administration of estates, so that he enjoyed the confidence of his neighbors and stood well.

While in Newbury, John Bishop Sr. had married Rebecca, daughter of Richard Kent, when she was the widow of Samuel Scullard, her first husband. Richard Kent Sr. was a malster, came to Ipswich in 1635, then to Newbury the same year. He died June 14, 1654, and had a daughter, Rebecca, who must have been born about 1620, which gives a clew to the probable birth of John Bishop Sr. near to that date.

Rebecca's first husband died in 1647. By him she had four children: Mary, born January 9, 1642; Rebecca, born February 4, 1644; Sarah, born June 18, 1645; Martha, who died March 6, 1645. She must have married her second husband in 1647, and several of their children were born and recorded in Newbury. John Bishop Sr. died in 1684, leaving a will dated September 19, which was proved November 27, 1684, in which he does not mention his wife, but does mention his sons Jonathan, John, Noah and his daughters Rebecca, Joanna and Ann, grandchild John Bishop, the natural son of John, and refers to land at Rahway and at Newbury.

Children of JOHN BISHOP SR. and wife Rebecca Kent: I., John (captain), born September 19, 1648; II., Rebecca, born May 15, 1650; III., Joanna, born April 24, 1652; IV., Hannah, born December 10, 1653, deceased 1684; V., Elizabeth, born 1655, died 1655; VI., Jonathan, born January 11, 1656; VII., Noah, born January 10, 1658; VIII., David, born August 26, 1660.

One of the above daughters possibly married John Alston, the name frequently being spelled Elston in the Woodbridge records, or perhaps a sister of Rebecca Kent was the wife of John Alston. Certain it is that there was an intimate relationship, because Captain John Bishop called John Alston "kinsman" in his will.

Of the family of John Bishop Sr., the four sons, Captain John, Jonathan, Noah and David Bishop, all settled at Woodbridge and took prominent parts in the affairs of the town. They will be considered in a succeeding issue.

The proof that JOHN SMITH left Woodbridge and returned to New England is found in New Jersey Archives, vol. xxi., page 170, "1686, May 28, deed, Samuel Smith to Nathaniel Fitzrandolph, both of Woodbridge, for a lot of fifteen acres of meadow, their part of the land laid out for his father, John Smith, now of Sanduj (?), Plymouth colony, New England, at Smoking Point." Sanduj is evidently meant for Sandwich.

BISHOP.--This is a continuation of the discussion relative to the BISHOP FAMILY. We now take up the children of JOHN BISHOP SR., one of the original associates.

(Vide, ante, PART FOUR, p. 529.)

CAPTAIN JOHN BISHOP, son of John Bishop Sr. and Rebecca Kent, was born September 19, 1648. He followed in the footsteps of his father and was a civil official and active in the affairs of Woodbridge for a number of years. He originally acquired seventy-seven acres of land and was appointed captain of the local militia in 1682, which office he held until 1695, and in the records is constantly referred to by his military title. His most important office was possibly as a member of the council of Governor Andrew Hamilton in 1687. In 1688 to 1700 he was president of the township court. He was an assistant justice of the court as early as 1680 and was apparently associated with his father on the bench, the same in 1683 and 1687. He was overseer of highways in 1684, 1689, 1692, and 1696 and was a rate maker in 1681, 1686, and 1693. In 1701 he followed his father in taking an interest in matters of education and served on the school committee.

One quaint record is this entry of 1686 in the town records: "In November a committee headed by the Woodbridge military chieftain Captain John Bishop, was directed to examine the magazine and report the town's stock of powder and shot." In 1684 he was appointed to take care of the Rahway roads, and in 1686 a reference is made to "Captain John Bishop's landing on the stream." In 1701 he was chosen moderator of the town meetings, and all of these, together with other minor offices held by him show his standing in the community. His wife's maiden name is a problem which has not been fully solved. Her first name was Mary, as appears by his will in 1720 and deeds in which she joined. He refers in his will to a "brother-in-law, John Moore, and "kinsman, John Elstone (Alston)." The possible relationship of John Alston has already been explained. But, as to John Moore, it is very positive that the John Moore referred to was a son of the first Matthew Moore of Woodbridge and was not John Moore, the son of Matthew Moore's brother Samuel.

There was an intimate relationship between both of these Moore families and the Bishop family. For instance, Frances Moore, daughter of the first Samuel Moore, chose one of the Bishops as her guardian. At the same time there is no record of John Moore having a sister, Mary Moore, eligible to have been the wife of Captain John Bishop. Further, John Moore might have been a brother-in-law of Captain John Bishop in some other way. He might have married a sister of Captain John Bishop, except for the fact that his own will indicates that he married a daughter of Robert Wright, one of the early settlers, and this family was very closely associated with the Bishop family, so that there is a possibility that Captain John Bishop married Mary Wright, daughter of Robert Wright.

Again if my deductions are wrong and the brother-in-law, John Moore, was the other John Moore, son of Samuel Moore, of Woodbridge, then the relationship would have to be worked out through the Robbins family, for that John Moore married Hope Robbins, and to have been a brother-in-law to Captain John Bishop, either a sister of his wife, Mary Robbins, or his own sister, Mary Moore, was the wife of Captain John Bishop. All of this presents one of those interesting genealogical puzzles which delight us to attempt the solution, but in this case the records are very meager in the way of furnishing any positive clew.

Whoever his wife was, she apparently was the mother of all his children, although none is recorded in the Woodbridge town records. She was living in 1693, for she was a witness to the will of Joseph Frazee, and the other witness was Frances Moore, heretofore referred to. The names of their children appear in the will of Captain John Bishop, dated June 20, 1720, and proved April 3, 1722, he evidently having died shortly before the latter date. The will names a son John, as also appears in the will of his grandfather, John Bishop Sr., a son, Moses, which offers a suggestion as to the relationship with the Collier family, of which Moses Collier was the head; a daughter, Ann Coburn; son-in-law, Moses Goodden, who had evidently married another daughter, then deceased; grandchildren, David Goodden and Thomas Bishop, and a brother, Noah Bishop. The witnesses to the will were John Alston, Samuel Bonnell and Samuel Stone. The latter is important, on account of the relationship to his brother, Jonathan Bishop.

It is clear that Captain John Bishop had another daughter, Rebecca, and also there is strong indication that he had a son Nathaniel, who is not mentioned in his will, because he was not alive at that date. This was Nathaniel Bishop of Cohansey, who left a will dated May 9, 1720, and proved May 28, 1723, in which he names a wife Sarah, and children, Daniel Moses, Nathaniel, Samuel, John and three daughters, whose names are not given. The inventory states that he died April 24, 1723.

JONATHAN BISHOP, son of JOHN BISHOP SR. and Rebecca (Kent) Bishop, was born January 11, 1656. As soon as he reached his majority he became a landowner in Woodbridge, and like his father and brother, quite an active citizen. His name very frequently appears as a witness to wills and in the administration of estates. In 1682 Jonathan Bishop was admitted freeholder of Woodbridge in consideration of his building a sawmill on the Rahway River. He was sheriff of Woodbridge in 1694. In 1682-97 he served as ensign of the local militia company. He had his share of the local civil offices occupied by his father and brother. In 1695 he was appointed guardian of his niece, Marie Bishop, daughter of his brother, David Bishop, then deceased. It is difficult to determine whom he married, for he died in 1724, leaving a will dated March 17, 1723-24, proved August 10, 1724, in which a wife, Catherine, is mentioned; a son, John, and a sister, Mary Stone. As John Bishop Sr. had no daughter Mary Bishop recorded, it is reasonable to assume that Jonathan Bishop's wife was Catherine Stone.

NOAH BISHOP, son of JOHN BISHOP SR. and wife, Rebecca Kent, was born January 10, 1658, and while not as prominent a man as either his father or brother in Woodbridge history, yet he received some special appointments for civil offices of minor consequence. His name occasionally appears in the town records and there is a positive record as to his being admitted to the Church of Christ in 1707-8, and his wife Lydia is mentioned as a member under date of June 6, 1708. He was overseer of highways in 1698. He is mentioned in the will of his brother, Captain John Bishop, 1722, so that he must have been living at that date, and in the will of Matthew Moore of Woodbridge he was made overseer, together with his brother, Captain John Bishop. The date of his death is not known and his will or administration of estate has not been found. He apparently was living in 1722. He is the only one to have his children recorded in the Woodbridge Town Records. His wife was named Lydia and he had the following children: Sarah, born February 10, 1684; Jonathan, born January 9, 1686; Ruth, born February 9, 1690; Mary, born April, 1693; Noah, born March 8, 1694-5; May, born March 8, 1697.

The fourth and youngest son of JOHN BISHOP SR. and wife Rebecca Kent, to appear in the Woodbridge records is the son DAVID BISHOP, who was born August 26, 1660. His career was short and uneventful, as he died when comparatively a young man. He married Marie Alger, daughter of Thomas and Susanna Alger, of Woodbridge. It has been stated by one authority that she was the daughter of William Alger, but that does not seem to be correct. He had only one child by her, a daughter, Marie Bishop, who selected in 1695 her uncle, Jonathan Bishop, to be her guardian. This same daughter, Marie Bishop, is mentioned in the will of Charles Gilman in 1691-2, which family was treated of in a former article. David Bishop must have died in 1683-4, as his widow, Marie Bishop, married January 9, 1684, for her second husband, Charles Gilman of Piscataway and when he died she married, May 20, 1692, Benjamin Jones of Piscataway. Her ultimate end has been undetermined.

"From the east end of Long Island we bear that the sloop of Noah Bishop of Woodbridge was lost there, together with the cargo, and that the lives of all those on board were saved with difficulty"--September 17, 1739.

NOTES ON NEW HAVEN FAMILIES

By Donald Lines Jacobus, M.A., of New Haven, Conn.

Mansfield

1. Richard^1 Mansfield, of New Haven, married at St. Mary Archer, Exeter, England, 10 Aug. 1636, Gillian Drake, and died at New Haven 10 Jan. 1665. His widow married secondly Alexander Field, and died in 1669.

2. Joseph^2 Mansfield (Richard^{1}), the elder of his two sons, was born about 1638, and died 15 Nov. 1692. He married Mary Potter, daughter of William and Frances (Register, vol. 54, p. 24). In Mansfield's "Descendants of Richard and Gillian Mansfield," published in 1885, is a very incomplete account of Joseph's family, and it says of his daughters Mary and Elizabeth that they "probably died unmarried." An entry in the New Haven County Court Records (vol. 1, p. 210), dated 14 June, 1693, mentions Joseph's widow Mary and his children, Mary Tirhan, Martha Sperry, Marcy Bristow, Silence Wilcocks, Elizabeth Johnson, Comfort Benham, Joseph Mansfield, Ebenezer Mansfield, and Japhet Mansfield.

Children:

3. i. Mary,^{3} b. 6 Apr. 1658.
ii. Martha, b. 18 Apr. 1660; m. Richard Sperry, b. 20 Jan. 1652, d. 1734.
iii. Mercy, b. 26 July 1662; d. after 1734; m. John Bristol, b. 4 Sept. 1659, d. at Newtown, Conn., abt. 1735.
4. iv. Silence, b. 24 Oct. 1664.
v. Elizabeth, b. 20 Sept. 1666; m. Lieut. William Johnson, son of William and Sarah (Hall), b. 5 Sept. 1665, d. 1742. William and Elizabeth Johnson of New Haven, she being daughter of Joseph Mansfield, dec., acknowledged receipt of their portion from their uncle, Nathaniel Potter, Sr., he being brother to their mother, Mary Mansfield, dec. (New Haven Deeds, vol. 5, p. 131, recorded 1718).
vi. Comfort, b. 6 Dec. 1668; m. John Benham, b. 15 Sept. 1664, d. 1744.
vii. John, b. 8 Apr. 1671; d. 22 Dec. 1690.
viii. Joseph, b. 27 Dec. 1673; d. 8 Oct. 1739; m. Elizabeth Thomas, b. abt. 1677, d. 4 Mar. 1763.
ix. Ebenezer, b. 6 Feb. 1677; d. 3 Aug. 1745; m. 20 Apr. 1710, Hannah Bassett, who d. 22 Jan. 1766.
x. Japhet, b. 8 July 1681; d. 1745; m. 16 Jan. 1703, Hannah Bradley, who d. 27 Oct. 1768.

3. Mary^3 Mansfield (Joseph,^{2} Richard^{1}) was born 6 Apr. 1658. In the County Court record referred to above, her married name is given as Tirhan, a variant for Turhand. The only man in the vicinity bearing this uncommon name, who could be her husband, was Thomas Tirhan of Guilford, Conn., who died in 1696, leaving

THE NEW HAVEN (CONN.) POTTERS, 1639.

By James Shepard, of New Britain, Conn.

1. Hannah [Potter] Beecher was the mother of the New Haven Potters, who appeared early in New Haven as a widow with sons: i. John, ii. William and iii. Isaac Beecher, the ancestor of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher. Her first husband, Potter, died in England, where she married a Mr. Beecher.

It is generally supposed that her husband was John Beecher, one of the seven whom Eaton sent to New Haven in advance of the colony and who died before the colony arrived. She has been considered to be the mother of Isaac Beecher, for she calls him her son in her will and gave him one-third of her property; but recent investigations, it is claimed, show conclusively that Isaac was only a step-son, the son of her second husband by a former wife.

There was in New Haven, says G. F. Tuttle, as early as 1641, a widow Hannah Potter, known as widow Potter the midwife. In 1643 she had two persons in the family, thirty pounds estate and twenty and one quarter acres of land. She is called "sister Potter the midwife," in seating the meeting house in 1646. She is supposed to have been akin to the other Potters, but there is no record to show it. She has often been confounded with the widow Hannah Beecher, but the records clearly show that they were two different persons.

The will of Hannah Beecher was proved April 5, 1659, and is recorded in first part, vol. i., p. 80, of New Haven Probate Records, as follows:

"I Hannah Beecher of New Haven, expecting my great change do make this my last will and testament, I bequeath my soul unto the hands of my Lord Jesus Christ by whose meritt I hope to be saved and my body to be burried at the discretion of my Son William Potter my Executor. And for my worldly goods I give unto John Potter my Grand child twenty shillings and to Hannah Blackly, my Grand child, wife to Samuel Blackly, twenty shillings, And to Samuel Potter my Grand child twenty shillings to be paid to them within three months after my decease. And for the rest of my estate I give one third part to my son Isaac Beecher and two thirds to my eldest son William Potter, making him my Executor, desiring him to be as a father to his younger brother and his children. And in dividing my goods my will is that my son William should have my feather bed with that belongeth to it, unto his part and that the rest be divided at the discretion of my Overseers with the assistance of Sister Wakeman and sister Rutherford and I desire my loving freinds Mr. Mathew Gilbert and John Wakeman to be overseers of this my last will whereunto I have set my hand this 13th day of June, Anno 1657.

Witnesses. the mark of
Mathew Gilbert, HANNAH BECHER.
John Wakeman,
Sarah Rutherford."

Her children were: John Potter, died 1643. William Potter, born about 1608; died 1662.

2. JOHN[2] POTTER (Hannah[1] Beecher,) was a freeman in New Haven in 1639, not admitted when the planters' covenant was first signed but expressed his consent to it and soon after subscribed to the agreement made in general town meeting, 1639, "thatt church members onely shall be free burgesses and they onely shall chuse among themselves magistrates and officers."

In 1643 he had four persons in the family, estate valued at twenty-five pounds, and had twenty-eight and three-quarter's acres of land. Tuttle says that he died in 1643. The name of John Potter's widow was Elizabeth. In June, 1646, one Mrs. Brewster was before the court for slandering many persons one of whom was William Preston. She also slandered widow Potter (of John), and Edward Parker. For some reason, not stated, the elders, &c., did not approve of Edward Parker and requested Mrs. Potter not to receive his attentions. The result was that Mrs. Potter was excommunicated and Mrs. Brewster said that "Mrs. Potter would not join the church because she would not give up Edward Parker." She married Edward Parker about this time, for in July, 1646, "Edward Parker and his wife presented their desires to the Court to invest John Potter's two sons in the right of their father's land and house and declared themselves willing to bestow a heifer of a year old on Hannah and deliver it presently for her use and so to be improved as stock for her * * * per a my hand and seal this three and twentyeth day of July one thousand six hundred and seventy seven, 1677, signed and sealed in ye presence of —— but dyed before signing and sealing."

The inventory of her estate amounted to £49. 11s. 09d.

The children of John and Elizabeth Potter, were:

i. John, b. about 1636. His will, dated 1706, calls him about seventy, m. 1st, Hannah Cooper, who d. June 15, 1675; m. 2d, Mary Russell, Dec. 29, 1679. He d. Dec. 24, 1706.

ii. Hannah, m. 1st, Samuel Blakesley, Dec. 3, 1650; she m. 2d, Henry Brooks, Dec. 21, 1676. Widow Hannah Brooks d. Nov. 7, 1723. Brunson in his history of Waterbury says, that Samuel Blakesley's wife Hannah was dau. of William Potter, but the will of Elizabeth Rose (who was formerly John Potter's wife), made July 23, 1677, about six months after widow Hannah Blakesley m. Henry Brooks, names her "daughter Brooks," which conclusively proves that she was the dau. of John and Elizabeth Potter.

iii. Samuel, m. Annah, dau. of William Russell, Nov. 21, 1670.

Elizabeth Potter's Parker children were:

iv. Mary Parker, bapt. Aug. 27, 1648; m. John Hall of Wallingford, Conn., Dec. 6, 1666.

v. John Parker, bapt. Oct. 8, 1648; m. Hannah Bassett, Nov. 8, 1670.

vi. Hope Parker, b. April 26, bapt. May 26, 1650; m. Samuel Cook of Wallingford, Conn., May 2, 1667.

vii. Lydia Parker, b. April 14, 1652; m. John Thomas, Jan. 12, 1671.

3. William^2 Potter (Hannah^{1} Beecher), Savage says of Watertown, Mass., probably came in the Abigal from London, in 1635, aged 27, with wife Frances, aged 26, and child Joseph, aged twenty weeks. He removed to New Haven and with his brother John signed the agreement in general town meeting, 1639. "In 1643 brother Potter was fined one shilling for coming late last trayning day," and again was fined for defective arms. He took the oath of allegiance with others in 1644.

In 1645 Brother Potter (William) made an offer, "to carry every man's grist from their howes to the mill & bring it back againe to their howes for 2d pr. bushell."

His name appears in the seating of the meeting house in 1646, and in 1647 he was one of the Fence viewers for the farms this side of East River.

In Oct. 5, 1647, it is recorded, that Mr. Evance hath sold to Wm. Potter 27 and a half acres of meadow as it cometh to him in the towne books, and lyeth in the east meadows between Mr. Crayne and Bro. Punderson and 32 acres of upland. He was one of the appraisers on the estate of Richard Mansfield in 1656. His home lott was on the west side of the Quinipiac River, near the present Cedar Hill railroad station.

His will was made May 19, 1662, and is as follows:

"William Potter disposes of his estate of outward things as followeth. After all Debts discharged my will is that my wife should have her living out of the farms till my Sonne Nathanll, come to ye age of 21 years, then ye sd. Nathaniell is to possess ye sd. farms and all yt is upon it, if my wife continue a widdow my will is yt my Sonne Nathanll allow her a comfortable Living out of the same and if shee see cause to Dwell elsewhere my will is yt my sonne Nathaniell allow her 12th a yeare.

The children of John and Elizabeth Potter, were:

i. John, b. about 1636. His will, dated 1706, calls him about seventy, m. 1st, Hannah Cooper, who d. June 15, 1675; m. 2d, Mary Russell, Dec. 29, 1679. He d. Dec. 24, 1706.

ii. Hannah, m. 1st, Samuel Blakesley, Dec. 3, 1650; she m. 2d, Henry Brooks, Dec. 21, 1676. Widow Hannah Brooks d. Nov. 7, 1723. Bronson in his history of Waterbury says, that Samuel Blakesley's wife Hannah was dau. of William Potter, but the will of Elizabeth Rose (who was formerly John Potter's wife), made July 23, 1677, about six months after widow Hannah Blakesley m. v. John Parker, bapt. Oct. 8, 1648; m. Hannah Bassett, Nov. 8, 1670.

vi. Hope Parker, b. April 26, bapt. May 26, 1650; m. Samuel Cook of Wallingford, Conn., May 2, 1667.

vii. Lydia Parker, b. April 14, 1652; m. John Thomas, Jan. 12, 1671.

3. WILLIAM¹ POTTER (Hannah Beecher). Savage says of Watertown, Mass., probably came in the Abigal from London, in 1635, aged 27, with wife Frances, aged 26, and child Joseph, aged twenty weeks. He removed to New Haven and with his brother John signed the agreement in general town meeting, 1639. In 1646 Brother Potter (William) made an offer, "to carry every man's grist from their howse to the mill & bring it back againe to their howse for 3d pr. bushell."

His name appears in the seating of the meeting house in 1646, and in 1647 he was one of the Fence viewers for the farms this side of East River.

In Oct. 5, 1647, it is recorded, that Mr. Greane hath sold to Wm. Potter 27 and a half acre of meadow as it standeth to him in the towne books, and lyeth in the east meadows between Mr. Gryne and Bro. Funderson and 42 acres of upland. He was one of the appraisers on the estate of Richard Mansfield in 1656. His house lott was on the west side of the Quinipiac River, near the present Cedar Hill railroad station.

His will was made May 19, 1662, and is as follows:

it; my will is yt my daughter Hope and my daughter Rebeckah shall have 20th. apiece payd ym when their mother sees good to pay it them. My will is that those Legasyes be payd out of the farms before it come into my sonnes Nathanll's hands.

19. 3. 62.

Witnesses. William Peck. Richard Miles."

Inventory filed Aug. 1. 1662. Amt. £190. 04. 00.

Children:

i. Joseph, b. in England, in 1635; m. Phebe ———.

ii. Mary, bapt. in New Haven, Aug. 22, 1641; m. about 1657, Joseph Mansfield.

iii. Sarah, bapt. Aug. 22, 1641, but was not a twin with Mary. She m. 1st, Lieut. Robert Foote of Branford, Conn.; 2d, Aaron Blakesley.

iv. Hope, bapt. Oct. 3, 1641; m. Feb. 3, 1663, Daniel Robinson. Removed to New Jersey.

v. Rebecca, bapt. 1643; m. Nov. 27, 1667, Thomas Adams. Removed to Crosswicks, N. J.

vi. Nathaniel, bapt. Dec. 12, 1644; m. April 1. 1675, Elizabeth Howes.

Of these children, Mary and Sarah are not named in their father's will, but Sarah was living Aug. 23, 1706, when "Sarah Blakesley, alias Foote, alias Potter, daughter of William Potter," acknowledges on p. 130, vol. v., New Haven Land Records, the receipt of her full share in her father's estate.

The following is the Potter record from vol. i., in the Registrar's Office, New Haven, Conn.:

Thomas Vail

1. Thomas^{1} Vail was born Abt. 1628 in Southwold, Suffolk, England, and died 1687 in Westchester Co., New York. He married Sarah Wentworth 1650 in England. She was born 1630 in England, and died Aft. 1657. Notes for Thomas Vail:Notes for Thomas Vail: The following is an excerpt from Genealogy of some of the Vail Family descended from Thomas Vail, at Salem, Massachusetts 1640, Together with Collateral Lines by William Penn Vail, MD, 1937, prepared by Gray & Thompson Advertising, Chapel Hill North Carolina. Thomas Vail, first of the line, American ancestor, Colonial forefather, is listed as coming from England with his wife, Sarah in 1640, to Salem, Massachusetts. The next record of Thomas is found in "Howell's History of Southampton L. I.", (pg 440), where he is mentioned as an Inhabitant as early as 1647. He is included in the list of Towmsmen of Southampton 10 May, 1649, and in the list his name is spelled "Vayle". He with his wife Sarah lived at Southampton and purchased land of "Mr. Mitchell in the Great Playne." Thompson in his "History of Long Island" (Vol. 7:137), says "The Prerogative of a townsman was to superintend the more important interests of the Town; to adopt prudential measures required by the common good." He (Thomas Vail) drew an allotment division March, 1651, for a 100 pound lot; (v. Southampton Town Records). 1650 - Whale-watching was one of the earliest and most lucrative occupations of Southampton, and its Town. Records show that Thomas Vail is " to have for his paines, 3 shillings per day at the Seapoose." Seapoose is an Indian word meaning "Little River," or the inlet connecting Mecox Bay with the Ocean, where he was stationed at certain periods to range the shore and watch for stranded whales. When finally the huge carcass of a whale was cast upon the sandy beach and temporarily secured until the town was warned, the custom was for all the grown men of the town to be impressed into subdividing the carcass and "trying out" the blubber. this custom began as early as 1644, when two men of each of three wards of eleven men each, were to cut up the whale, try the blubber and have a double share. the remainder was to be divided among the townsmen, and in the long run became a rich source of revenue for the town. This whaling station at Southampton was the first of a long series of stations along the Long Island shore. Nearly all these whaling stations have passed away except the original one at Southampton. (v. Howell's Southampton, p. 32.) 1660 - Thomas Vail removed to Westchester Co., N. Y., where he appears in 1660, as a man of prominence and influence. The first record of his presence there is in O'Callahan's "Register of New Netherland" (p. 98), where we learn that Thomas Veall is a Magistrate, 21 January, 1660, in Westchester. Also he was reappointed to this office 11 January, 1661. According to this same authority a "Magistrate" is an officer "sworn to administer justice according to the charter, and regulate matters relating to roads, fences, bridges, schools, churches and other public buildings." It appears that the office of Magistrate in those early days was the most prominent of the local offices and included the functions of several officers of the law today. 1662 - Thomas Vaille was also popular as a Magistrate for we find he was among six nominated to be Magistrate 11 February, 1662, (v. Bolton's Westchester, Vol. 2:280). 1664 - He was one of the Westchester Associates and we find his name and mark in a list of 17 Westchester Associates recognizing the absolute right of Mr. Thomas Pell, of Pellham Manor, in the land question between the people of Connecticut and New Amsterdam 16 June, 1664. (Bolton's: loc. cit.). 1665 - He was a signer of an agreement to send eight men to Governor Nicolls to confer about the "Settlement of ye Town" of Westchester (v. Bolton Westchester, Vol. 2:180). 1666 - On the 7 May, 1666, the town of Westchester granted land to Thomas Vaill (Westchester Records, Vol. 1:29). On the 11 July, 1666, a second division of land was made at which time Thomas Vaille was allotted lot No. 13, (v. Westchester Records, Vol. 1:33). 1675 - The name of Thomas Vaill is found on the assessment roll of Westchester and Eastchester of 1675, and shows that he was assessed on "one horse, two oxen, three cows, 2 three-year old, 2 two-year old, six acres of land and eight acres of meadow." (v. Doc'y Col'l Hist. N. Y. State 13:488) 1679 - His name is of record on several land conveyance instruments and he seems to have "made his mark" on each several paper. On the 16 March, 1679, he conveys to Thomas Whitlock "one acker" along the creek, and made the mark ( ). On the 16 May, 1681, he mortgages two and a half acres bounded by Joseph Hunt, Samuel Vail and William Richardson for lb10-9-8, to Captain Philip Carteret and William Lawrence, Administrators, and on this instrument makes the mark (W). There was some litigation concerning this two and a half acres on the 30 October, 1668, and Richard Townley of Elizabeth Town, N. J., acknowledges receipt from William Richardson of Westchester of lb10-9-8, also lb1. Court charges in an action commenced against Thomas Vail at a Court of Sessions at Eastchester in November 1684. The record of this two and a half acres closed soon after Thomas Vail died, for his son Samuel Vail on the 14 December, 1688, deeds this two and a half acres to William Richardson, Thomas Vail, his father, being deceased (v. Westchester Rec. Vol. A 298, also Vol. 2:5; also Vol. B395). Thomas Vail on the 19 January, 1686, witnesses the sale of eight acres on Castle Hill, (v. Book A:221) and makes his mark on this instrument thus (X). Again when Thomas Vail, Sr., of Westchester, sells 10 acres to Joseph Hunt, 10 April, 1686, (v. Bk. A. 74.) he made his mark thus (III). His mark, though in a variety of forms identifies Thomas Vail Sr., beyond question, and easily distinguishes him from his son Thomas who always signs his name. 1683 - In the account of what estate the inhabitants of Westchester have given to be rated in the year 1683, Thomas Vaile, Sr., has two acres meadow, two oxen, one cow, four sheep, three shillings, 5 pence. (v. O'Callahan's Col. Hist. N. Y., 13:574) 1686 - He is listed among the Freeholders of Westchester, 9th Mo., 1686, as "Thomas Vail, Sr., 25 lb share", (v. Town Records: 2:8). 1687 - In the division of land, 3 May, 1687, he is allotted lot No. 39, consisting of 10 acres on the East side of Brunks River, We have not the exact date of his death but we gather from the land records that he died somewhere between 3 May, 1687, when he was allotted lot No. 39, and the 14th December, 1688, as noted in the deed of two and a half acres from Samuel Vail and Elizabeth, his wife, to William Richardson. In 1640 when Thomas Vail with his wife Sarah came to Salem, Massachusetts, Jeremiah Vail was living there, having come in 1639. It is exceedingly probable that Jeremiah and Thomas Vail were brothers. Jeremiah and Thomas emigrated to the eastern part of Long Island, Jeremiah to Southold, and Thomas to Southampton. Both were blacksmiths by trade. How long Thomas (1) Vail remained a resident of Southampton, L. I., we do not know with certainty. On the 30 May, 1654, he received another allotment of land, of £50. value, in Southampton. This appears to be the last record of his presence in this place. He is not mentioned in the land lists of 1657. When he removed, and to whom he conveyed his land in Southampton may appear in searching the early land records of this place. 1660. He removed to Westchester Co., N. Y., where he appears in 1660, as a man of prominence and influence. The first record of his presence there is in O'Callahan's "Register of New Netherland" (p. 98), where we learn that Thomas Veall is a Magistrate, 21 January, 1660, in Westchester. On the 11 July, 1666, a second division of land was made at which time Thomas Vaille was allotted lot No. 13, (v. Westchester Records, Vol. 1 :33). 1675. The name of Thomas Vaill is found on the assessment roll of Westchester and Eastchester of 1675, and shows that he was assessed on "one horse, two oxen, three cows, 2 three-year old, 2 two-year old, six acres of land and eight acres of meadow." (v. Doc'y Col'l Hist. NT. Y. State 13:488). 1679. His name is of record on several land conveyance instruments and he seems to have "made his mark" on each several paper. On the 16 March, 1679, he conveys to Thomas Whitlock "one acker" along the creek, and made the mark (ÇÈ). On the 16 May, 1681, he mortgages two and a half acres bounded by Joseph Hunt, Samuel Vail and William Richardson for £10-9-8, to Captain Philip Carteret and William Lawrence, Administrators, and on this instrument makes the mark (W). There was some litigation concerning this two and a half acres, for Richard Townley signed a quit claim to said two and a half acres on the 30 October, 1668, and Richard Townley of Elizabeth Town, N. J., acknowledges receipt from William Richardson of Westchester of £10-9-8, also £1. Court charges in an action commenced against Thomas Vail at a Court of Sessions at Eastchester in November 1684. Book A:221) and makes his mark on this instrument thus (X). Again when Thomas Vail, Sr., of Westchester, sells 10 acres to Joseph Hunt, 10 April, 1686, (v. Bk. A. 74.) he made his mark thus (III). His mark, though in a variety of forms identifies Thomas Vail, Sr., beyond question, and easily distinguishes him from his son Thomas (2) who always signs his name. 1683. In the account of what estate the inhabitants of Westchester have given to be rated in the year 1683, Thomas Vaile, Sr., has two acres meadow, two oxen, one cow, four sheep, three shillings, 5 pence. (v. O'Callahan's Col. Hist. N. Y., 13:574), 1686. He is listed among the Freeholders of Westchester, 9th Mo., 1686, as "Thomas Vail, Sr., £25. share," (v. Town Records: 2:8). 1687. In the division of land, 3 May, 1687, he is allotted lot No. 39, consisting of ten acres on the East side of Brunks River. We have not the exact date of his death, but we gather from the land records that he died somewhere between the 3 May, 1687, when he was allotted lot No. 39, and the 14th December, 1688, as noted in the deed of two and a half acres from Samuel Vail and Elizabeth, his wife, to William Richardson. Most of those who bear the name of Vail, Veal, or Veale in this country, are descendents of Thomas Vail, the head of an ancient house in Gloucestershire, England. He came to New England in 1640 and was a resident of Salem, Mass. Later he was removed to Southhampton, L. I., and was one of the founders of Westchester, N.Y., where he served as a magistrate. When the wave of emigration swept over the Northern and Eastern states, many families moved Southward and westward, and among them were the Vails. Some of them settled in New Jersey, and from there scattered into Ohio, Kentucky, Virginia, and many other states. In the Southern states the name is usually spelled Veal, Veale. The ancestry of Thomas Vail, the American founder, can be traced to Gilbertus Viel, who lived in 1066, the time of William the Conquerers victory over the Saxons in Britain. Notes for Sarah Wentworth:1651 Thomas Veale and wife Sarah were ordered to appear in Court at the June Term. The records of the Town of Southampton (p. 80) reveal that this order was caused by a woman of strong mind, of precise speech and of positive character. ZIt is quite true that Sarah veale, the wife of Thomas, was sentenced 4 June, 1651, by the Magistrates of Southampton " For exhorbitant words of imprecations, to stand with her tongue in a cleft stick soelong as the offence committed by her was read and declared." It seems her offence was caused by just provocation and in this day she would not be blamed for defending and protecting herself with the only weapon a woman has. However, the circumstances were as follows: George Wood, a neoghbour, trespassed uninvited into the home of Thomas Veale, who complained to the Court. George Wood entered a cross action. The Court acquitted and dismissed both parties. After Court Mrs. Veale used the language for which she was punished. Bayles, in his sketches of Suffolk County, L. I., (p. 403) justifies this highly-bred woman, who so earnestly desired more of civil law and at least a little of the Gospel. Bayles says "A woman was sentenced to stand with a cleft stick upon her tongue for saying that her husband had brought her to a place where there was neither Gpspel nor magistracy." When righteous anger fills the soul and rouses the nerve of a God-fearing, law abiding woman justly provoked, her tongue spares neither church nor state-nor husband. this is the only glimpse into the life and character of Sarah Veale which history gives us. Her Godly children prove her to have been a devoted mother and a pious parent. Children of Thomas Vail and Sarah Wentworth are: +2 i. Samuel^2 Vail, born 1654 in Southampton, Long Island, New York; died June 26, 1695 in Westchester, Westchester Co., New York. 3 ii. Thomas Jr. Vail, born 1656 in EastChester, NY; died Aft.

OLD LANDMARKS

By JOHN A. GAFFNEY.

THE present city of Plainfield is not rich in the matter of old landmarks. The circumstances of its early settlement, and its connection with the Revolutionary War, were such that not many old landmarks remain. One link which connected the settlements at Plainfield with Woodbridge and Perth Amboy was a Quaker meeting-house. The Quakers were prominent in the settlements of Shrewsbury, Perth Amboy and Woodbridge. The first Quaker meeting-house in New Jersey was built at Woodbridge about 1713. In October, 1735, a Quaker meeting was established at the home of John Laing, to accommodate the Friends who dwelt near him and were unable to attend the services at the meeting-house in Woodbridge, because of the distance. John Laing had a large farm, and his house was located near the present fairgrounds in the eastern part of the city. He died before 1728, bequeathing to the Friends a plot of ground on which to build a meeting-house. In 1731 the Woodbridge monthly meeting gave permission for its construction, stipulating that it should not exceed 24 feet square, and 14 feet "between joynts." It was built late in 1736, and in 1744 a "hors" stable was built adjoining it. A cemetery was also opened nearby, and this house was occupied until 1788, at which time the new house now situated near the station of the New Jersey Central Railroad, in the city, was built. The centennial of this latter house was celebrated in 1888, and it is still regularly occupied for public services. The writer has taken great pains to locate the site of the original house, since all material landmarks of it have been removed. It was on the edge of the level ground near the point where Woodland Avenue crosses the old road which ran from Piscataway and Newmarket to Rahway. What is now Woodland Avenue was then the old road leading past Oak Tree to Metuchen. On the right hand of this road, a little below the present point of crossing and nearly opposite the main entrance to the golf grounds, the old Quaker Church was located. A single landmark remains at this time—June, 1909—an old cherry tree, dead, large as to its trunk and with most of its branches yet remaining. We have consulted men now living who remember when the old burying-ground was still left unplowed, as late as 1850 or '60. It is most unfortunate that this cemetery was children born, and here the Webster homestead remained for generations.

The first child was John, born in 1718, who in 1743 married Anna Taylor, granddaughter of Richard Hartshorn of distinguished Quaker stock from Middletown. This family still owns the Highlands of the Navesink, near Sandy Hook. John and his younger brother, Hugh - who married Sarah Marsh in 1753 - were prominently instrumental in 1788 in locating the present Plainfield Meeting House on the three-acre lot where it stands today. The lot is part of the original Webster farm.

The Websters were mainly instrumental in opening in 1763, the roadway, which was known afterward as the road to Rahway, later as Peace Street and now as Watchung Avenue. It was they who built the first grist mill, on Green Brook, at the head of Peace Street. In 1782, Taylor Webster, a son of the builder, was granted by his father the privilege of constructing a race-way from the pond to the new mill on the mountain road, now Somerset Street. The Webster family may properly be credited with localizing the town of Plainfield.

The VailsNo family name is more honorably and continuously associated with the welfare of the Friends in this locality than that of the Vails. In 1687 mention is made of John Vail as an active member of the Society. His name is found first in the primitive annals of Salem, Mass. about 1650 and is discovered subsequently in Westchester County, N.Y., from whence he moved to East Jersey about 1685.

There were two prominent sons, John Vail, Jr., born in 1685, and Samuel Vail. John married in 1712, Martha Fitz Randolph of Woodbridge. The farm of John Vail extended from near present Richmond Street on both sides of Green Brook to the vicinity of Netherwood Avenue.

Samuel Vail, son of the original John, in 1725 married Sarah Farrington, of Westchester County, N.Y., where he lived and died. He was a Friend, and about the date of his marriage purchased a large plantation on Green Brook near present Dunnellen. This land was occupied by his two sons, John and Stephen. John Vail, oldest son of Samuel, married in 1730 Margaret Laing, daughter of John and Elizabeth Shotwell Laing. To each of his eight sons he gave a farm; four, John, David, Abraham and Joseph (a son by his second wife, Mary Laing) at Green Brook; and four, Daniel, Isaac, Jacob and Benjamin, in Passaic Valley, near Basking Ridge.

Stephen Vail, the other son of Samuel, in 1733 married Esther Smith. Their children were Thomas, Benjamin, Stephen, Abigail, Abraham and Sarah. Some of the Vails still live upon the original John Vail Tract.

The Fitz RandolphsNathaniel Fitz Randolph was the oldest son of the largest and most influential family in this part of the colony before the Revolution. The founder of these distinguished people in America was Edward Fitz Randolph, of England, who came to America in 1630. Nathaniel, eldest of ten children, was born at Barnstable, Mass., in 1642. He and his immediate descendants were the only members of this prominent family belonging to the Friends. It is thought Nathaniel joined the Society at his marriage in 1662. After removal to the neighborhood of Woodbridge, N.J., Nathaniel filled all the local and county offices. In 1704 his house was opened for weekly meetings of the Friends. He died in 1713. His descendants have married with the Hulls, the Kinseys, the Hartshorns, the Hamptons, the Marshes, the Vails, the Laings, the Websters, the Shotwells and the Smiths. The ShotwellsProminent in the early beginning of the society in this vicinity was Abraham Shotwell, who, though not himself a Quaker, was warmly in sympathy with the common people in their contentions with the Lords Proprietors' government about titles to land. Shotwell's independence resulted in the confiscation of his property in Elizabethtown. After his death two sons, Daniel and John, succeeded, under the Quaker management of 1683, in securing restoration to the family. John, in 1679, married Elizabeth Burton. For generations since descendants have lived in Union county. Marriage with the Thorns, Laings, Websters, Vails, Marshes, Pounds and other pioneer settlers has given the State some of its most useful and prominent citizens. At the opening of this century the names of eighty-six Shotwells are recorded in the Society.

The first mention of this locality as Plainfield is noticed in connection with the register of the birth of one of John Shotwell's grandchildren. His daughter Elizabeth, had married John Laing in 1705, and their daughter Elizabeth, the record states, was "born at Plainfield ye 11th of ye 10th month, 1707". Earlier reference to this place had been made as the "Quaker settlement on the Plains", to distinguish it from the small colony at Scotch Plains.

The first marriage in the present Plainfield Meeting House was that of Amy Shotwell to Charles Beooks.

The LaingsThe Laing family composed a prominent part of the first permanent settlers in this neighborhood. John Laing, the progenitor of this long line in East Jersey, came over from Craigforth, Aberdeen County, Scotland, August 1685, landing in Amboy, near which place for a few years he lived with his wife Margaret and his children, John, Abraham, William, Christiana and Isabel. In 1698 he moved to "the Plains" near where South Plainfield now is. His son John married, in 1708, Elizabeth Shotwell, a direct descendent of the original Abraham Shotwell. His daughter Isabel, in 1700, married Joseph Fitz Randolph, son of Nathaniel. Both families were always active Friends. In 1725 weekday meetings were established at John Laing's. The location was so easy of access to Friends living along Green Brook, Cedar Brook and vicinity, that by 1731-36, a meeting house was built which was the beginning of the Plainfield Society. The MarshesThe original ancestors of the Marsh family in the United States were three brothers, born in England, who came to America in the first half of the seventeenth century. John Marsh settled in Connecticut in 1639, George Marsh made a permanent settlement at Hingham, Mass., and Samuel Marsh after a short stay in New Haven colony moved to this section of New Jersey, where he became the owner of much land and the progenitor of most of those in Union County bearing his name. ThornsEarly representatives of these families came from Long Island. The Fields of Piscataway are descended from John Field, who came from Flushing about 1690-95, and settled on a large plantation along the Raritan River.

Joseph and Mary Thorn, of Flushing, L.I., had a son Jacob, born in 1700, who in 1723 married Susannah Shotwell and settled in Middlesex County, near here. Their descendants were mostly Friends.

The ancestor of the Pounds of New Jersey was John Pound, and early settler in Piscataway, whose son Elijah Pound, born in 1712, was a prominent and influential member of this meeting in its first history. With those of the Thorns the names of this family are among the oldest on the Friend's records.

Other NamesThe Bloomfields were among the earliest settlers in Middlesex County. Ezekiel in 1680 married Hope Fitz Randolph, a sister of Nathaniel. His great-grandson, Joseph Bloomfield, was Attorney-General of New Jersey in 1785 and governor of the State from 1801-12.

The Dunhams of Quaker faith were of different ancestry than the Baptist family of that name who settled in Piscataway. The founder of the Dunham Friends was Jonathan Dunham, of Massachusetts, who settled in Woodbridge.

The Cowperthwaites descended from Hugh, of North England. He came to America in 1648 with his wife Elizabeth. About 1674 he settled at Flushing . His descendants married with the Plainfield Friends.

The Plainfield MeetingThe Plainfield Meeting of the Society of Friends had its beginning in a meeting established at Perth Amboy in 1686, which was the third in the state, earlier meetings having been established at Shrewsbury in 1670 and at Middletown in 1675.

No meeting house was built at Perth Amboy and in 1704 the meeting was moved to Woodbridge, where it met at the house of Nathaniel Fitz Randolph until 1714 when a meeting house was completed. The Plainfield Friends became members of this meeting and were faithful in their attendance until 1721 when they petitioned for leave to meet at the home of John Laing in Piscataway Township, near the present grounds of the Plainfield country Club.

The request was granted and the Plainfield Friends met at John Laing's house until his death in 1731, when he left them a plot of ground as a site for a meeting house, which was built in the same year and was known as the Plainfield Meeting House. It was 24 feet square and 14 feet "between joynts" which probably means between the sills and the plates.

This house was occupied until 1788 when the present meeting house on Watchung Avenue was built on a plot of three acres bought from John Webster. The cost of the land and the fencing of it was œ47 14s 3d, or about $235 (1929) of which possibly $200.00 was the cost of the land. The cost of the building was œ474 7s 10d, or about $2,300.00. Except for œ13 10s, which was obtained by the sale of the old meeting house and lot, the entire amount was raised by subscription, which was quite an undertaking in view of the fact that the entire population of the community was less than 200 persons.

This meeting house has been in continuous use since that time and in 1885 the Centennial of its building was observed with appropriate ceremonies at which time a history of the meeting was read by Margaret Fitz Randolph Vail, a descendant of two of the most prominent Friendly families already mentioned, and the Clerk of the City, Oliver B. Leonard, delivered an address on the "Early Friends of Plainfield", from both of which the facts in this paper have been largely derived. Another celebration was held on the 125th Anniversary in 1913.

The Present Title of the Plainfield MeetingThe business sessions of the local meetings of the Religious Society of Friends are held once a month and so are termed "Monthly Meetings". Also, it is the custom to include more than one local meeting in a single Monthly Meeting. For this reason, the Plainfield Meeting was joined with the Rahway Meeting many years ago with the title of "The Rahway and Plainfield Monthly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends:, which title is still retained, although the Rahway Meeting passed out of existence some years ago.

Burying GroundsThe plot of land on the border of his farm which was left by John Laing to the Plainfield Meeting in 1731 was large enough to include a burying ground also and when the lot occupied by the first meeting house was re-sold to the Laing family in 1788, it would appear that the burying ground was retained as it was still in existence more than one hundred years later and at the celebration of the Centennial of the Meeting House in 1888, it was strongly urged that the old burying ground should be enclosed and suitably marked. This, however, was not done and the old burying ground appears since to have been ploughed over and obliterated, although its site probably could be determined by proper search. The present burying ground, as is well known, is situated in the rear of the Meeting House upon a part of the original plot.

Quakers- The Laing's & the Shotwell's 1600-1700

The Story of the Friends in PlainfieldIncludingA History of Early Quaker Familiesby William L. DudleyMarch 29, 1929

A faded typed carbon copy of the following history was found in the archives of the Rahway & Plainfield Monthly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends. In connection with the efforts surrounding a recent successful application for a NJ Historical Trust Grant to restore portions of the Meeting House exterior, a number of historical documents surfaced. The meeting recently authorized a committee to assemble and preserve this material, and this web page posting is one result of that effort. ©1998, Rahway & Plainfield Monthly Meeting of the Religious Society of FriendsPlease address any questions, comments, or suggestions for correction to the Webmaster

The story of the Friends in Plainfield . . .
. . . is the story of the community itself for the first hundred years or more, for not only was Plainfield settled by the Friends, but theirs was the dominant influence from its first settlement at about the beginning of the Eighteenth Century until after the coming of the railroad, and the name which they gave to the street upon which their Meeting House is still located, that of Peace Street, lasted until about forty years ago (1889) when the name was changed to Watchung Avenue by a resolution of the City Council. Why the Friends Came to PlainfieldWhy the Friends came to Plainfield is a question which is easily answered, for they were the owners not only of Plainfield but of the entire State of New Jersey. From High Point at the northern end to Cape May at the southernmost tip and from the Atlantic Ocean to the Delaware River, the entire state had passed to the ownership of the Friends by purchase from Lord Berkeley and Sir George Carteret less than twenty years after these proprietors had received it as a gift from the Duke of York at the time the English took over the Dutch possessions in America.
West Jersey was bought by the Quakers of Pennsylvania in 1675 and East Jersey in 1682. The latter group was headed by William Penn himself, and the purchase price was œ3500, equal to about $17,000 in present (1929) currency. Of course this sum was proportionately very much greater in those days than now but even so, it was a purchase which would compare favorably with the celebrated sale of Manhattan Island for $24., for Penn's bargain included the whole of the present state with the exception of the extreme southern and western part.
The purpose of the Friends in buying New Jersey was the same as actuated them in the establishment of Pennsylvania, that is, to afford a refuge from the persecution to which they were subjected in England which became intense after the Duke of York succeeded to the throne with the title of James II in 1685. This led to a very extensive migration which resulted in the settlement of Plainfield and the adjacent territory. There was also a considerable influx of Scotch Covenanters, fleeing from similar persecution, and many settlers came from New York and New England.
What the Friends Found When they came to PlainfieldAs is usually the case in a new country, the progress of settlement was along the water courses and the first settlers reached the site of Plainfield by way of the Raritan River, Bound Brook, Cedar Brook and Green Brook, ascending the latter as far as Scotch Plains, and their first farms were laid out on the level lands upon either side of these streams.
The country was an unbroken wilderness, covered with a dense forest and traversed only by the trails of the Indians. All the possessions which the settlers brought with them, and these were numerous, as they were a well-to-do class of people generally, were transported in sailing vessels up the Raritan River and then carried in boats which were poled up the brooks against the current of the streams. Travel by land was possible only on foot or horseback along the Indian trails.
Payment was made to the Indians for all land taken and, as is well known, the friends never had any difficulties with the original inhabitants of the country, to whom they were known as the "People of Peace".
To the level lands upon which they located, the early settlers gave the name of "the Plains" and the little group of houses soon became known as "The Quaker Settlement on the Plains", the first mention of the name "Plainfield" not appearing until 1707. The Watchung Mountains were termed by them the "Blue Hills" and the highlands at Netherwood were called the "Short Hills".
The Friendly FamiliesAmong the first families who bought land, cleared the forests and established homes here were many whose names are still prominent in the community, though not all of them are yet identified with the Friends. Chief among these were the Websters. The WebstersThe Webster Friends were of Scotch origin. William Webster, the founder, settled east of Plainfield about 1685. His descendants have always lived on adjacent territory. William Webster's oldest son was William Webster, Jr., born in 1692. He married Susannah Cowperthwaite and soon afterwards began housekeeping - about 1718-20 - not far from this spot, on a large farm through which Cedar Brook ran, and which probably extended to Green Brook. This pioneer's home was on the south side of the stream where Prospect Avenue now crosses. In this home, one of the earliest inland settlements, were eleven

About 1718 William Webster (born 1692) and his wife, Susannah Cowperthwait, came and built their house near the east bank of Cedar Brook, about where Prospect avenue now is (his first child was born 1718; see "Records, Plainfield Meeting.")

In 1720 John Shotwell "of Plainfield" (i. e., of the Plainfield Meeting), came and settled on the Fullerton tract. Another prominent Friend, John Vail, purchased 1,200 acres of Peter Sonmans in 1731. It was the northeast end of Sonmans' great tract, and joined John Shotwell on the northeast. He was of Woodbridge, and his wife was Martha Fitz Randolph. His son John (2nd), who was born at Woodbridge in 1713, married (1) Margaret Laing, and (2), about 1750, her sister, Mary Laing, both daughters of John Laing. John Vail (1st) was a millwright and, about 1735, built a mill on Greenbrook near Grand avenue, at what was later Tier's pond. He was a Quaker preacher, and lived until 1774, dying in his 89th year, but his son John died in 1754, when only 41 years of age. About 1760 William Webster owned the Vail gristmill; French's mill, as known to the present generation, is said to date from about 1782, but by whom built does not appear.[1]

Peter Sonmans found sales slow. In 1733 he sold 660 acres at the southwest end of his tract to Henry Slydorn, who sold again, in 1735, to Adrian Vermeule and his brother-in-law, Dirck Cadmus, of Bergen. This tract extended along present Front street from Clinton avenue to within 200 feet of Geraud avenue, thence northwest to the mountains. When it was surveyed in 1733, "the widow Miller" had a house near the present intersection of Front street and Clinton avenue. (Doubtless she was the widow of Andrew Miller of Piscataway, and the mother of Rev. Benjamin Miller (1715-1781), pastor of Scotch Plains Baptist Church, but proof is not absolute). Adrian Vermeule died at Bergen shortly after purchasing, but his widow and two sons—Frederick, who never married, and Cornelius—occupied two-thirds of the purchase at once. Dirck Cadmus never came, but his son Andries occupied his third about 1765.

In 1734 William Webster purchased of Sonmans a tract extending north from present Watchung avenue to John Vail's land. After Sonmans' death, Judge Samuel Nevill, his executor, sold the remainder of the tract to Isaac Drake, Isaac Manning, Peter Wooden, Andrew Drake, Thomas Clawson, Richard Lenox and the Vermeules, all before 1745. Of these Isaac Drake already owned a tract east of Cedar Brook, of which the south line is now Randolph road. He was born in Piscataway, Middlesex county, in 1686. He was the son of Rev. John and Rebecca [1] As to mills generally in this place and vicinity, Henry Lines had one in 1738, where Mountain avenue now crosses Green Brook, near Scotch Plains. In 1740, Lawrence Reuth had a mill up in the gap back of Scotch Plains, just above what was later Seely's mill. Luke Covert built a mill at Rock avenue and Green Brook about 1760, and this was purchased by Cornelius Vermeule after passing through the hands of Abner Hampton, in 1767. It was there through the Revolution. Just before the Revolution the Vermeules built a second mill about 600 yards below the present West End avenue bridge. During the Revolution John Manning had a mill on Stony Brook in the gap, and Isaac Doty had two, a grist and saw mill farther up stream, the latter being where the large ice plant now is at Washingtonville.

died before the birth of the second, and it may very likely have been she who married Thomas (5) Vail as above noted. There were two other sons of Mary (4) Vail and Edward Drake who are possible fathers of our Mary, wife of Thomas (5) Vail; i. e., Joseph Drake and Andrew Drake, the latter of whom married Eunice Martin and had six children.

Note: See later (under John (3) Vail, Q. P.), for a fuller discussion of the Drake family, a prominent and propigating people of Piscataway, N. J., who have many descendants about Plainfield.

2. BENJAMIN (5) VAIL, second child of Stephen (4) and Esther (Smith) Vail, was born in 1736. He married and died young in New Jersey. I have no further data concerning him.

3. STEPHEN (5) VAIL; b. 23 August, & d. 14 September, 1738; aet. 3 weeks.

4. STEPHEN (5) VAIL, JR. (again); b. 19 December, 1739, at Green Brook, N. J. He married thrice; 1st. between 19 November, 1761, and the 16 December, 1761, to Rebecca Jackson. He married 2nd. 26 October, 1763, Sarah Smith, who was the daughter of Shobel Smith, being probably the Sarah Smith who was born 2 November, 1720. Stephen's wife Sarah died 31 August, 1769. Stephen (5) Vail removed from New Jersey with his brother Abraham about 1790, going to Uniontown, Pennsylvania, and later (1800) went to Ohio, again with his brother Abraham and this time also with a younger brother who had come that year from New Jersey, (this being Samuel (5) Vail), where he was one of the founders of Middletown, Ohio.

Stephen (5) Vail was a miller and a farmer. He built the first dam across the Big Miami River.

Stephen (5) and his 2nd. wife Sarah had three children:

(a) SAMUEL (6) VAIL; b. 20 October, 1765, at Green Brook, N. J. He lived there and is said to have died there. The date of his death is 12 April, 1830. Samuel (6) Vail was known as "Ohio Samuel" Vail.—which would seem to indicate that he went with his father to the West; if so, he returned to Green Brook, N. J., before 5 April, 1796, the date of the birth of his son Moses (7) Vail which occurred at Green Brook.

Samuel (6) owned a grist mill and a saw mill near his home and also a saw mill at Coon Town. He also was a clothier. His fulling mill was the first cloth dressing establishment in that part of the country, and the carding machine in connection with it was a great convenience to the neighbourhood as the families of the farmers at that time made their own cloth.

Samuel (6) Vail married 21 November, 1787, his second cousin Prudence (6) Vail who was born 6 March, 1770, at Green Brook, N. J. and died 25 September, 1849. "Ohio Samuel" and Prudence Vail are said to have had nine children, of whom but one, i. e. Moses (7) Vail, is now known to us.

Note: For further data re Samuel (6), Prudence (6) and their son Moses (7) Vail and his family, v. ante.

(b) MOSES (6) VAIL, second son of Stephen (5) and Sarah (Smith) Vail, was born 24 August, 1767. He was a member of the Chesterfield Monthly Meeting by certificate from the Rahway and Plainfield M. M. dated 18 November, 1784. He was a surveyor and millwright. Moses (6) removed from New Jersey to Ohio where he built grist mills along the Big Miami River. He married 29 March, 1789, Mary Smalley, daughter of John and Amy (or Mary) Smalley who was a cousin of General "Stonewall" Jackson, C.S.A. The mother Mary (or Amy) Smalley was born a Sutton.

Moses (6) Vail died in the year 1829.

Moses (6) and Mary (Smalley) Vail had children including a son HIRAM SMALLEY (7) VAIL, (b. 1809, d. 1874) prominent merchant of Franklin, Ohio, who married 25 December, 1828, Rachel Barkalow, daughter of W. P. and Mary (Tapscott) Barkalow.

Hiram S. (7) and Rachel had Derrick Garrett (8) Vail, (b. 1834, d. 1913), a manufacturer of Franklin, Ohio, who married 2 December, 1858, Elizabeth Tilton Lane, daughter of John and Ann (Vanderveer) Lane. Elizabeth was b. 1835; d. 1911.

Derrick G. (8) Vail and Elizabeth had these nine children:

1. Albert Corwin (9) Vail; b. 1859; m. Abigail Corwin.
2. Catherine Lane (9) Vail; b. 1861; m. Charles E. Greathouse.
3. George Fay (9) Vail; b. 1862; m. Rose Stickleman.
4. Derrick Tilton (9) Vail; b. 2 October, 1864 at Franklin, Ohio. (v. infra).
5. Hiram Smalley (9) Vail; b. 1866; d. 1867, an infant.

History

Samuel^2 Vail (Thomas^1) was born 1654 in Southampton, Long Island, New York, and died June 26, 1695 in Westchester, Westchester Co., New York, U.S.A.. He married Elizabeth Hunt 1677 in Southampton, Long Island New York. She was born 1657 in Woodbridge, New Jersey, and died November 03, 1747 in Woodbridge, New Jersey. Notes for Samuel Vail:Genealogical and Personal Memorial of Mercer County, New Jersey Vol 1 II) Samuel Vail, fourth son of Jeremiah Vail, married Elizabeth, who bore him the following children: Samuel, of whom later; Martha, born January 27, 1681, married Edward Burling, died 1742; John, born 1685, married Martha F. Randolph, died November 17, 1774; Daniel, born 1687, married Hannah Griffin, died October 4, 1747; Arthur, born 1691; Thomas, married Rachel F. Randolph, died March 16, 1717. After the death of Samuel Vail his widow removed from Westchester, New York, to Woodbridge, New Jersey. She married (second) Mr. Gach; (third) John Griffin. Soldier in King Philip's War, yeoman and freeholder of Westchester. m Elizabeth Hunt (their son, Rev. John Vail, was a noted Quaker preacher and the ancestor of Alfred Vail, inventor of 1st telegraph key and alphabetical code, and of Theodore N. Vail, pres. Western Union Tel. Co.); Samuel (2) Vail was born 1654 and died 1691-1695. He married Elizabeth (Hunt?) who was born 1657; died 3rd 9th mo., 1747, aged 91 years, and near 6 mos. (v. Extracts Vol. 8:23, Vail Papers; also Records of Rahway M. M.). Samuel (2) Vail (1654-1691) was a soldier in King Philip's War, (v. Abr. Comp. Am. Geneal: p. 232), being 21 years old when so engaged -- this war having been fought in 1675-1676. His marriage to Elizabeth took place when he was about 23 years old (1677). He died at 37 years of age (1691 or 1695) leaving his widow Elizabeth. Samuel (2) Vail is the only one of his generation and in Westchester who had as wife one whose Christian name was Elizabeth. We have already proven that Elizabeth in her will is the mother of John (3) Vail who in early youth removed from Westchester. We will now give the records that prove the connection of Samuel (2) Vail with Elizabeth (---), whose maiden name has not yet been definitely found. (Probably Hunt).

In the Westchester Co., N. Y. Records, Book A: 298 is found a deed of sale, dated 14 December, 1688, in which it is stated "Samuel Vail of the County Town of Westchester, within the Dontinion of New England, yeoman, -- Know ye that for and in consideration of a valuable sum of money in hand paid unto my father Thomas Vail, deceased, by William Richardson of the same place, yeoman. "---" And the said Samuel Uail and Elizabeth his wife in consideration of the aforesaid sum of money grants unto the said William Richardson land, 2 1/2 acres on Castle Hill Neck. Signed Samuell Uaill Elizabeth Uaill" Again in the Westchester Records we find that Samuel (2) Vail was husband of the foregoing Elizabeth and also son of Thomas Vail, as follows: 1689. "Samuel Vail of Westchester and his wife Elizabeth, deed land under contract of sale by 'his father Thomas Vail, deceased,'" "of whom I am the Right heir," to William Richardson on Castle Hill Neck, 1695. Samuel (2) Vail died before 26 June, 1695, leaving Elizabeth a widow on or before this date, for the Westchester Records tell us that "Elizabeth Vail, widow of Samuel Vail, late deceased, quitclaims land to Thomas Hunt." The foregoing three references amply prove the connection between Samuel (2) Vail and Elizabeth (---). Their son Samuel (3) was born October, 1678; so we infer, in the absence of other data, that they were married about 1677; this would make Elizabeth 20 years old at marriage. We know Elizabeth, wife of Samuel, was born 1657, which brings us to an approximate date of birth of her husband. Samuel (2) Vail was born about 1655-'57. Samuel (2) Vail purchased land in Westchester as early as 22 June, 1678, the year his son Samuel (3) was born, and probably began housekeeping a little before this time. The Westchester Town Records show that he was possessed of several parcels of land in Westchester. He sells land "lately in the possession of my father, Thomas Vail" to John Palmer, 22 January, 1678, (Westchester Town Rec. Vol. 1:57). Again he deeds land to Walter Bebly in 1681, (Vol. 1:88). Again the following year, 1682, he deeds land to Thomas Hunt, for £17-35, 1683. In the rating of the inhabitants of Westchester in 1683, Samuel (2) Vail had "3 acres upland, 2 yearlings, 2 sheep," (v. Colonial Documents, N. Y., Vol. 13:574.)

1686. He is a Freeholder of the Town of Westchester, having a £25. share, (v. Westch. Town Rec. Vol. 2:8), and also he is allotted in the division of the land, 10 acres for every £25. share lot No. 31. which was "on the East side of Brunkses River." (loc. cit.). Also on the same date, 3 May, 1687, and in the same manner he obtained lot No. 35. "fronting on the sheep pasture." His father Thomas died before 1689, for in that year he sold land on Castle Hill Neck to which he fell heir, to William Richardson, and in 1690 deeds land to Thomas (2) Vail, Jr., of Eastchester, his (Samuel's) brother. He (Samuel (2) Vail) died before June, 1695, leaving his widow Elizabeth and four children, viz: Samuel (3), b. 21 December, 1678, d. 26 June, 1733; Martha (3), b. 27 November, 1681; John (3), the Quaker Preacher, b. 1685; d. 17 November, 1774; and Thomas (3). The last recorded evidence of Samuel (2) Vail which a partial search reveals, is found in the land record of Westchester Co., N. Y., and reads "Elizabeth Vail, widow of Samuel Vail late of Westchester, quitclaims 26 June, 1695, land to Thomas Hunt." Notes for Elizabeth Hunt:Elizabeth married (2nd.) Thomas Gach (Gauge) of Westchester, N. Y., a ship builder, who owned a house and land in Westchester. Thomas Gach, Sr., and Elizabeth moved from West Chester, N. Y., to Woodbridge, N. J., about the year 1701. As her 3rd. husband, Elizabeth (Hunt, Vail, Gach) married John Griffith the 20 October, 1709. And it is as Elizabeth Griffith, of Woodbridge, N. J., that she makes her last Will and Testament on the 21 June, 1739.

The Vail Papers (Vol. 18:44) quote from the Westchester Town Records, the "sale of a house and 8 acres of land formerly owned by Thomas Gach, in Westchester" -- sold by Joseph Appleby to Samuel Vail (son of Elizabeth and Samuel (2) Vail) 28 February, 1705-6. Thomas Gach and wife removed from Westchester, N. Y., to Woodbridge, N. J., about the year 1701. We infer this from a deed of sale of "a house and lot at Woodbridge, N. J., 14 April, 1701, sold by Thomas Codrington and wife to Thomas Gauge, late of Westchester, N. Y., Shipwright." (v. N. J. Archives, 1st Ser. Vol. 21: 140).

Thomas Guage died between the 28th March, 1703 and 23 April, 1703, dates of his will. It states he lived in Woodbridge; was a ship carpenter; it names Elizabeth as Executor, son Thomas and apparently other children, also names his "son-in-law, Thomas Veale" (v. N. J. Arch. 1st Ser. Vol. 23:182; also Middlesex Co. Wills). His inventory amounted to 171-6-0, including half interest in a boat equal to 130. Elizabeth had at least two Gach children, viz: Mary and Thomas. Mary Gach married William Bloodgood, 1727. (v. Shotwell Family, p. 186; also Vail Papers, Vol. 16:13). Thomas Gach, mentioned in his mother's will, was an active member of the Woodbridge M. M. until disowned for quarreling with his brother. He was clerk of the Town of Woodbridge for many years, (v. Woodbridge and Vicinity, p. 71).

Elizabeth, the widow of Samuel (2) Vail and later the widow of Thomas Gach, of Woodbridge, married (3rd.) John Griffith, 20 October, 1709. He was from Bucks Co., Penna., and brought a "Certificate of Clearness" from the Middletown, M. M. Bucks Co., Penna. He became an active member of the Woodbridge Friends Meeting (v. Shotwell Family, p. 188.) Elizabeth is believed to have had no children by this marriage, being at the time of marriage 52 years of age.

She appears as Elizabeth Gach in the Woodbridge M. M. Records as early as 19 December, 1706. She took a lively and consecrated part in all activities of the Friends Meeting. She supervised the care of the Meeting House and in other ways looked to the comfort of the Society. Doubtless she was the most popular match-maker among these early Quakers for we have counted not fewer than a half a dozen couples "presented to the Meeting," intending to marry. She made legal provision for her children at the time of her third marriage and conducted her whole life as a loving parent and a "Mother in Israel." She made her home with her son Thomas at one time, at another with her daughter, Mary Bloodgood.

Her will was found among the papers of the estate of John (5) Vail of Littleton, N. J., a grand-son of John the Quaker Preacher. It was found by Alfred Vail, and recorded among the Vail Papers. It is one of the documents which proves Elizabeth Griffith to be the mother of John (3) Vail. Being thus important it is herewith annexed.

Mary Bloodgood, mentioned ante, died 28 June, 1760, aged 59 years, 10 mo.; therefore born 28 August, 1700. Consequently Elizabeth Vail married Thomas Gach before 1700, or about 1699 perhaps. Elizabeth, wife of Samuel (2) Vail, is the connecting link between the Westchester, N. Y., Vails and a numerous progeny, in Essex Co., N. J., primarily, but now widely extended in the United States and abroad. The maiden name of Elizabeth has not been definitely found yet; but as she is so important in establishing the connection she demands consideration. She was thrice married : (1st.) to Samuel (2) Vail about 1677, for her first child, Samuel (3), was born 21 December, 1678. That she was the wife and later the widow of Samuel Vail is assured beyond doubt in a land record of Westchester which reads, "Elizabeth Uail quitclaims land to Thomas Hunt." (v. Vail Papers, Vol. 18: 44, No. 82). The full reading of this extract from the "Westchester Town Records," is, "Elizabeth Uail, widow of Samuel Vail late of Westchester, quitclaims, etc." dated 6th June, 1695. The last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Griffith of Woodbridge, N. J. : Forasmuch as it is appointed for all people some day to die and the time when very uncertain, I, Elizabeth Griffith, of Woodbridge, in the County of Middlesex and Province of East New Jersey, being weak in body, but of a sound, disposing mind and memory and inclined to dispose of the estate that the Lord hath to bless me with, do make this, my last will and testament in manner following: That is to say,

First of all, I desire to resign my soul to God Almighty who gave it me, whensoever it shall please Hlin to call for it; and my body to the earth, to receive such decent burial as my executors hereinafter named shall think convenient; and as touching my worldly estate, I give and bequeath the same as followeth, viz: First, I give and direct that my daughter, Mary Bloodgood, the wife of William Bloodgood shall be fully paid for the trouble that I have been and shall be to them.

Item, I give and bequeath to my son Thomas Gach all that remains in his hands (at the time of my decease) of those goods that I have left with him when I came to live with my son in law, William Bloodgood.

Item, I give and bequeath to my son John Vail the sum of £10, which he has already got in his hands; my will further is that all the meadows which my husband left me to divide at my discretion, shall be divided between my son John Vail and my son Thomas Gach, that is to say that my son John Vail shall have all that my son Thomas Gach has given him a quitclaim for, to be enjoyed by him, his heirs and assigns forever. Item, I give and bequeath to my two daughters, Martha Burling, the wife of Edward Burling of New York and Mary Bloodgood, the wife of William Bloodgood of Woodbridge all the remaining part of my estate to be equally divided between them,.

Lastly, I nominate, constitute and appoint my two daughters, Martha Burling and Mary Bloodgood, executors of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all others and former wills by me at any time heretofore made, declaring this and this only to be my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 19 21st day of the Fourth Month, commonly called June, in the Year of our Lord, 1739. Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Elizabeth Griffith as her last will and testament in the presence of its subscribers. Elizabeth Griffith. John Shotwell. Thomas Pike. Joseph Shotwell. Whereas, my daughter, Martha, is dead, mentioned In this will to be my executrix with my daughter Mary; now it is my further will be put my son John Vail Executor in her room and place, giving my son, John all power and privilege that my said daughter, Martha, had in the said will, relating thereunto being had may further appear. In testimony hereof I have hereunto set my hand this 17th 10th Mo., 1742. Elizabeth Griffith. Witness: Abraham Shotwell." More About Samuel Vail and Elizabeth Hunt:Marriage: 1677, Southampton, Long Island New York Children of Samuel Vail and Elizabeth Hunt are: 10i. Daniel^3 Vail. Notes for Daniel Vail:He married 10 October, 1717, Hannah Griffing (or Griffin), and they had 15 children. The earliest word we have about Daniel (3) Vaill is that he was living at Southold, L. I. Of his 15 children only five lived to grow up; this extreme mortality among the members of his family during their infancy at Southold may have been the reason for Daniel's removal to Connecticut, where he became the founder of the Connecticut Class of Vails +11 ii. Samuel Vail,Jr., born December 21, 1678 in Westchester County, New York; died June 26, 1733 in Woodbridge, New Jersey, U.S.A.. 12iii. Martha Vail, born November 27, 1681 in Westchester County, New York; died Bef. December 17, 1742. She married Edward Burling. +13 iv. Rev. John J. Vail, born 1685 in Westchester Co., New York, USA; died November 27, 1774 in Rahway, New Jersey, U.S.A.. +14 v. Sarah Vail, born Abt. 1687 in Middlesex County, New Jersey. +15 vi. Arthur Vail, born 1691 in Westchester County, New York; died 1776 in Eastchester, New York. 16vii. Thomas Vail, born 1695 in Westchester County, New York; died May 1718 in Woodbridge, New Jersey. He married Rachel FitzRandolph July 15, 1717 in Woodbridge, New Jersey; born May 15, 1698; died 1722. Notes for Thomas Vail:Thomas (3) Vail at the Woodbridge M. M. of 21 February, 1716/17, declared with Experience Fitz Randolph their first intention of marriage. They again declared their intention before the Meeting on the 21 March, 1716/17 at which time permission was granted. This marriage, however, did not eventuate, for we find that at a meeting held 20 June, 1717, two persons were appointed to speak to Mrs. Experience Moore and bring her to a sense of her outgoings, she having twice declared her intention of marrying Thomas Vail and not performing the same, but marrying another man, out of the Unity of the Meeting and without the consent of her parents. It being out of the power of Thomas Vail to recover this refractory one we find him with Rachel Fitz Randolph on the 15 August and on the 19 September, 1717, at the Woodbridge M. M. declaring their 1st and 2nd. intention of marriage and receiving the consent of the Meeting. Rachel was probably a sister of Experience. The will of Thomas (3) Vail is recorded in Lieber A. at Trenton, N. J., (v. also N. J. Archives, 1st Ser., Vol. 23:475), and was signed and sealed the 11 March, 1717, and proved on the 13 June, 1718, he having died about a year after his marriage. In his will he bequeaths all his property to his wife Rachel and brother; no mention being made of any children it is to be assumed that there were none. "Lastly, I constitute and appoint Rachel my beloved wife and my brother John Veal to be Executors." Consequently John (3) Vail, Q. P., must have been his brother, since John (4) Vail, son of Samuel (3) Vail was at this time only 10 years of age and his brother Thomas (4) Vail was born in 1714. Hence this last named Thomas Vail could not have been the testator Thomas. Therefore Thomas (3) Vail of Woodbridge, N. J., was brother of John (3) Vail, Q. P. He is half-brother to Mary Bloodgood. In the Bible of John Vail, Senior, is found "My sister Mary Bloodgood departed this life --- &c." (v. Vail Papers, Vol. 16:33.) Mary Bloodgood was his half-sister. In the above will Thomas (3) Vail gives to his cousins Thomas Heady, Jr., and John Crowell, son of Edward Crowell, in addition to his wife Rachel and his brother John. Thomas (3) Vail died between the 15 May and the 13 June, 1718. In his will Thomas describes himself as a "Yeoman of Woodbridge." 2. Samuel2 Vail (Thomas1) was born 1654 in Southampton, Long Island, New York, and died June 26, 1695 in Westchester, Westchester Co., New York, U.S.A.. He married Elizabeth Hunt 1677 in Southampton, Long Island New York. She was born 1657 in Woodbridge, New Jersey, and died November 03, 1747 in Woodbridge, New Jersey. Notes for Samuel Vail:Genealogical and Personal Memorial of Mercer County, New Jersey Vol 1 II) Samuel Vail, fourth son of Jeremiah Vail, married Elizabeth, who bore him the following children: Samuel, of whom later; Martha, born January 27, 1681, married Edward Burling, died 1742; John, born 1685, married Martha F. Randolph, died November 17, 1774; Daniel, born 1687, married Hannah Griffin, died October 4, 1747; Arthur, born 1691; Thomas, married Rachel F. Randolph, died March 16, 1717. After the death of Samuel Vail his widow removed from Westchester, New York, to Woodbridge, New Jersey. She married (second) Mr. Gach; (third) John Griffin. Soldier in King Philip's War, yeoman and freeholder of Westchester. m Elizabeth Hunt (their son, Rev. John Vail, was a noted Quaker preacher and the ancestor of Alfred Vail, inventor of 1st telegraph key and alphabetical code, and of Theodore N. Vail, pres. Western Union Tel. Co.); Samuel (2) Vail was born 1654 and died 1691-1695. He married Elizabeth (Hunt?) who was born 1657; died 3rd 9th mo., 1747, aged 91 years, and near 6 mos. (v. Extracts Vol. 8:23, Vail Papers; also Records of Rahway M. M.). Samuel (2) Vail (1654-1691) was a soldier in King Philip's War, (v. Abr. Comp. Am. Geneal: p. 232), being 21 years old when so engaged -- this war having been fought in 1675-1676. His marriage to Elizabeth took place when he was about 23 years old (1677). He died at 37 years of age (1691 or 1695) leaving his widow Elizabeth. Samuel (2) Vail is the only one of his generation and in Westchester who had as wife one whose Christian name was Elizabeth. We have already proven that Elizabeth in her will is the mother of John (3) Vail who in early youth removed from Westchester. We will now give the records that prove the connection of Samuel (2) Vail with Elizabeth (---), whose maiden name has not yet been definitely found. (Probably Hunt). In the Westchester Co., N. Y. Records, Book A: 298 is found a deed of sale, dated 14 December, 1688, in which it is stated "Samuel Vail of the County Town of Westchester, within the Dontinion of New England, yeoman, -- Know ye that for and in consideration of a valuable sum of money in hand paid unto my father Thomas Vail, deceased, by William Richardson of the same place, yeoman. "---" And the said Samuel Uail and Elizabeth his wife in consideration of the aforesaid sum of money grants unto the said William Richardson land, 2 1/2 acres on Castle Hill Neck. Signed Samuell Uaill Elizabeth Uaill" Again in the Westchester Records we find that Samuel (2) Vail was husband of the foregoing Elizabeth and also son of Thomas Vail, as follows: 1689. "Samuel Vail of Westchester and his wife Elizabeth, deed land under contract of sale by 'his father Thomas Vail, deceased,'" "of whom I am the Right heir," to William Richardson on Castle Hill Neck, 1695. Samuel (2) Vail died before 26 June, 1695, leaving Elizabeth a widow on or before this date, for the Westchester Records tell us that "Elizabeth Vail, widow of Samuel Vail, late deceased, quitclaims land to Thomas Hunt." The foregoing three references amply prove the connection between Samuel (2) Vail and Elizabeth (---). Their son Samuel (3) was born October, 1678; so we infer, in the absence of other data, that they were married about 1677; this would make Elizabeth 20 years old at marriage. We know Elizabeth, wife of Samuel, was born 1657, which brings us to an approximate date of birth of her husband. Samuel (2) Vail was born about 1655-'57. Samuel (2) Vail purchased land in Westchester as early as 22 June, 1678, the year his son Samuel (3) was born, and probably began housekeeping a little before this time. The Westchester Town Records show that he was possessed of several parcels of land in Westchester. He sells land "lately in the possession of my father, Thomas Vail" to John Palmer, 22 January, 1678, (Westchester Town Rec. Vol. 1:57). Again he deeds land to Walter Bebly in 1681, (Vol. 1:88). Again the following year, 1682, he deeds land to Thomas Hunt, for £17-35, 1683. In the rating of the inhabitants of Westchester in 1683, Samuel (2) Vail had "3 acres upland, 2 yearlings, 2 sheep," (v. Colonial Documents, N. Y., Vol. 13:574.) 1686. He is a Freeholder of the Town of Westchester, having a £25. share, (v. Westch. Town Rec. Vol. 2:8), and also he is allotted in the division of the land, 10 acres for every £25. share lot No. 31. which was "on the East side of Brunkses River." (loc. cit.). Also on the same date, 3 May, 1687, and in the same manner he obtained lot No. 35. "fronting on the sheep pasture." His father Thomas died before 1689, for in that year he sold land on Castle Hill Neck to which he fell heir, to William Richardson, and in 1690 deeds land to Thomas (2) Vail, Jr., of Eastchester, his (Samuel's) brother. He (Samuel (2) Vail) died before June, 1695, leaving his widow Elizabeth and four children, viz: Samuel (3), b. 21 December, 1678, d. 26 June, 1733; Martha (3), b. 27 November, 1681; John (3), the Quaker Preacher, b. 1685; d. 17 November, 1774; and Thomas (3). The last recorded evidence of Samuel (2) Vail which a partial search reveals, is found in the land record of Westchester Co., N. Y., and reads "Elizabeth Vail, widow of Samuel Vail late of Westchester, quitclaims 26 June, 1695, land to Thomas Hunt." Notes for Elizabeth Hunt:Elizabeth married (2nd.) Thomas Gach (Gauge) of Westchester, N. Y., a ship builder, who owned a house and land in Westchester. Thomas Gach, Sr., and Elizabeth moved from West Chester, N. Y., to Woodbridge, N. J., about the year 1701. As her 3rd. husband, Elizabeth (Hunt, Vail, Gach) married John Griffith the 20 October, 1709. And it is as Elizabeth Griffith, of Woodbridge, N. J., that she makes her last Will and Testament on the 21 June, 1739. The Vail Papers (Vol. 18:44) quote from the Westchester Town Records, the "sale of a house and 8 acres of land formerly owned by Thomas Gach, in Westchester" -- sold by Joseph Appleby to Samuel Vail (son of Elizabeth and Samuel (2) Vail) 28 February, 1705-6. Thomas Gach and wife removed from Westchester, N. Y., to Woodbridge, N. J., about the year 1701. We infer this from a deed of sale of "a house and lot at Woodbridge, N. J., 14 April, 1701, sold by Thomas Codrington and wife to Thomas Gauge, late of Westchester, N. Y., Shipwright." (v. N. J. Archives, 1st Ser. Vol. 21: 140). Thomas Guage died between the 28th March, 1703 and 23 April, 1703, dates of his will. It states he lived in Woodbridge; was a ship carpenter; it names Elizabeth as Executor, son Thomas and apparently other children, also names his "son-in-law,

Thomas Veale" (v. N. J. Arch. 1st Ser. Vol. 23:182; also Middlesex Co. Wills). His inventory amounted to 171-6-0, including half interest in a boat equal to 130. Elizabeth had at least two Gach children, viz: Mary and Thomas. Mary Gach married William Bloodgood, 1727. (v. Shotwell Family, p. 186; also Vail Papers, Vol. 16:13). Thomas Gach, mentioned in his mother's will, was an active member of the Woodbridge M. M. until disowned for quarreling with his brother. He was clerk of the Town of Woodbridge for many years, (v. Woodbridge and Vicinity, p. 71). Elizabeth, the widow of Samuel (2) Vail and later the widow of Thomas Gach, of Woodbridge, married (3rd.) John Griffith, 20 October, 1709. He was from Bucks Co., Penna., and brought a "Certificate of Clearness" from the Middletown, M. M. Bucks Co., Penna. He became an active member of the Woodbridge Friends Meeting (v. Shotwell Family, p. 188.) Elizabeth is believed to have had no children by this marriage, being at the time of marriage 52 years of age. She appears as Elizabeth Gach in the Woodbridge M. M. Records as early as 19 December, 1706. She took a lively and consecrated part in all activities of the Friends Meeting. She supervised the care of the Meeting House and in other ways looked to the comfort of the Society. Doubtless she was the most popular match-maker among these early Quakers for we have counted not fewer than a half a dozen couples "presented to the Meeting," intending to marry. She made legal provision for her children at the time of her third marriage and conducted her whole life as a loving parent and a "Mother in Israel." She made her home with her son Thomas at one time, at another with her daughter, Mary Bloodgood. Her will was found among the papers of the estate of John (5) Vail of Littleton, N. J., a grand-son of John the Quaker Preacher. It was found by Alfred Vail, and recorded among the Vail Papers. It is one of the documents which proves Elizabeth Griffith to be the mother of John (3) Vail. Being thus important it is herewith annexed. Mary Bloodgood, mentioned ante, died 28 June, 1760, aged 59 years, 10 mo.; therefore born 28 August, 1700. Consequently Elizabeth Vail married Thomas Gach before 1700, or about 1699 perhaps. Elizabeth, wife of Samuel (2) Vail, is the connecting link between the Westchester, N. Y., Vails and a numerous progeny, in Essex Co., N. J., primarily, but now widely extended in the United States and abroad. The maiden name of Elizabeth has not been definitely found yet; but as she is so important in establishing the connection she demands consideration. She was thrice married : (1st.) to Samuel (2) Vail about 1677, for her first child, Samuel (3), was born 21 December, 1678. That she was the wife and later the widow of Samuel Vail is assured beyond doubt in a land record of Westchester which reads, "Elizabeth Uail quitclaims land to Thomas Hunt." (v. Vail Papers, Vol. 18: 44, No. 82). The full reading of this extract from the "Westchester Town Records," is, "Elizabeth Uail, widow of Samuel Vail late of Westchester, quitclaims, etc." dated 6th June, 1695. The last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Griffith of Woodbridge, N. J. : Forasmuch as it is appointed for all people some day to die and the time when very uncertain, I, Elizabeth Griffith, of Woodbridge, in the County of Middlesex and Province of East New Jersey, being weak in body, but of a sound, disposing mind and memory and inclined to dispose of the estate that the Lord hath to bless me with, do make this, my last will and testament in manner following: That is to say, First of all, I desire to resign my soul to God Almighty who gave it me, whensoever it shall please Hlin to call for it; and my body to the earth, to receive such decent burial as my executors hereinafter named shall think convenient; and as touching my worldly estate, I give and bequeath the same as followeth, viz: First, I give and direct that my daughter, Mary Bloodgood, the wife of William Bloodgood shall be fully paid for the trouble that I have been and shall be to them. Item, I give and bequeath to my son Thomas Gach all that remains in his hands (at the time of my decease) of those goods that I have left with him when I came to live with my son in law, William Bloodgood. Item, I give and bequeath to my son John Vail the sum of £10, which he has already got in his hands; my will further is that all the meadows which my husband left me to divide at my discretion, shall be divided between my son John Vail and my son Thomas Gach, that is to say that my son John Vail shall have all that my son Thomas Gach has given him a quitclaim for, to be enjoyed by him, his heirs and assigns forever. Item, I give and bequeath to my two daughters, Martha Burling, the wife of Edward Burling of New York and Mary Bloodgood, the wife of William Bloodgood of Woodbridge all the remaining part of my estate to be equally divided between them,. Lastly, I nominate, constitute and appoint my two daughters, Martha Burling and Mary Bloodgood, executors of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all others and former wills by me at any time heretofore made, declaring this and this only to be my last will and testament. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 19 21st day of the Fourth Month, commonly called June, in the Year of our Lord, 1739. Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Elizabeth Griffith as her last will and testament in the presence of its subscribers. Elizabeth Griffith. John Shotwell. Thomas Pike. Joseph Shotwell. Whereas, my daughter, Martha, is dead, mentioned In this will to be my executrix with my daughter Mary; now it is my further will be put my son John Vail Executor in her room and place, giving my son, John all power and privilege that my said daughter, Martha, had in the said will, relating thereunto being had may further appear. In testimony hereof I have hereunto set my hand this 17th 10th Mo., 1742. Elizabeth Griffith. Witness: Abraham Shotwell." Notes for Daniel Vail:He married 10 October, 1717, Hannah Griffing (or Griffin), and they had 15 children. The earliest word we have about Daniel (3) Vaill is that he was living at Southold, L. I. Of his 15 children only five lived to grow up; this extreme mortality among the members of his family during their infancy at Southold may have been the reason for Daniel's removal to Connecticut, where he became the founder of the Connecticut Class of Vails + 11 ii. He married Rachel FitzRandolph July 15, 1717 in Woodbridge, New Jersey; born May 15, 1698; died 1722. Notes for Thomas Vail:Thomas (3) Vail at the Woodbridge M. M. of 21 February, 1716/17, declared with Experience Fitz Randolph their first intention of marriage. They again declared their intention before the Meeting on the 21 March, 1716/17 at which time permission was granted. This marriage, however, did not eventuate, for we find that at a meeting held 20 June, 1717, two persons were appointed to speak to Mrs. Experience Moore and bring her to a sense of her outgoings, she having twice declared her intention of marrying Thomas Vail and not performing the same, but marrying another man, out of the Unity of the Meeting and without the consent of her parents. It being out of the power of Thomas Vail to recover this refractory one we find him with Rachel Fitz Randolph on the 15 August and on the 19 September, 1717, at the Woodbridge M. M. declaring their 1st and 2nd. intention of marriage and receiving the consent of the Meeting. Rachel was probably a sister of Experience. The will of Thomas (3) Vail is recorded in Lieber A. at Trenton, N. J., (v. also N. J. Archives, 1st Ser., Vol. 23:475), and was signed and sealed the 11 March, 1717, and proved on the 13 June, 1718, he having died about a year after his marriage. In his will he bequeaths all his property to his wife Rachel and brother; no mention being made of any children it is to be assumed that there were none. "Lastly, I constitute and appoint Rachel my beloved wife and my brother John Veal to be Executors." Consequently John (3) Vail, Q. P., must have been his brother, since John (4) Vail, son of Samuel (3) Vail was at this time only 10 years of age and his brother Thomas (4) Vail was born in 1714. Hence this last named Thomas Vail could not have been the testator Thomas. Therefore Thomas (3) Vail of Woodbridge, N. J., was brother of John (3) Vail, Q. P. He is half-brother to Mary Bloodgood. In the Bible of John Vail, Senior, is found "My sister Mary Bloodgood departed this life — &c." (v. Vail Papers, Vol. 16:33.) Mary Bloodgood was his half-sister. In the above will Thomas (3) Vail gives to his cousins Thomas Heady, Jr., and John Crowell, son of Edward Crowell, in addition to his wife Rachel and his brother John. Thomas (3) Vail died between the 15 May and the 13 June, 1718. In his will Thomas describes himself as a "Yeoman of Woodbridge." at the head of this present Peace St., just beyond where it crossed the old stage road, now Front St., surveyed and opened several years earlier as the road from Scotch Plains to Piscataway. This mill right has existed ever since, and the grain of the pioneer planters was ground at this original site till 1782, when Taylor Webster, a son of the builder, was granted by his father the privilege of constructing a race-way from the pond to the new mill erected on the mountain road, now Somerset St., where the City mills stand at present. As a grist-mill and a meeting-house were generally the earliest measures taken to locate a permanent settlement, the Webster family may properly be credited with localizing the town of Plainfield, since they were prominent in securing both of these original means of civilization.

There is no family name more honorably and continuously associated with the welfare of the Friends in this immediate locality than that of the Vails. From very early records of the meeting it is learned that a conspicuous and important part was always taken by some one of this family from the very beginnings of the Society. In 1687 mention is made of John Vail as an active member of the Society of Friends meeting the first time at Amboy the year before. He is regarded one of the early founders of the Quaker meeting at that place. His name is found first in the primitive annals of Salem, Mass., about 1650, and subsequently in Westchester county, New York, from whence he moved to East Jersey about the time of large accessions in this colony in 1685. The most reliable information concerning his family acquaints us with two prominent sons, John Vail, Jr., born 1685, and Samuel Vail. John married in 1712, Martha Fitz Randolph, of Woodbridge, and in 1732 bought a plantation of 619 acres from Peter Sonmans, one of the proprietors of East Jersey. This was part of the large tract of 2,500 acres surveyed for the Dutch landlord by Keith, in 1685. The farm of John Vail extended from near present Richmond St., on both sides of Green Brook to the vicinity of Netherwood Ave. In 1737 an action of ejectment was brought against the peaceful planter by Elizabethtown Associates, which was one of many similar lawsuits instituted by them to recover proprietary title since the date of their parent.

John Vail was a useful preacher among the Friends of that remote period and lived to the advanced age of 89 years. At his death, in 1774, he left a large family, most of whom were not identified with the Quakers. His descendants moved into Morris county and the British provinces and became distinguished in political life and scientific attainments.

Samuel Vail, son of the original John, married Sarah Farrington, 1725, of Westchester county, New York, where he lived and died. He was a Friend, and purchased a large plantation about the date of his marriage, on Green Brook, near where Dunellen is now situated. This land was occupied by his two sons, John and Stephen, who were the progenitors of the Vail family in this vicinity. His property has been in the possession of some of the descendants ever since, being over one hundred and fifty years.

John Vail, the oldest son of Samuel, married, 1730, Margaret Laing, daughter of John and Elizabeth Shotwell Laing, and had eight sons who lived to grow up to manhood, to each of whom he gave a farm -- four at Green Brook, to John, David, Abraham, and Joseph (a son by his second wife, Mary Laing), and four farms he bought in Passaic valley, near Baskingridge for Daniel, Isaac, Jacob, and Benjamin.

Stephen Vail, the other son of Samuel, married 1733, Esther Smith, and their children were Thomas, Benjamin, Stephen, Abigail, Abraham, and Sarah.

From these ancestors of this large and prosperous family descended numerous progeny who have been useful and industrious citizens and helped to make the history of

Genealogical and Personal Memorial of Mercer County, New Jersey Vol 1(IV) John Vail, eldest son of Samuel Vail, was born at Westchester, New York, April 21, 1708, died May 17, 1754, buried at Green Brook, New Jersey. He married (first), December, 1731, Margaret Laing, born 1710, daughter of John Laing; (second) Mary Laing, daughter of John Laing. His children were:Samuel, born October 24, 1732, died December 8, 1753;John, of whom later;Daniel, born March 7, 1736, married Catharine F. Randolph, died January 29, 1814;Isaac, born January 27, 1737, married Mary McGovern, died November 10, 1794;David, born June 5, 1740, married Phebe Jackson, died August 7, 1823;Jacob, born September 3, 1742, died July 8, 1823;Abraham, born September 22, 1744, married Margaret F. Randolph, died September 11, 1824;Benjamin, born October 3, 1750, married Margaret Clarkson, died October 6, 1820;Joseph, born June 12, 1752;Christiana, born December 10, 1753, married John Webster, Jr.The children of John (4) Vail, Jr., as also other grandsons of Samuel (3) Vail, both before and after the Revolutionary War took up farms SW of Plainfield under the mountains in a settlement still called Green Brook Village. Plainfield was their post office address after its establishment in 1800.With the distribution of the unoccupied back lands in 1700, and the later division among the settlers of interior tracts in 1717, many of the younger generation moved inland. But not till the last allotments were made in 1734-'39, did any considerable number venture beyond the town lots of Elizabethtown, Woodbridge and Piscatawaytown. The attraction of new land after this date induced many to settle further towards the interior and to occupy fertile farms on Cedar Brook and Green Brook and the rich valleys beyond the mountains. So that by 1750 there were occupied farms scattered over the country from the Raritan River and Staten Island Sound on the East to the Passaic River near its source and the mountains beyond (O. B. Leonard).WILL OF JOHN (4) VAIL, JR.This Will is recorded in Lieber E. 181 Trenton, N. VAIL

Biography of John Vail by descendant Robert S. Vail

Rev. John J.^{3} Vail (Samuel^{2}, Thomas^{1}) was born 1685 in Westchester Co., New York, USA, and died November 27, 1774 in Rahway, New Jersey, U.S.A.. He married Martha FitzRandolph May 17, 1712 in Woodgridge, New Jersey, U.S.A., daughter of John FitzRandolph and Martha. She was born April 25, 1693 in Woodbridge, New Jersey, U.S.A., and died April 18, 1766 in Rahway, New Jersey, U.S.A.. Notes for Rev. John J. Vail:Was a Quaker Preacher TESTIMONIAL TO JOHN (3) VAIL, Q. P. The following testimony of John (3) Vail from the Plainfield M. M. is taken from a "Collection of Memorials concerning divers deceased Ministers and others of the people called Quakers." (pub. Phila. 1787), -- the volume being in the Friends Meeting House, 15th St. and Rutherford Pl., New York City. The testimonial follows: "Our worthy and much esteemed friend, John Vail, was born at Westchester, in the Province of New Fork, and removed from thence to Woodbridge, where he settled and married. He was, when a youth, reached by the Power of truth, and submitting to the Cross, he became sober and religious; and continuing faithful to what he believed to be his duty, in infinite mercy, was pleased to bestow on him a gift in the Gospel Ministry, and he proved faithful with the one talent, witnessed an increase and growth in the Truth and was enlarged __________ * This paragraph was corrupted as a result of a printer's error, which substituted part of a line from a previous paragraph for information concerning John wife and/or his career as a builder. –Digital Editions. in his, testimony, whereby the Church was edified and the faithful comforted. "Having a regard to the Putting forth of the Divine hand he waited in Meetings for proper qualifications to minister in the ability that God gives, whereby he was often enabled, not only to reprove the unrighteousness of men, but to speak comfortably to those who mourned for the pride and abomination of the times. "He often mentioned the plainness and simplicity which our forefathers appeared in, and was sorrowfully afflicted for many of the present generation in that they slighted their good examples and indulged themselves in many things which those worthy men bore a faithful testimony against. "He was a diligent attendant at Meetings, and very exemplary in being early there, even to old age, when of ability of body often exciting friends to that duty, not as formalists but patiently to wait for qualifications to perform acceptable worship to the Almighty. "His outward circumstances being low, he was very industrious, labouring with his hands for the support of himself and family to an advanced age, being very loth to be burdensome to Friends. "He lived to a good old age and on his death bed expressed his great satisfaction and resignation to the will of the Almighty, and said that he had often considered that passage of Scripture 'If our hearts condemn us not, God is greater,' adding 'but my heart condemns me not for I have walked in innocency from my youth up.' "He divers times signified his being ready and willing to leave the world. As our dear friend walked in righteousness and humility, he increased in divine experience and his lamp shone bright to the last. "He departed this life on the 27th of the 11th Mo., 1774, in the 89th year of his age, much beloved by his friends, neighbours and acquaintances in general, a large number of whom attended his corpse to the grave, where after a solemn meeting on the occasion, it was interred in the Friends Burying Ground, at Rahway." JOHN (3) VAIL was the third of the six children of Samuel (2) Vail and his wife Elizabeth (Hunt?) who later married Thomas Gach and still later John Griffith. John (3) Vail was born in 1685 in Westchester Co., N. Y.; came to Woodbridge, N. J., with his parents when about 16 years old; bought land along Green Brook (at the present Plainfield), as did his brother Samuel (3), in about 1732. John (3) Vail was a carpenter and builder and had much to do with the erection of various Quaker Meeting Houses; he was for many years an acceptable preacher among the Friends; was an early missioner for the propagation of that faith; was delegate to various "Conventions" of the sect, if we may use that word for the Quarterly and Yearly Meeting term then employed. John (3) Vail, Q. P., died 27 November, 1774, and is buried in the Friends Burying Ground at Rahway, N. J. He was in addition to his other churchly offices, an Overseer and Deacon and Treasurer, highly respected and beloved by all. More About Rev. John J. Subject: Re: [VAIL] Samuel Vail Clermont Co Ohio b.1804

Thanks John, you have given me a lot of information on the Vails in Clermont Co. Ohio, but I don't know if these Vails are in the same family as my Samuel Vail (b. 1804)ancestor.

All I have to go on is that in the 1880 census my ancestor Samuel Vail said he was born in Ohio and his parents were born in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. His wife Martha John also states her mother was born in Pennsylvania although her father was born in Ohio. This doesn't match with the Virginia birthplaces as in your information.

I have a will for a Samuel Vail, died in 1833 Clermont Co. Union Township, Ohio, and he lists 4 sons Isaiah, Jack, Thomas and William and daughters Rebakah, Ruhama, Elizabeth, and Lyday. But there is no mention of a Samuel Vail or some of the other siblings from your list. Do you think this could be two different families? The will I have for my Samuel Vail ancestor is from Pierce Township in Clermont Co. which is near Union Township.

Any help from Vail Researchers would be greatly appreciated.

Message Board Post:

Hello,

I have some Everts family genealogy information dating back to 1600's. This Everts family was located in Connecticut and some family names are John, Nathaniel (I,ll and lll), Silas and David.Other names in the family were LeHigh and Catlin. Please email me or post your email and I can scan and send the pages. Quite interesting, hand-written "booklet".

MOORE

THE EDMINSTER FAMILY IN AMERICA

9292

Frank Custer Edminster, Jr.

Another note mentions the Edmister family, among others: "Thomas Axtell came in 1643 when he bought four acres from his friend Edmund Rice at Sudbury, Massachusetts...Other associated early families in New England (in addition to Rice, Goodnow, Dill, Dilly, Tuttle, Dod and Beach that had just been mentioned) were Moore, Newton, Hayden, Linkon, Pratt, Gobel, Drury, Cook, Burt, Edmister, Cooper, Reed, Blachly and Ward." It appears from these, various Axtells married into the Burt, Cook, Edmister, Gobel and Pratt families (72). Also, it seems likely that the Moore family mentioned is the one that some Edminster married into judging by the "Edminster Moore" known to have lived in New Jersey in 1769.

Daniel Axtell died 9 February 1736 in Massachusetts. His "...widow, Thankful, was left at his death with all of his children (ten all told) with the exception of the first two who were married. Their ages were 20 down to 8" (74). Other localities in Massachusetts mentioned in the references where the Axtells lived besides Berkley and Sudbury were Marlboro where Daniel was born, Dorchester and Freetown. Edminsters lived at both Berkley and Freetown.

Since this Joseph Edmister was married in 1741, he was clearly in the third generation and almost has to be son of James and Ann and a brother to James, 2nd and William.

At this point we will include additional information about the Axtell family (72, 73, 74, 75, 94). Thomas Axtell who came to Massachusetts from England in 1643 was born in England in 1619, son of William Axtell. Thomas' brother, Daniel, was a Regicide and was beheaded. Thomas and his wife, Mary, brought with them children Mary and Henry, the latter about two. Henry married in 1665, had two sons, Thomas, born 1672 and Daniel, born 1673 and who married Thankful Pratt. Daniel had a grandson, Henry, 3rd, who was a Major, Eastern Battalion, New Jersey Militia of Morris County, in Col. Jacob Ford, Jr.'s Regt., Revolutionary War. Henry, 3rd had followed his father-in-law from Massachusetts to Mendham Township, Morris County, New Jersey about 1740 or '41. Apparently others in the family followed soon after, including Thankful Pratt Axtell who died there in 1749. When her son-in-law Joseph Edmister moved to New Jersey is uncertain but it was likely before 1749; else why would she will her brown cow to grandson Ichabod Edmester? Her son, William, Hannah's brother, also moved to Morris County between 1743-50, probably at the same time as Hannah and Joseph (94).

This completes the evidence available on the third generation, the grandchildren of John of Scotland and Charlestown. Diagrammed, the 3 generations are:

John D. (1633-1714)
Hannah___________

Hannah 1662- James D. 1664- John 1665- Prudence 1667- Mary 1670-
Ann Makepeace

Anne Hannah Rebecah Deliverance Thankfull James William Joseph
S.Smith C. Fox E. Treadway S. Hammond T.Freelove Mary Mary Paul Hannah Axtell

moving of Caleb Chase's family from Spencer to Cornish in the late 1880's was the instigation of Zebedee's move. Zebedee lived in Cornish the rest of his life, dying in 1837 at the age of 90 (48). This reference lists only four children although it says, "There may have been other children". The four known in Cornish were Sarah, Persis, Benjamin and Zebedee, Jr. Thus, not only Henry had died in Massachusetts, and likely Katharina, but John also.

Zebedee's descendents are generally well known and will be covered in Part II.

James Edminster, born after 1755, presumed to be a son of William and Mary (Paul), was likely their youngest. He is the fourth James in the family. He was from Swanzey (Swansea), not far from Freetown. We know of him from five records. The first three are his war records which are as follows (41): "James Edmister. Private, Capt. Peleg Peck's Co., Col. Thomas Carpenter's (Bristol County) regt.; enlisted July 27, 1778; discharged Sept. 10, 1778; service 1 mo. 15 days, at Rhode Island." This is on page 219 of the reference. On page 218 is this reference of a later enlistment: "James Edminster. Private, Capt. Peleg Peck's co., Col. Thomas Carpenter's regt.; enlisted August 2, 1780; service 8 days; discharged August 9, 1780; company marched on an alarm to Tiverton, Rhode Island; by order of Col. Slead, all the men in Swanzey were joined in one company under Capt. Peck, the other officers refusing to serve." The third record (49) lists him as James Edminster of Swansea among those who were on the Revolutionary War Muster Rolls. The fourth record is the census of 1790, the first one, in which James Edminster of Bristol, Bristol County, Rhode Island, is listed as the head of family and the sole male over 16, with no males in the family under 16, and with four females in the family (50). We may therefore presume that he was married and had at least three daughters by 1790 but no sons living unless they had left home before the census was taken. No likely sons have been discovered.

In the 1800 census, James is listed as between 27 and 45 years of age with one female in the same age group, presumably his wife, and one female between 11 and 16. He was recorded this time as from Somerset, Massachusetts, which is very close to Bristol, Rhode Island. Assuming that this is the same James as in the 1790 census, two of the daughters must have left home or died by 1800 and after 1790. If this is the James who was a soldier in 1778, he could have been no more than 23 in 1778 since he was no more than 45 in 1800. This helps to confirm the identity. Further, being no more than 45 in 1800, hence no more than 35 in 1790, he could hardly have had sons grown and left home by 1790. Therefore, it is reasonably sure that he had no male heirs to carry on the name.

While we have assumed that this James was the son of William, there is the possibility that he was the son of James Jr. who was born in 1734 and Jude Rickard. They were married 26 years before he was a soldier. It makes no difference to subsequent relationships having the Edminster surname, however, since this James had no sons.

The third (probable) son of James D. and Ann, Joseph, was probably born in Massachusetts about 1715-20, married in 1741, Hannah Axtell, as noted earlier. They had at least one son, probably two.

Ichabod of Mendham, New Jersey. This person was clearly a son of Joseph and Hannah as evidenced by the will of his grandmother, Thankful Axtell. No further information about Ichabod has been found. He may have been born in Massachusetts and moved to New Jersey or he may have been born in New Jersey after his grandmother and parents moved there. Since his grandmother willed him a cow in 1749, he likely was old enough to appreciate a cow. It is therefore probable that he was born in 1742 or '43, a year or two after his parents married. It is quite possible that he is the same person as Joseph, 2nd, discussed below but since we have only the separate records of Ichabod and Joseph, at different periods, we must assume that they were different individuals.

Joseph, 2nd of Mendham, New Jersey. He is known to have been in Morris County, New Jersey during the Revolutionary War and was a soldier in that war.

The National Archives in Washington, D.C. has a "General Index to Compiled Military Service Records of Revolutionary War Soldiers". This index covers only soldiers in the federalized army and not those in the state militias. None of the six Edminsters who served from Massachusetts were in the federalized units. Five were in the state militia and the other, as noted above, was a naval commander. In this index is, "Edminster, Joseph 1 New Jersey Regiment Revolutionary War Private 489 General Index Card". Also, Card 492 is a cross-reference for "Joseph Edmister" saying that the original is filed under the name, "Joseph Edminster".

The folder for Joseph's records has only a few brief notes. He apparently served about eight months from 31 December 1776 enlistment to his capture by the enemy on 24th August. One record reads: "Joseph Edminster, Pvt., Capt. Silas Howell's Company, 1st New Jersey Regt., commanded by Mathias Ogden, Esq. appears on Company Muster Roll for month to May 31, 1777." Another: "Joseph Eminster, Pvt., appears on a Receipt Roll 'We the subscribers of Capt. Silas Howell's Compy., Colo. Ogden's Regt. do hereby acknowledge to have received from A. Ogden Jr. PyM^{r} the sums prefixed to our names which with moneys hereto fore Recd is in full of pay, from Dates of Enlistment till the first day of May 1777. Pay Due Ł2 S10 D-" Another record shows service for April 1777 and still another the same pay due for May service, and another covers pay in June 1777.

The most comprehensive is still another record which is in slight conflict with the above. It reads: "Joseph Edminster, Howell's Co., 1st New Jersey Regt., commanded by the Rt. Honble. Wm. Earl Sterling. (Revolutionary War) appears in a book Copied from Rolls of the organization named above. Date of Enlistment - Dec. 31, 1776 Casualties - Prisnr August 24, 77"

There are two more cards covering company muster roll and company payroll for the month of October 1777, one having under "Remarks: Taken 24th August." Thus Joseph appears to have been credited with at least ten months of service.

Joseph does not appear in any pension records in the Archives.

In the files of the New Jersey War Records Office in the State Armory at Trenton, Joseph's original records are filed. A summary there says: "Edmester, Joseph (Edminster), Private, Cap't. Silas Howell's Co., 1st Regt., N.J. Continental Line; enlisted by Lt. D. Hart at Morristown, December 31, 1776; taken prisoner August 21, 1777." Another record gives the capture date as August 24th.

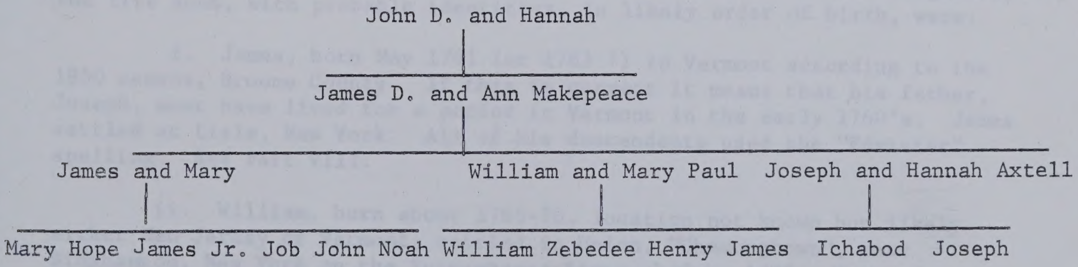
Note that Joseph's name is spelled three different ways in the records: "es', "is", and "ins".

The continuance of Joseph's record is based on further assumptions that the evidence applies to a single "Joseph". No further evidence of a Joseph has turned up in either Massachusetts or New Jersey. But the 1790 census for New York, county of Montgomery (at that time covering all of south-central New York State), town of "Chemungtown" (at that time covering what is now several counties), has a Joseph Edminster listed as head of a household with two other males over 16, two males under 16, and six females, presumably a wife and daughters. This is likely to be the Joseph from New Jersey and, presumably earlier, from Massachusetts. Supporting this view is a statement in a History of the Town of Lisle, New York (34), "Among the pioneers of the first year of the century was Joseph Edmister, who came from Massachusetts...Joseph Edmister had a large family..." The 1800 census of Tioga County, New York, which at that time included the Town of Lisle, had a "Joseph Edminston" as a head of family of one man and one woman, both over 45 years. This is likely the same man since spelling errors as well as illegibility of handwriting in census books was common; also, no "Edminston" family appears in other Lisle censuses.

There was a son (presumably) of Joseph who lived in Lisle, listed in the censuses of 1820 and 1830 as "Thomas", and who descendent Willis D. Edmister, lawyer of Binghamton, said was "Joseph". Thus he may have been Joseph Thomas or Thomas Joseph. In a letter about 1934, Willis D. told Clifford R. Edmister of Chicago that "these brothers came into this county sometime in late 1700 ('s) - think from Mass."

The further story of Joseph and his descendents composes Parts VII through XII of this book. Some of these sons clearly migrated to New York from New Jersey.

This completes the information on the known members of the fourth generation. Before proceeding further, let us diagram the three lines that produced this generation.



As already noted above, it is possible that James of Swanzey who we have judged to be a son of William and a member of the fourth generation could have been a son of James Jr., born in 1734, in which case he would have been a member of the fifth generation. It is also possible that another Noah, a soldier in 1778 and 1780, and who we will describe below as a son of James Jr., could have been a son of William and thus a member of the fourth generation rather than the fifth. These puzzles will have to await the uncovering of other records for their solution.

Part VII. Joseph Edminster (Edmister, Edmester)

(Born about 1742-43; died between 1800-1810, probably)

In Part I we discussed Joseph Edminster (Edmister, Edmester), son (probably) of Joseph and grandson of James D. and Ann (Makepeace) who was a Revolutionary War soldier from New Jersey and who, before 1790, probably, was the Joseph who had settled in Chemungtown, New York. It is also likely that he was born in Massachusetts and that his family moved to New Jersey some time before 1749. Continuing the assumption that these two were the same man, we will now give our best estimate of his family, the five sons of which will be the subjects of the last five parts of this genealogy. Some of this lineage is based on circumstantial evidence and may well contain errors.

It was noted in Part I that the First Census indicated that Joseph had four sons and five daughters at home in 1790 and that he was recorded, elsewhere, as having a "large family".

A citation about him appears in Smith's "History of Broome County" (34), page 401, as follows: "Among the pioneers of the first year of the century was Joseph Edmister, who came from Massachusetts. He took up five or six hundred acres of land, a not uncommon proceeding in those days. A part of the land was on the site of the present village of Lisle and a part on Owen Hill. A portion of the land in the Edmister estate formerly belonged to Wright Dudley, in the northern part of the village, extending up to the farm now owned by E. Carley (Note: this was first owned by John Edminster; see Part VIII); this was called Dudley Flats. Joseph Edmister had a large family and his son James inherited a portion of his father's lands..."

It seems probable that William Edminster, also listed as a head of family in the 1790 census of Chemungtown, was also a son of Joseph in addition to those listed at home with him, thus making five sons. No records of the lives of any of the daughters have been identified. (It is possible that one or more of the females in the household were other than daughters). The five sons, with probable identities, in likely order of birth, were:

i. James, born May 1761 (or 1763 ?) in Vermont according to the 1850 census, Broome County. If this is correct it means that his father, Joseph, must have lived for a period in Vermont in the early 1760's. James settled at Lisle, New York. All of his descendents used the "Edmister" spelling. See Part VIII.

ii. William, born about 1765-70, location not known but likely either New Jersey or Vermont, settled in Union, "Chemungtown", near Binghamton, New York on the Susquehanna River, before 1790. Most of his descendents spelled the name Edminster. See Part IX.

iii. David, born about 1770-73, probably in New Jersey, settled in Ulysses Township near Ithaca, New York before 1800, coming from New Jersey. His descendents were about equally divided in their spelling of the name between Edmister and Edminster. See Part X.

iv. Thomas Joseph, born about 1773-75, possibly in Massachusetts or possibly in New Jersey, settled at Lisle, New York. His descendents consistently have used the Edmister spelling. See Part XI.

v. Whitney, born 10 June 1790 in New York, probably at Lisle. He removed to Ohio with his family about 1835-40. His descendents spelled the name Edmister. See Part XII.

THE NEW HAVEN (CONN.) POTTERS, 1639.

1. Hannah [Potter] Beecher was the mother of the New Haven Potters, who appeared early in New Haven as a widow with sons : i. John, ii. William and iii. Isaac Beecher, the ancestor of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher. Her first husband, Potter, died in England, where she married a Mr. Beecher.

It is generally supposed that her husband was John Beecher, one of the seven whom Eaton sent to New Haven in advance of the colony and who died before the colony arrived. She has been considered to be the mother of Isaac Beecher, for she calls him her son in her will and gave him one-third of her property; but recent investigations, it is claimed, show conclusively that Isaac was only a step-son, the son of her second husband by a former wife.

There was in New Haven, says G. F. Tuttle, as early as 1641, a widow Hannah Potter, known as widow Potter the midwife. In 1643 she had two persons in the family, thirty pounds estate and twenty and one quarter acres of land. She is called "sister Potter the midwife," in seating the meeting house in 1646. She is supposed to have been akin to the other Potters, but there is no record to show it. She has often been confounded with the widow Hannah Beecher, but the records clearly show that they were two different persons.

The will of Hannah Beecher was proved April 5, 1659, and is recorded in first part, vol. i., p. 80, of New Haven Probate Records, as follows:

"I Hannah Beecher of New Haven, expecting my great change do make this my last will and testament, I bequeath my soul unto the hands of my Lord Jesus Christ by whose meritt I hope to be saved and my body to be burried at the discretion of my son William Potter my Executor. And for my worldly goods I give unto John Potter my Grand child twenty shillings and to Hannah Blackly, my Grand child, wife to Samuel Blackly, twenty shillings. And to Samuel Potter my Grand child twenty shillings to be paid to them within three months after my decease. And for the rest of my estate I give one third part to my son Isaac Beecher and two thirds to my eldest son William Potter, making him my Executor, desiring him to be as a father to his younger brother and his children. And in dividing my goods my will is that my son William should have my feather bed with that belongeth to it, unto his part and that the rest be divided at the discretion of my Overseers with the assistance of Sister Wakeman and sister Rutherford and I desire my loving friends Mr. Mathew Gilbert and John Wakeman to be overseers of this my last will whereunto I have set my hand this 13th day of June, Anno 1657.

Witnesses.
Mathew Gilbert,
John Wakeman.
Sarah Rutherford."

Hannah Becher.

Her children were: John Potter, died 1643. William Potter, born about 1608; died 1662.

2. JOHN^2 POTTER (Hannah^1 Beecher.) was a freeman in New Haven in 1639, not admitted when the planters' covenant was first signed but expressed his consent to it and soon after subscribed to the agreement made in general town meeting, 1639, "thatt church members onely shall be free burgesses and they onely shall chuse among themselves magistrates and officers."

In 1643 he had four persons in the family, estate valued at twenty-five pounds, and had twenty-eight and three-quarters acres of land. Tuttle says that he died in 1643. The name of John Potter's widow was Elizabeth. In June, 1646, one Mrs. Brewster was before the court for slandering many persons one of whom was William Preston. She also slandered widow Potter (of John), and Edward Parker. For some reason, not stated, the elders, &c., did not approve of Edward Parker and requested Mrs. Potter not to receive his attentions. The result was that Mrs. Potter was excommunicated and Mrs. Brewster said that "Mrs. Potter would not join the church because she would not give up Edward Parker." She married Edward Parker about this time, for in July, 1646, "Edward Parker and his wife presented their desires to the Court to invest John Potter's two sons in the right of their father's land and house and declared themselves willing to bestow a heifer of a year old on Hannah and deliver it presently for her use and so to be improved as stock for her * * * per a particular writing in the hand of the secrettarie, made and signed by both of them before the governor, deputy governor and magistrates."

In the same year "It was ordered with the consent of Edward Parker and his wife, that Jn^{o}. Potter should be put an apprentice for 8 years from the first of Aug. last unto Roger Allen for to learne his trade."

In November, 1649, Edward Parker appeared in Court and "desired that he might be freed from his engagement concerning the house and lott which was John Potter's and is securitie for the children's portions, for he is willing to leave it to the court to dispose of otherwise."

In 1650 William Potter was called before the court to account for a heifer he had of his kinswoman Hannah Potter. He said he would give twenty shillings a year for her until his kinswoman was of age to receive her.

After Edward Parker's death in 1662, his widow, Elizabeth, married Robert Rose of Branford, who died in 1665. Rose and his first wife were ancestors of the writer, and by this marriage he can say that he descended from both wives of Robert Rose.

Widow Rose was probably a business woman, for her son John Potter in his will, 1706, gives to his son Samuel "ye still that was my mother's." He also gives to the same son the bedstead and little chair "that was his grandmother's." (widow Hannah Beecher's). Widow Elizabeth Rose made her will July 23, 1677, and died before signing it. The children agreed to abide by the will and later the court admitted the will to probate. Nothing is known against widow Elizabeth Rose, alias Parker, alias Potter, except her romantic attachment for Edward Parker, and nothing is known against Parker except that the elders for some unknown reason did not approve of him. The fact that her heirs agreed to stand by a void will is conclusive proof that she was a woman of merit and had the respect of her children, who were willing, even in property affairs, to abide by her wishes. She died July 28, 1677. Her will, recorded in vol. i., part first, p. 176, New Haven Probate Records, is as follows:

"The last will of Elizabeth Rose widdow N. Haven deceased.

Know all whom it may concern that I Elizabeth Rose of New Haven widdow being weak in body yet of competent sound understanding and memory doe make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form following; committing my soule into ye hands of Jesus Christ my redemer and my body to a descent buriall according to ye discretion of my executors hereafter to be named; I dispose of my outward estate as followeth. Imps. I doe give and bequeath unto my two sons John Potter and Samll. Potter twenty shillings a piece. Item. To my son John Parker my house he lives in with all my land and meadow and all the rights & priveledges thereunto belonging. Item. to my daughter Brooks twenty shillings. Item. to my daughter Hall my small bible, and to my daughter cooke my best sute of apparrell. Item. to all my grandchildren twelve pence a piece. Item. After all my debts & legacyes be paid and other necessary expenses discharged my will is that ye remainder of my estate be equally divided between my three daughters Mary, Hope, & Lydia. And I doe desire and appoint my two sons John Potter and John Parker joint Executors of this my last will and testament and I doe allow them to have out of my estate ten shillings a piece for their care and paynes therein. And I doe hereby revoke all former wills and declare and publish this to bee my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto sett my hand and seal this three and twentyeth day of July one thousand six hundred and seventy seven. 1677, signed and sealed in ye presence of —— but dyed before signing and sealing."

The inventory of her estate amounted to £49. 11s. 09d.

The children of John and Elizabeth Potter, were:

i. John, b. about 1636. His will, dated 1706, calls him about seventy, m. 1st, Hannah Cooper, who d. June 15, 1675; m. 2d, Mary Russell, Dec. 29, 1679. He d. Dec. 24, 1706.

ii. Hannah, m. 1st. Samuel Blakesley, Dec. 3, 1650; she m. 2d, Henry Brooks, Dec. 21, 1676. Widow Hannah Brooks d. Nov. 7, 1723. Brunson in his history of Waterbury says, that Samuel Blakesley's wife Hannah was dau. of William Potter, but the will of Elizabeth Rose (who was formerly John Potter's wife), made July 23, 1677, about six months after widow Hannah Blakesley m. Henry Brooks, names her "daughter Brooks," which conclusively proves that she was the dau. of John and Elizabeth Potter.

iii. Samuel, m. Annah, dau. of William Russell, Nov. 21, 1670.

Elizabeth Potter's Parker children were:

iv. Mary Parker, bapt. Aug. 27, 1648; m. John Hall of Wallingford, Conn., Dec. 6, 1666. She died Sept. 22, 1725.

v. John Parker, bapt. Oct. 8, 1648; m. Hannah Bassett, Nov. 8, 1670.

vi. Hope Parker, b. April 26, bapt. May 26, 1650; m. Samuel Cook of Wallingford, Conn., May 2, 1667.

vii. Lydia Parker, b. April 14, 1652; m. John Thomas, Jan. 12, 1671.

3. William^2 Potter (Hannah^1 Beecher). Savage says of Watertown, Mass., probably came in the Abigail from London, in 1635, aged 27, with wife Frances, aged 26, and child Joseph, aged twenty weeks. He removed to New Haven and with his brother John signed the agreement in general town meeting. 1639. "In 1643 brother Potter was fined one shilling for coming late last trayning day," and again was fined for defective arms. He took the oath of allegiance with others in 1644.

In 1645 Brother Potter (William) made an offer, "to carry every man's grist from their howes to the mill & bring it back againe to their howes for 2d pr. bushell."

His name appears in the seating of the meeting house in 1646, and in 1647 he was one of the Fence viewers for the farms this side of East River.

On Oct. 5, 1647, it is recorded, that Mr. Evance had sold to Wm. Potter 27 and a half acres of meadow as it cometh to him in the towne books, and lyeth in the east meadows between Mr. Crayne and Bro. Punderson and 32 acres of upland. He was one of the appraisers on the estate of Richard Mansfield in 1656. His home lott was on the west side of the Quinipiac River, near the present Cedar Hill railroad station.

His will was made May 19, 1662, and is as follows:

"William Potter disposes of his estate of outward things as followeth. After all Debts discharged my will is that my wife should have her living out of the farms till my Sonne Nathanll come to ye age of 21 years, then ye sd. Nathaniell is to possess ye sd. farms and all yt is upon it, if my wife continue a widdow my will is yt my Sonne Nathanll allow her a comfortable Living out of the same and if shee see cause to Dwell elsewhere my will is yt my sonne Nathaniell allow her 12th a yeare.

it; my will is yt my sonne Joseph should have 30th. payd him within yt term of six years after ye date hereof.

it; my will is yt my daughter Hope and my daughter Rebeckah shall have 20th. apiece payd ym when their mother sees good to pay it them. My will is that those Legasyes be payd out of the farms before it come into my sonnes Nathanll's hands.

19. 3. 62.

Witnesses. William Peck, Richard Miles."

Inventory filed Aug. 1. 1662. Amt. £190. 04. 00.

Children:

i. Joseph, b. in England, in 1635; m. Phebe ———.

ii. Mary, bapt. in New Haven, Aug. 22, 1641; m. about 1657, Joseph Mansfield.

RICHARD

iii. Sarah, bapt. Aug. 22, 1641, but was not a twin with Mary. She m. 1st, Lieut. Robert Foote of Branford, Conn.; 2d, Aaron Blakesley.

iv. Hope, bapt. Oct. 3, 1641; m. Feb. 3, 1663, Daniel Robinson. Removed to New Jersey.

v. Rebecca, bapt. 1643; m. Nov. 27, 1667, Thomas Adams. Removed to Crosswicks, N. J.

vi. Nathaniel, bapt. Dec. 12, 1644; m. April 1, 1675, Elizabeth Hawes.

Of these children, Mary and Sarah are not named in their father's will, but Sarah was living Aug. 23, 1706, when "Sarah Blakesley, alias Foote, alias Potter, daughter of William Potter," acknowledges on p. 130, vol. v., New Haven Land Records, the receipt of her full share in her father's estate.

The following is the Potter record from vol. i., in the Registrar's Office, New Haven, Conn. :

PART 5.

JOHN AND WILLIAM POTTER, OF NEW HAVEN, CONN., AND THEIR DESCENDANTS.

The brothers John Potter^{1} and William Potter^{2} signed the Plantation Covenant, New Haven, Conn., June 4, 1639. It is probable that they came to America at the same date. There is a record of the arrival of William Potter: "Came in the 'Abigail' from London, 1635, aged 27; wife Frances, aged 26, and child Joseph, aged 20 weeks, and his mother, Hannah Beecher, she had married again after the death of her first husband." William Potter, in a will dated 1662, names children Nathaniel, Joseph, Hope, and Rebecca. Hannah Beecher, in her will, mentions son William Potter; her son John had died before her death. Stephen Dodd's East Haven Register has this account respecting John Potter (East Haven constituted a part of the town of New Haven for one hundred and forty-six years, 1785): —

"In 1651 John Potter obtained 20 acres of the Fresh Meadow lands. In 1662, John Potter obtained a piece of land upon which to set his blacksmith shop.

"On the 19th of August, 1680, Thomas Clark sold to Sergt. John Potter 'all that farm lying and being within the township of New Haven, and near and adjoining to a brook called by the name of Stoney Brook, which Thomas Clarke bought of Nathaniel Micklethwaite of the city of London, merchant, containeth by estimation 300 acres of upland, be it more or less, and 3 score acres of meadow, be it more or less, adjoining thereto; excepting always all the uplands that hath been formerly sold from the said farme or iron workes, reserving only all the Iron worke plates of Iron, and the moveables to himself, that are upon the premises.'

"John Potter was to pay £40 per annum for 21 years, in wheat, pork, and peas. Sergt. John Potter did not resume the Iron business, as was contemplated when he bought the farm.

"But in the year 1692, he and Thomas Pinion petitioned New Haven for liberty to set up a Bloomary on the first spring, or brook towards Foxson. In April, 'some of the townsmen having viewed the brooke that runs into Stoney River at the place or thereabouts, which was moved for by John Potter, formerly to set up a Bloomary; and for his encouragement allow him the use of said brooke, and 20 acres of land, not exceeding 30, near the first spring, the west side of Stoney River; and grant him the liberty of what Iron mines there are within the town bounds, and the use of what wood he needs in the commons for the work, if it proves effectual. And the aforesaid land is to be laid out and bounded to him, by the surveyor, and one or two of the townsmen. Always preserving the necessary highways, if there be any.' This Bloomary was established, but there is no record of how long it existed."

The estate of John Potter was rated at £25, and his family consisted then of four persons, — himself, wife, and two children, viz., John, Jr., and Samuel. His house lot soon became the property of Alling Ball, and it is probable that he died as early as 1643. His name does not appear in the record of the first "seating of the meeting-house" in 1645–6. His widow, Elizabeth Potter, married, June, 1646, Edward Parker, who died in 1662, and she married a third time, Robert Rose, of Branford, Conn. The will of Elizabeth Rose was made July 20, 1677; she died before signing and sealing it, but the children agreed to its provisions, and, at a subsequent court, it was admitted. She names her sons, John and Samuel Potter, "my son John Parker, to have my house he lives in, and daughter Brooks, daughter Hall, and daughter Cook — all my grandchildren — to have £12 apiece. The rest to be divided to my three daughters, Mary, Hope, and Lydia." Sons, John Potter and John Parker, joint executors. Estate appraised by John Cooper and John Winston.

John Potter, Jr.,^{3} born about 1635, baptized at New Haven, Conn., Oct. 17, 1641, died Dec. 24, 1706, was the eldest son of John Potter, the first settler. In 1662, he bought of John Tuttle, Jr., a homestead in East Haven, which the latter had received by deed of gift from his father, William Tuttle, of New Haven, 1661. In this deed John Potter is called blacksmith. "His will was proved in New Haven in 1706–7, in which he calls himself 70 years of age; wife Mary, and sons, John and Samuel, executors; desires to be buried in New Haven; leaves £5 to the church, in care of Rev. John Pierpont; Deacon Penderson and Deacon Bradley, trustees. Wife Mary to dispose of her own estate, as by agreement, before marriage, and she gave it away to her children. She was a laborious, loving, and tender-hearted wife to me, notwithstanding. Eldest son, John, to have shop and smith's tools, right in Branford. Son Samuel to have 6 acres for his house lot over against David Austin's house: 8 acres above Matthew Moulthrop's house; 4 acres of salt meadow that was Mr. Tuttle's, and 8 acres 'blumery': also, the homestead that was his grandmother's, and a room in my house as long as he behaves himself well towards his mother-in-law, and, if she is removed by marriage or death, Samuel must come to terms with his brother John, and if Samuel marries, he shall not bring his wife into the house of his mother-in-law. Abigail, my dau., shall have the still that was my mother's. . . . Will proved 1st Monday in Jan. 1706/7. Inventory, £416 4*s*. 0*d*."

Samuel Potter,^{5} baptized in New Haven, Oct. 17, 1641, removed to Wallingford, and at the settlement, in 1669, had 12 Mar. 1637/8—Richard Wright is one of the committee of four which reported the bounds of Mr. Humfrey's lands which was a mile along the Salem and Lynn line, including part of the plain and the land on which the houses of "Thomas Smyth* and Willi: Wytters houses stand" [Mass. Bay Records, vol. I, pp. 226, 7].

18 Feb. 1638—"It hath appeared that . . . Richard Wright hath sold 130 acres of land at Mount Wollaston to one Mr. Pane of Concord without the consent of the town and he is fined £6" [Boston Town Records (1634–1648), p. 37].

4 Dec. 1638—At the Quarter Court held at Boston, "William Blanton appearing, was enjoyned to appear at the next court, with all the men that were in the canooe wth him, & [Thomas] Aplegate, w^{ch} owned the canooe out of w^{ch} the 3 psons were drowned; & it is ordered that no canooe should bee vsed at any fferry vpon paine of £5; nor no canooe to bee made in o^{r} jurisdiction before the next Generall Court vpon paine of £10. Also, order was appointed to be given to Richard Wright to stave that canooe out of w^{ch} these persons were drowned" [Mass. Bay Records, vol. I, p. 246].

16 Feb. 1639—Richard Wright is dismissed from the Boston Church to the Braintree Church [Boston Church Records].

18 Feb. 1639—Richard Wright to have "a narrow piece of land lying at Mount Wollaston between the mill and the fresh brook . . . to the furtherance of his water mylne building there, in regard to his ready serviceableness to the Towns occasions" [Patee's Hist. of Old Braintree (1878), p. 30].

27 Feb. 1639—Richard Wright is mentioned as one of "Our neighbors and Bretheren of the Mount" [Boston Town Records (1634–1648), p. 47].

5 Mar. 1638/9—At the Quarter Court held at Boston, "Willi: Blanton, Willi: Potter, Rob^{rt} Thrope, Henry Neale, John Fitch,† & Thomas Aplegate, appearing, were discharged wth an admonition not to adventure too many into any boate" [Mass. Bay Records, vol. I, p. 249].

From this record it will be seen that there were nine men in this canoe.

14 Apr. 1639—Nos Joheñ Reade de Weymouth in Nova Angli Plantator et Richardum Wright de Mountwollaston in N.A. Plantatorem tener '&c. Willo Tyng mercator in [blank] libris Dat.14.2.1639 coram [Lechford's Note-Book, p. 66].

1 May 1639—Articles of agreement‡ signed between Mr. John Wilson, Pastor of the church of Boston and Richard Wright [Lechford's Note-Book, p. 144].

* A Thomas Smyth was later at Rehoboth.

† John Fitch was later at Rehoboth.

‡ These articles of agreement were probably in connection with Mr. Wilson's land at Braintree, which was granted him in 1634 in exchange for land which he held at Mystic. As he is always mentioned in connection with affairs at Mount Wollaston, he probably did not live in the town, but rather on his farm. He had no land in the Book of Possessions five or six years later than this date though his land is mentioned as bounding an estate at Mount Wollaston.

BOUTCHER, of Hartford, England. Sons were Vincent, Derick, Joseph, Reune, Ephraim and Peter, and perhaps John. The Runyons of Somerset and Union counties, of whom the late Chancellor Theodore Runyon was a conspicuous member, all belong to the Piscataway line.

RYNEARSON--ARENT THEUNISSEN (known as VAN HENGEL) came from Hengel, Holland, in 1653, settling on Staten Island. (For particulars, see Quarterly Vol. V, p. 285)

SCHENCK--Martin Schenck, b. 1584 in Doesburgh, Holland; m. there MARIA MARGARETTA DE BOCKHURST; was probably the father of Roelif and Jan Schenck who came to New Amsterdam in 1750. Roelif Martense, b. about 1630 (said to have been b. at Amersfoort, Holland) was the ancestor of the principal Schenck families of Monmouth and Somerset counties.

SCHOMP--Originally SCHAMP of Huguenot origin, the family, in 1573, escaped from France to the Netherlands, from which country Pieter Schamp, a soldier, came to New York City in 1672. His son, George, about 1712, settled between South Branch and Neshanic, in Somerset Co., and, in 1729, removed to Pleasant Run, Hunterdon Co., between White House and Flemington. From him descend the Schomp families. Part of the original house built at Pleasant Run by George's son Hendrick, and used as a tavern, still stands.

SCHUREMAN--Jacobus SCHUURMAN, as "schoolmaster", came to Somerset Co. from Holland with Rev. Theodorus J. Frelinghuysen in the ship "King George", in 1719, and settled at Three-Mile Run; m., about 1720, ANTJE TERHUEN, daughter of ALBERT TERHUEN, of Flatbush, L. I.; d. 1754 or later. From 1744 until his death he lived on a 200 acre farm at Three-Mile Run, more recently known as the Bronson farm. Sons were John, Ferdinand, Jacob (supposed) and Albertines. Numerous descendants of John, who became a prominent man in the Revolution, are living, but mostly through female lines.

SHOTWELL--John Shotwell came from England (date unknown) and settled between Scotch Plains and Plainfield; m. (1) ________ SMITH; (2) MARY WEBSTER. Sons were John Smith, Jacob, William, Isaiah, James and Hugh. The North Plainfield Shotwells are from this line.

SHARP--Matthias, John Peter, and others, closely related, no doubt, were in New Jersey at an early period--before 1750--but dates of immigration not known. They probably all came from the Palatinate, Germany, and settled in Hunterdon, Morris, and Sussex (now Warren) counties. Somerset Sharps seem to have descended from the two sons above named.

SKILLMAN--Thomas Skillman, b. in England 1641, a soldier in the English army, was among those who took New Amsterdam from the Dutch in 1665; lived at Dutch Kills, Kingston and Newtown, N.Y.; m. 1669 (or 1671) SARA PETIT (a Huguenot); d. 1689. His son Thomas is the one through whom are derived the Somerset Skillmans. (An account of this family will appear later in the Quarterly).

Welcome to the Archives Records Information Access System (ARIAS) The following archives are available online:

Mexican Border Campaign Veterans' Card File - {series #19.110}

These cards, bearing the title "Mexican Emergency, Call of President, June 18, 1916," contain the following information about veterans: name and rank, regiment and company, age and place of birth, a physical description (height, complexion, hair and eye color), date of commission or enlistment into service, home station and date of rendezvous, and date of acceptance into United States service. Additional remarks may indicate the date that the soldier's enlistment was to expire and the name and address of a person to be contacted in case of an emergency. All of the cards also bear a stamp indicating that a Mexican Service Medal was issued to the veteran, along with a corresponding number.

Revolutionary War Military Abstract Card File - {series #13.50}

Arranged alphabetically by surname of soldier. The abstract card file contains transcriptions of data extracted from original records in the custody of the State Archives concerning Revolutionary War service in the Pennsylvania Militia, Pennsylvania Line, and the Navy. Note that duty after November 1783 is not considered Revolutionary War service. Information provided is name and rank of soldier, whether active or inactive duty, county of residence, battalion in which served, and record from which information was extracted. Also noted are whether soldier was delinquent and fined or whether militia fines were abated.

The entry "Active Duty" indicates that the soldier saw active duty in either the Pennsylvania Militia or the Pennsylvania Line while "Inactive Duty" indicates that the soldier did not necessarily see active duty. Associators were volunteers who comprised the Military Association, a civilian reserve designed to repel any invasion of Pennsylvania until the collapse of the Association in the winter of 1776-1777. The Pennsylvania Militia was organized under an Act of the Assembly of March 17, 1777 that required compulsory enrollment by constables of all able-bodied white males between the ages of 18 and 53 to repel invaders. The "Flying Camps" were special battalions of Pennsylvania Line troops recruited from the Pennsylvania Associators. Rangers were soldiers who served long periods of enlistment to protect the frontier against Indian incursions. Entries for Depreciation Pay Certificates apply to soldiers who served 1777-1780 when the currency was depreciating and were paid in Continental Bills of Credit that quickly lost value. To compensate for such depreciation, each soldier of the Pennsylvania Line who remained in service in 1781 was awarded a substantial sum in Depreciation Pay Certificates which were both interest bearing and negotiable. In addition, at the end of the war arrears and allowances due were met by issuing to each soldier still in service a number of interest-bearing final settlements called Pierce's Certificates (named after the paymaster who dispensed them).

Some cards show a certificate number that relates to the Militia Loan of 1784-1785. This loan was established to pay individuals for services and goods provided during the Revolutionary War that had not been reimbursed at that time. Note that not all certificate numbers give additional information.

OOPS! belay that last response, I misread your e-mail. The Samuel Vail, grandson of Thomas and son of Samuel Vail and Elizabeth Hunt, died in 1733. It is very well possible that the first Samuel Vail grave that has no info attached could be this Samuel Vail. He was living in the immediate area upon his death. I have his will and other info on him if you need it.

BlankThis begins the New Jersey section. Plainfield NJ has I believe the highest concentration of the Vail family that one can find. Most, if not all of the Vail family from Plainfield NJ descend from the Thomas Vail line, specifically Samuel Vail, grandson of Thomas Vail, the immigrant. The Vail family of the Plainfield area were Quakers for the most part. To this day, their are still a large amount of the Vail family in this area. My father was born there, and my Grandfather and his family lived there for most of their lives.

Additional Burial Records Information

Death records of the Rahway and Plainfield Monthly Meeting of Friends by Charles C. Gardner, in the Genealogical Magazine of New Jersey, Vol 27 (1952) pp 1,42,77 & Vol 28 (1953) p 37. These records, transcribed from records in custody of New York Yearly Meeting, List: Deaths from 1705 to 1892. Further information - thru 1963 has been compiled by Lee C. Varian "The Plainfield Friends Meeting and Burial Grounds"
Reading from Lee C. Varian's booklet: "The graves in the burial ground are arranged in 15 rows of 30 plots each. . . .The inscription is given inside quotation marks, exactly as it appears on the stone, with a single slash indicating the end of a line. A double slash indicates the beginning of a second stone on the plot. "
While Lee Varian's booklet indicates some portions of weathered inscriptions are filled in from other sources (maps by Ephraim M. Vail and a publication called "A record of Members of Rahway and Plainfield Monthly Meeting, 1899-date", the listing below will not distinguish readable from non-readable material and shows it completely, combining as read and filled in. Should anyone need to distinguish this, contact Alan Taplow at the e-mail address shown immediately below. Many plots contain no grave stones or stones inscribed with initials only. Reading this quotation from "Woodbridge & Vicinity" , we find that some early Quakers did not approve of marking graves.

"At the monthly meeting held in Woodbridge on the 17th of February, 1751, we find it stated that "Some friends hauing been Consernd in Seting up grave Stones in our Burying ground, John Vail and Joseph Shotwell are desired to Treat with them and to desire them to Haue them Remoued." On the 21st of April a report was rendered that some had taken the stones down, but had laid them on the graves. Others had not done even that - the stones remaining in their original positions. On the 17th of the next month, however, it was reported that all said to have come from Germany. Some suppose him to have been a son or grandson of Marten Harmanzen Hoffman (or Hopman), saddler, of Reuel (Sweden?), who m., 1663, in Brooklyn, LYSBET HERMANS, and, the next year, in New Amsterdam, EMMERENTJE DE WITT.

HONEYMAN--John Honeyman, b. at or near Armagh, Ireland, of Scotch parentage, came to America in 1758 as a soldier under General Wolfe, becoming one of his bodyguard. Settling, after the French and Indian War, in Philadelphia, he m. there, 1764, MARY HENRY, of a Scotch-Irish family, from Coleraine, Ireland, who d. 1801, He settled near Griggstown about 1772, and was a spy of General Washington in the Revolution. He removed, in 1793, to Bedminster township; d. 1822, in his 93rd year. He m. (second), about 1804, MRS. ELIZABETH BURROWS (nee ESTEL). Sons were John and James. All the Honeymans of Somerset and Hunterdon descend from him. (Full Honeyman family history has been published by the editor of the Quarterly.)

HOWELL--Edward Howell, b. 1584, (son of Henry) came from Wedon, Bucks co., England, in 1639, settling first at Boston, then Lynn, Mass., then Southampton, L. I.; d. about 1665. Had two wives, FRANCES ________ and ELEANOR ________. Sons were Henry, John, Edward, Richard, Arthur and Edmund. The Howells of central New Jersey appear to belong to this line, chiefly through Arthur, although there were other early Howells in New Jersey (e.g., David, b. about 1680, of near Trenton in 1702, coming there from Long Island) of uncertain connection with Edward and some of their descendants have claimed Welsh descent.

HULSIZER--Jacob HULSHIZER came from Germany before 1750, settling in Sussex (now Warren) co.; m. in Germany, MARGARET LUNGER; d. 1819. Sons were Abraham, probably Martin and Jacob, and perhaps others. Left many descendants in Warren co., and a few reached Somerset. As a rule the name continued HULSHIZER.

HUNT--Ralph Hunt, doubtless from England, was an early settler at Middleburg, L. I., about 1652, and a most useful citizen and magistrate. He d. 1677. Sons were Ralph, Edward, John and Samuel. Edward's sons, Edward and Richard, settled in Hunterdon co., but whether Col. Stephen Hunt, of the Revolution, and other Bedminster twsp. Hunts are of this stock or not the writer has not ascertained.

JAMESON--Colonel David Jameson, M. D., came from Scotland to Charleston between 1740 and 1747, his companions being General Hugh Mercer, who fell at the battle of Princeton. He was a graduate of Edinburgh Medical College. In 1756 he was at York, Pa., and there m. ELIZABETH DAVIS. He was successively Captain, Brigade Major, and, 1760, Lieut. Colonel, and in 1777 Colonel, serving in the Revolution. After 1790 he resided at Shippensburg, Pa., where he died. His youngest son, Dr. Thomas Jameson, who m. CATHERINE McCLELLAN, was father of the late Rev. Charles Miller Jameson, of Somerville.
